- (ii) the child or step-child under the age of eighteen years, of that person;
- (iii) a legally adopted child under the age of eighteen (18) years."; and

(b) by the insertion of the following definitions —

"temporary residence certificate" means a temporary residence certificate issued by the Minister under section 17E;

"temporary resident" means a person who holds a temporary residence certificate issued under this Act.

Amendment of section 7.

3. Section 7 (1) of the principal Act is amended —

(a) by the deletion of paragraphs (b) and (c) and the substitution of the following —

"(b) a person who is a permanent resident or a temporary resident or a dependant of that person;

(c) a person in the service of the Government of Antigua and Barbuda or a dependant of that person".

(b) by the insertion, immediately after paragraph (b), of the following paragraph —

"(c) a person who holds a permit to enter or to remain in Antigua and Barbuda so long as that person complies with the conditions or restrictions relating to his permit"; and

(c) by renumbering paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) as paragraphs (d), (e) and (f), respectively.

Addition of sections 17C, 17D, 17E, and 17F.

4. The principal Act is amended by the addition, immediately after section 17B, of the following sections —

rtifi

"Persons qualified for status of temporary resident.

17C. (1) A person who is not a prohibited immigrant or otherwise disqualified from entering Antigua and Barbuda may be granted a temporary residence permit if, on an application for the permit in the prescribed form and upon payment of the prescribed fee, the Minister is satisfied that —

- (a) he is eighteen years of age or over; and
- (b) he is, immediately before the date of the application, resident, and has been resident for three years or more, in Antigua and Barbuda.

(2) The Minister shall, upon being satisfied of the matters referred to in subsection (1) and acting on the advice of Cabinet, register the applicant and, on payment of the prescribed fee by the applicant, issue him with a temporary residence certificate in the prescribed form.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), in calculating the period of residence in Antigua and Barbuda for the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (1), a period of absence from Antigua and Barbuda —

- (a) for less than six months in any one year;
- (b) for the purpose of education as certified by the Chief Education Officer; or
- (c) for reasons of health as certified by the Chief Medical Officer, shall be treated as residence in Antigua and Barbuda.

(4) In calculating the period of residence in Antigua and Barbuda for the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (1), account shall not be taken —

- (a) of any period during which a person was not lawfully resident in Antigua and Barbuda; or
- (b) of any period spent as an inmate in prison or as a person detained in lawful custody in any place, other than a mental institution, under the provisions of any enactment in force in Antigua and Barbuda.

(5) A temporary residence certificate is valid for twenty-four months and may be renewed on application in the prescribed form to the Minister upon payment of the prescribed fee.

No exemption from other requirements.

17D. A permanent resident certificate or a temporary residence certificate issued under this Act shall not, in itself, be construed as exempting the holder or a dependant from any obligation to hold a licence, permit or other authorisation required for engaging in gainful occupation.

Residence status of dependants.

17E. (1) A dependant of a person who holds an entry permit, a permanent resident certificate or a temporary residence certificate and whose name appears on the permit or certificate may, by virtue of the permit or certificate, enter and remain in Antigua and Barbuda during the period of validity of the permit or certificate so long as he remains a dependant.

(2) A copy of a permit or certificate referred to in subsection (1), authenticated by the Chief Immigration Officer, shall be sufficient authority for a dependant whose name appears on it to enter and remain in Antigua and Barbuda, so long as the holder of the permit or certificate remains resident in Antigua and Barbuda.
