PART II

Tenure of Lands by Inhabitants of the Island

4. All lands within the Island of Barbuda are hereby vested in the Governor-General on behalf of the Crown and shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Lands vested in Governor-General on behalf of the Crown.

5. (1) All persons inhabiting the Island of Barbuda shall be and are hereby declared to be tenants of the Crown; and such persons shall neither hold nor deal with any land situate within the said island save and except as hereinafter appears by the provisions of this Act and subject to any by-law made by the Council in that behalf.

Inhabitants are tenants of the Crown.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as precluding the grant by the Crown of any interest in or over any piece or parcel of land within Barbuda to any person whether or not that person is an inhabitant of Barbuda.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, no person shall acquire the ownership of any piece or parcel of Crown land within Barbuda by prescription.

(4) If any inhabitant of Barbuda can show to the satisfaction of the Crown that a grant by the Crown to any other person of any interest in or over any piece or parcel of land within Barbuda has caused him any material loss in respect of any use that he has been making of that piece or parcel of land by virtue of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, that inhabitant shall be entitled to fair compensation in respect of that loss within a reasonable time.

(5) An inhabitant of Barbuda to whom subsection (4) of this section applies shall have the right of access to a tribunal appointed by the Chief Justice to determine the amount of any compensation to which that inhabitant is entitled under this section and for the purpose of obtaining payment of that compensation.

(6) A tribunal appointed under subsection (5) of this section shall consist of a chairman who shall be a barrister or solicitor of not less than five years standing and two other members being persons appearing to the Chief Justice to be qualified for appointment by virtue of their knowledge of and experience in Barbuda affairs.

(7) An appeal shall lie to the High Court from any decision of a tribunal appointed under subsection (5) of this section; such appeal shall be exercisable as of right at the instance of any party to the proceedings before the tribunal and shall be final and conclusive for all intents and purposes whatsoever.

(8) The Chief Justice may make rules with respect to the practice and procedure of the High Court and a tribunal in relation to the jurisdiction conferred upon the High Court by this section or exercisable by a tribunal for the purposes of this section (including rules with respect to the time within which applications to the High Court or a tribunal may be brought).

PART III

Allotments, Buildings and Provision Grounds

Allotments in village.

6. It shall be lawful for the Council, with the sanction and approval of the Cabinet, to allot, distribute and divide all land within the village amongst villagers subject to the following conditions—

(a) The lands shall be laid out in allotments of such dimensions and areas as the Council shall direct.

(b) Every such allotments shall be used exclusively by the allottee thereof for the purpose of erecting and maintaining a house or hut thereon as a place of residence.

(c) The allottee or tenant shall pay as rent in respect of land allotted to him such sum as the Council may from time to time see fit to impose, and until some other rent be imposed a rent of twenty-four cents per annum, commencing from the date of such allotment, shall be paid by such allottee or tenant.

(d) In all cases where any rent in respect of such allotment shall remain unpaid after the same shall have become due and payable, the Secretary shall serve the tenant thereof with a notice to quit, and where such tenant shall either refuse or neglect to quit such allotment, the Secretary may take all such proceedings as are prescribed by the Small Tenements Act for the purpose of ejecting him therefrom. Cap. 406.

7. It shall be lawful for the Council, with the sanction and approval of the Cabinet to set apart for public purposes all such portions, either within or without the confines of the village, as may be deemed expedient and to lay out the same as to the Council with the concurrence of the Cabinet shall appear best adapted for improving the Island of Barbuda and promoting the health, comfort and security of the inhabitants, reserving such portions for highways, paths or otherwise as shall appear desirable. Reservation for public purposes.

8. It shall be lawful for the Council with the sanction and approval of the Cabinet to stop up and divert any highway or path within the Island, whether in the village or not, and to open up and make other highways and paths through the said Island. Highways.

9. (1) It shall be lawful for the Council with the sanction and approval of the Cabinet to set apart such portions of land, without the confines of the village, as may be deemed expedient for the purpose of such lands being used and cultivated by the villagers as provision grounds. Allotment and rental of provision grounds.

(2) All such lands as aforesaid when so set apart for such purposes as aforesaid may be allotted and divided amongst the villagers in such plots as the Council shall deem expedient.

(3) The rent payable in respect of every such plot as aforesaid shall be at such rate per acre as the Council may from time to time see fit to impose and until some other rate be so imposed the rent shall be at the rate of twenty-four cents per acre per annum payable from the date of allotment.

10. In all cases where any rent in respect of any such provision ground shall remain unpaid after the same shall have become due and payable, the Secretary shall serve the tenant thereof with a notice to quit and where such tenant shall either refuse or neglect to quit such provision ground Proceedings for non-payment of rent.

13. There shall be a close time for all deer within the Island of Barbuda, such close time being the months of April, May, June, October, November and December in every year, or any other period which the Council may by order published in the Gazette determine:

Provided always that in the months of January, February and March no does shall be shot.

Deer not to be shot during close time, except in enclosures.

14. During such close time aforesaid it shall not be lawful for any person to shoot or destroy any deer within the said Island and any person who shall shoot or destroy any deer during such close time as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence against the provisions of this Act and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a penalty not exceeding three thousand dollars:

Provided always that within enclosures set apart for agricultural purposes by order of the Council all deer may be shot at any time by any person specially authorised by the Council.

15. It shall be lawful for the Council to issue permits in all cases where it is deemed expedient so to do, to such persons as may be desirous of shooting deer or other game; and every person to whom such permit shall be issued shall pay to the Council in respect thereof such sum as may be prescribed by by-law:

Permit to shoot deer or other game on payment.

Provided that for every deer shot under the said permit after the number of three the sum of ninety-six cents shall be paid; and every person to whom a permit is issued shall deposit with the Secretary at the time of issue a sum sufficient to cover the total amount payable in respect of the total number of deer named in the permit:

Provided also that in no case shall a permit to shoot deer be issued during the close time aforesaid, except in the enclosures aforesaid; and provided further that the maximum number of deer to be shot within the Island of Barbuda within any year shall not exceed such number as the Council shall hereafter determine.

16. Every such permit as aforesaid shall be in the form and contain all such particulars therein appearing, and set forth in Schedule C and in all cases where any person to whom any such permit shall have been issued shall contravene in any manner whatsoever any of the provisions of this Act in respect thereof it shall be lawful for the Council to cancel and revoke such permit.

Form of permit and cancellation thereof, Schedule C.

PART V

General Regulations with Respect to Taxes and the Collection and Payment thereof

35. Any livestock in the Island of Barbuda, in respect of which a stock licence is necessary under the provisions of this Act and in respect of which no such licence shall have been taken out and is in current force, shall become and be the property of the Council and shall be dealt with by the Secretary in all respects as if such livestock had originally been the property of the Council;

Provided that it shall be lawful for the Council on the application of the owner of such livestock on good cause shewn to order such livestock to be returned to the owner, subject to such terms and conditions as to the Council may seem fit.

Licensed animals to be marked.

36. It shall be lawful for the Council to cause the holders of a livestock licence to mark the animals comprising such livestock licence in such manner as the Council may from time to time direct for the purposes of identification in order that the provisions of this Act may be the better carried out; and in all cases where the holder of any livestock licence fails to mark his livestock at the time when and in such manner as the Council directs he shall be liable on conviction for every such failure to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, and all such stock which may be found without the prescribed marks upon them may be seized and dealt with in accordance with the provisions of section 47.

PART VI

Highways and Enclosures, and Sanitary Regulations

Repair of roads, wells, etc.

37. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to supervise the repairs of the highways, wells and enclosures of the Island of Barbuda and for that purpose to employ and pay labourers to prevent any encroachments on and injuries to the same and generally to carry out and enforce the provisions of this Act and any by-law made by the Council and to prosecute all persons offending against the same.

Sanitary regulations.

38. The Council may in order to ensure the cleanliness of, and to secure the sanitation of the village and to promote the health of, and prevent the spread of any epidemic, infectious or contagious disease amongst the inhabitants of the Island of Barbuda make any by-law with respect to the following matters—

(a) the drainage of all buildings within the Island and more particularly with respect to earth closets, privies and cesspools used in connection therewith,

(b) the closing and shutting up of all buildings or parts of buildings of any kind whatsoever unfit for human habitation and the prohibition of their use.

(c) all tanks and wells used in connection with any building or otherwise for the purpose of ensuring wholesale storage of water, and may attach to any breach of any such by-law a penalty which may extend to five hundred dollars, and in the case of a continuing offence, a further penalty which may extend to twenty-five dollars for each day after written notice of the offence.

39. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to ensure that all rubbish, excrement and filth of any description be duly removed from any highway or path within the village. Removal of filth.

40. It shall be lawful for the Secretary at all reawnable hours in the daytime, with a view to ascertaining the sanitary condition thereof, to enter into, visit and inspect all buildings and enclosures and premises attached thereto within the Island of Barbuda. Sanitary inspection.

41. The occupier of every allotment shall keep the same clean and clear of growing bush, rubbish, excrement and filth of any description, and keep all walls and fences appertaining thereto in good and effective repair to the satisfaction of the Secretary, and in default thereof it shall be lawful for the Secretary to give notice to such occupier requiring him within reasonable time to cleanse the same and every such occupier who shall fail to comply with such notice shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five dollars for every day during which he shall fail to comply with such notice. Allotments to be kept clear.

PART VII

Regulations with Respect to Coasting Trade

Coasting licence.

42. (1) No boat shall engage in any coasting trade unless the master thereof shall have first obtained from the Council a licence in the form set forth in Schedule D for that purpose; such aforesaid licence shall remain in force for the space of twelve months from the date of issue.

Schedule D.

(2) The licence, for which the sum of one dollar and twenty cents is payable, shall remain in force for the space of twelve months from the date of issue.

Master of licensed boat to keep pass book.

43. The master of every boat so licensed to engage in coasting trade as aforesaid shall keep a pass book in which a legible entry shall be made by him of all cargo intended to be shipped and carried together with the destination of such boat.

Pass book to be signed as clearance.

44. Before proceeding coastwise the master shall produce such pass book to the Secretary in order that he may sign the same and grant a sufferance for the departure of such boat. All boats shall proceed direct to St. John's, where such pass book shall be produced to the Custom Office before going elsewhere. The master of such boat shall further cause to be entered in the said pass book all cargo intended to be carried to Barbuda, and shall obtain the signature of a Treasury officer to the same before departure from Antigua, and shall on return to Barbuda, produce such book to the Secretary.

Master of boat failing to comply with provisions of Act liable to penalty.

45. In all cases where the master of any boat licensed to be engaged in coasting trade shall fail or neglect in any respect whatsoever to comply with the provisions of this Act such master shall on conviction be liable to a penalty not exceeding three thousand dollars.
