- (vii) engage in conduct prohibited under section 33;
- (viii) otherwise affect the efficient operation and staging of a CWC 2007 activity; or

(b) specified in the Second Schedule.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1)—

- (a) may be ordered by an authorised person to leave the CWC 2007 venue; or
- (b) may be removed from the CWC 2007 venue by a police officer, if that person refuses to comply with an order under paragraph (a); and
- (c) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $40,000.

Surrender of items.

26. (1) An authorised person may request a person to surrender any item that—

- (a) is prohibited under section 25(1) or restricted under section 25(2)(b) or that may be used in a manner to contravene section 25(2), which is in his possession at any security point or entrance of a CWC 2007 venue; and
- (b) has been brought into a CWC 2007 venue—
 - (i) in contravention of section 25(1) or 25 (2) (b); or
 - (ii) that may be used to contravene section 25(2).

(2) A person who refuses to surrender an item when requested to do so under—

- (a) subsection (1) (a) may be denied entry to the CWC 2007 venue; or
- (b) subsection (1)(b) may be—
 - (i) ordered by an authorised person to leave the CWC 2007 venue; or
 - (ii) removed from the CWC 2007 venue by a police officer, if that person refuses to comply with an order under sub paragraph (i).

(3) An authorised person, on receiving an item under this section shall give receipt to the person from whom it was taken, indicating the nature of the item and the date and time when possession of it was taken by the authorised person.

(4) An item referred to in subsection (3) shall, except where the person is charged, be lodged with CWC 2007 Inc. and be available for collection within 48 hours after possession of it was taken at such place as notified to the person from whom it was taken.

27. (1) No person shall, without the written authorisation of CWC 2007 Inc.—

Sale of goods or services

- (a) hawk, sell, promote, offer or display for sale, or distribute to members of the public, any goods or services, flyers or pamphlets;

ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA 22 The ICC Cricket World Cup West Indies 2007 Act, 2006. No. 19 of 2006.

(b) collect money or orders from members of the public for goods or services, in a CWC 2007 venue during a match period.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1)—

(a) may be ordered by an authorised person to leave the CWC 2007 venue; or

(b) may be removed from the CWC 2007 venue by a police officer, if that person refuses to comply with an order under paragraph (a); and

(c) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $4000.

Power to photograph etc. certain persons.

28. (1) An authorised person who suspects, on reasonable grounds, that a person in a CWC 2007 venue has committed or has been involved in the commission of an offence in contravention of this Part may take a photograph or make another form of image including a closed circuit television recording of that person.

(2) A photograph or other image taken under subsection (1)—

(a) may only be used for the purpose of identification in relation to proceedings for an offence under this or any other Act; and

(b) except where the person is charged, shall be destroyed within 2 days of the completion or termination of CWC 2007.

Requirement to state name and address.

29. (1) A police officer who suspects, on reasonable grounds, that a person in a CWC 2007 venue has committed, or has been involved in the commission of, a contravention of this Part may require the person to state his full name and address.

(2) A person who fails, without reasonable cause to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or who, in purported compliance with such a requirement, furnishes information that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular—

- (a) may be ordered by an police officer to leave the CWC 2007 venue; or
- (b) may be removed from the CWC 2007 venue by a police officer, if that person refuses to comply with an order under paragraph (a); and
- (c) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $2,000.

(3) A person is not guilty of an offence under subsection (2) unless it is established that the police officer warned the person that the failure to comply with the requirement constitutes an offence.

PART IV

CONTROL OF ADVERTISING

30. (1) A person who is the owner or occupier of, or the holder of a lease or licence relating to, land, a building or a structure on land within a CWC 2007 venue shall not cause or permit any advertisement or advertising material to be displayed or fixed to or placed on, or to remain on, the land, building or structure except as authorised in writing by CWC 2007 Inc.

Prohibition of certain advertisements on land, buildings and structures.

(2) CWC 2007 Inc. or an authorised person may erase or remove any advertisement or advertising material fixed or placed on any land, building or structure in contravention of subsection (1).

(3) In exercising powers under subsection (2), CWC 2007 Inc. shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that as little damage as possible is caused.

31. (1) No person shall publish or display any advertisement that relates to or is connected with CWC 2007 which is false or misleading or cause such advertisement to be published or displayed.

Prohibition of certain advertisements.

(2) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

- (a) in the case of a first conviction, to a fine of $40,000; or

ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA 24 The ICC Cricket World Cup West Indies 2007 Act, 2006. No. 19 of 2006.

(b) in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine of $60,000.

Commercial broadcasting,
telecasting, recording or filming

32. (1) No person shall, other than for personal use, broadcast, narrowcast, telecast, transmit, record, publish, disseminate, reproduce or circulate by any means (including, without limitation, utilising television, radio, satellite, the internet or any wireless service), any audio, video, photograph, text or data or any other information relating to a CWC 2007 activity or any part of such activity, without the approval of CWC 2007 Inc.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $40,000.

(3) An application for approval under this section shall be made to CWC 2007 Inc. in such form and manner as may be determined by CWC 2007 Inc.

(4) Any approval granted under this section shall be subject to such conditions as CWC 2007 Inc. thinks fit.

(5) A police officer may take possession of any item that is used in contravention of this section if—

(a) the police officer has directed the person concerned to stop the use of the article; and

(b) the person continued to use the article in contravention of this section.

(6) A person who uses any article in contravention of this section may be—

(a) ordered by an authorised person to leave the CWC 2007 venue; or

(b) removed from the CWC 2007 venue by a police officer, if that person refuses to comply with an order under paragraph (a).

(7) The broadcasting, telecasting, recording or filming of any information relating to a CWC 2007 activity for the purpose of provision of information or for the purposes of criticism or review is not alone sufficient to amount to a contravention of subsection (1).

(8) In subsection (7), a reference to—

- (a) ‘the provision of information’ includes a reference to the reporting of news and the presentation of current affairs; and
- (b) ‘criticism’ or ‘review’ includes a reference to criticism or review—
 - (i) in a newspaper, magazine or similar periodical;
 - (ii) in a broadcast; or
 - (iii) in a cinematograph film.

33. (1) Except with the written authorisation of CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or GCC, a person shall not wilfully broadcast, display, make, publish or televise any advertisement, communication, statement, mark or image or cause or authorise any advertisement, communication, statement mark or image to be broadcast, displayed, made, published or televised or carry on, cause or authorise any other activity which—

Prohibition of certain practices

- (a) relates to or is connected with CWC 2007;
- (b) implies or suggests a contractual or other connection or association of that person with CWC 2007 or a person officially associated with or involved in CWC 2007; and
- (c) is intended to—
 - (i) associate that person with CWC 2007 or exploit the publicity or goodwill of CWC 2007, in order for that person to gain a benefit of any kind;
 - (ii) diminish the status of an official sponsor, official supplier, official broadcaster or other licensee with regard to CWC 2007; or
 - (iii) imply that the person is an official sponsor, official supplier, official broadcaster or other licensee with regard to CWC 2007.

(2) No person shall, in relation to CWC 2007, use or cause to be used, a mark, image or statement or brand in a manner calculated to achieve publicity for that mark, image or statement or the brand with which that mark, image or statement is associated and thereby deriving any special promotional benefit from CWC 2007 without the prior authority of CWC 2007 Inc. or IDI.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2), the use of a mark, image or statement includes—

- (a) any visual representation of the mark, image or statement upon or in relation to goods or in relation to the rendering of services;
- (b) any audible representation of the mark, image or statement in relation to goods or the rendering of services; or
- (c) the use of the mark, image or statement in promotional activities, which in any way, directly or indirectly, is or is intended to be brought into association with, imply a connection with or allude to CWC 2007.

(4) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $40,000.

Promotional use of CWC 2007 tickets.

34. (1) No person shall use a CWC 2007 ticket in relation to any form of commercial activity or as prizes in any lottery, competition, game or promotion without the prior written approval of CWC 2007 Inc.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $20,000.

PART V

PROTECTION OF CWC 2007 MARKS, INDICIA AND IMAGES

Prohibition of unauthorised use of CWC 2007 mark.

35. (1) No person shall use a CWC 2007 mark without the written authorisation of the owner of that CWC 2007 mark.

(2) Registration by IDI of a CWC 2007 mark or any other mark shall vest in IDI from the date of registration until December 31, 2008—

- (a) the right to its exclusive use in connection with the goods or services for which they are registered; and
- (b) the exclusive right to prevent any other person from using any such mark without the authority of IDI.

(3) Subsection (2) (b) extends to the use of an identical or confusingly similar mark in connection with goods or services where the use—

- (a) has caused or is likely to cause confusion; or
- (b) takes unfair advantage of, or is detrimental to, the distinctive character or the repute of a CWC 2007 mark.

36. (1) This section applies to goods that are counterfeit or that otherwise infringe a CWC 2007 mark or any other mark of IDI, the ICC, WICB, CWC 2007 Inc.

Infringement of CWC 2007 mark or mark of IDI, ICC, WICB, CWC 2007 Inc.

(2) A person who, with intent to gain for himself or another, or with intent to cause loss to another, and without the consent of the proprietor of the mark in question, buys or sells or imports or exports any goods to which this section applies commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to—

- (a) in the case of a first conviction, to a fine of $20,000; and
- (b) in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine of $40,000.

(3) The Trade Marks Act 2003 shall apply in the determination of whether or not a mark has been infringed.

37. (1) For this purposes of this Part—

CWC 2007 indicia and CWC 2007 images

“CWC 2007 indicia” means any item in Part I of the Third Schedule or a combination of an item listed in Section A with an item listed in Section B of Part II of the Third Schedule, and, where appropriate, includes a CWC 2007 mark;

“CWC 2007 images” means any visual or aural representation or a combination of both that, to a reasonable person, in the circumstances of the presentation, would suggest a connection with CWC 2007 including the picture (whether photographic or otherwise), likeness or image of any squad member, squad or part thereof and, where appropriate, includes a CWC 2007 mark;

“covering” includes packaging, frame, wrapper, container, stopper, lid or cap; and

“label” includes a band or ticket.

(2) CWC 2007 indicia that are represented in a language other than English are to be taken to be CWC 2007 indicia.

(3) Indicia or images so closely resembling CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images as are likely to be mistaken, by a reasonable person, for such indicia or images shall be regarded as CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images.

Application of CWC 2007
indicia and images.

38. (1) For the purposes of this Act, CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images are applied to goods or services if such indicia or images are—

(a) in the case of goods—

- (i) woven in, impressed on, worked into, or affixed or annexed to the goods; or
- (ii) applied to any covering, document, label, reel or thing in or with which the goods are, or are intended to be, dealt with or provided in the course of trade or the promotion of trade; or

(b) in the case of goods or services—

- (i) used on a signboard or in an advertisement (including a television or radio advertisement) that promotes the goods or services; or
- (ii) used in an invoice, price list, catalogue, brochure, business letter, business paper, any other commercial document or any promotional material that relates to the goods or services.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an advertisement promotes goods or services if—

- (a) it promotes a particular person who provides goods or services; and
- (b) a reasonable person would conclude that it was designed to enhance the commercial image of the person referred to in paragraph (a).

(3) If—

- (a) goods are imported into Antigua and Barbuda for the purpose of sale or distribution by a person; and
- (b) when imported, the goods have applied to them any CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images, that person shall be taken to have applied the indicia or images to the goods.

39. (1) CWC 2007 Inc. or IDI may license a person to use all or any one or more of CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images for commercial purposes in such circumstances as may be determined by CWC 2007 Inc. or IDI.

Licence to use CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images for commercial purposes.

(2) A licensed user may only use for commercial purposes the CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images that he is licensed to use and may only use such indicia or images in accordance with the licence.

40. (1) No person, other than CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user, shall use—

Prohibition of unlicensed use of CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images

- (a) any CWC 2007 indicia listed in Part I of the Third Schedule; or
- (b) any other CWC 2007 indicia or any CWC 2007 images, for commercial purposes.

(2) CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images are used by a person for commercial purposes if that person causes such indicia or images—

ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA 30 The ICC Cricket World Cup West Indies 2007 Act, 2006. No. 19 of 2006.

- (a) to be applied to his goods or services for advertising or promotional purposes or in a manner that is likely to enhance the demand for the goods or services; and
- (b) to a reasonable person, the application would suggest that that person is or was a sponsor of a CWC 2007 activity, or is or was associated or connected with CWC 2007 or a CWC 2007 activity.

(3) Where goods or services which have applied to them CWC indicia or CWC 2007 images are used for commercial purposes by a person other than CWC 2007 Inc, IDI or a licensed user, any person who—

- (a) supplies, or offers to supply, such goods or services;
- (b) exposes such goods for supply; or
- (c) keeps such goods for supply, whether or not by him, shall be taken to have used the CWC 2007 indicia or images for commercial purposes.

Provision of information.

41. (1) The use of a CWC 2007 mark, CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images for the purposes of, or in connection with, the provision of information or for the purposes of criticism or review is not by itself sufficient to—

- (a) amount to a contravention of section 35; or
- (b) suggest a sponsorship, or the provision of other support, for the purposes of section 40 (2) (b).

(2) In subsection (1) a reference to—

- (a) “the provision of information” includes a reference to the reporting of news and the presentation of current affairs; and
- (b) “criticism” or “review” includes a reference to criticism or review—
 - (i) in a newspaper, magazine or similar periodical;
 - (ii) in a broadcast; or
 - (iii) in a cinematograph film.

42. (1) Where goods have applied to them any CWC 2007 mark, CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images which the importer is not authorised or licensed under this Act, to use for commercial purposes, a customs officer may detain the goods for further investigation.

Power of customs officers in relation to certain imports.

(2) Goods detained under this section shall be kept in such secure place as directed by the Comptroller.

43. (1) Where goods have been detained under section 42, the Comptroller shall notify CWC 2007 Inc. or IDI of the detention.

Notice of detention.

(2) CWC 2007 Inc., or IDI or a licensed user may, within 21 days of the receipt of the notice make an application for an injunction under section 47 and give written notice of such application to the Comptroller.

44. (1) The Comptroller shall release goods detained under section 42—

Release of goods

(a) unless within the period mentioned in section 43(2), CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user has—

(i) made an application for an injunction under section 47 in relation to the goods; and

(ii) given to the Comptroller written notice of the application; and

(b) where CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or, if applicable, the licensed user, has, by written notice to the Comptroller consented to the release of the goods.

(2) Except where the Comptroller has been notified in accordance with subsection (1) that an application has been made in relation to the goods, the Comptroller may, in his own determination, release the seized goods before the expiration of the period mentioned in section 43(2) if the Comptroller, having regard to information that has come to his knowledge after the goods were detained, does not have reasonable grounds for believing that section 35 or 40 would be contravened by the importation of the goods.

Power of Comptroller to retain control of goods.

45. Nothing in this Part compels the Comptroller to dispose of any detained goods where the Comptroller is required or allowed to retain control of the goods under any other law.

Preservation of existing rights.

46. (1) The provisions of this Act relating to CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images, shall not affect rights conferred by law on a person in relation to a trademark or design that is registered under intellectual property legislation as defined in the Intellectual Property Office Act, 2003, which was so registered immediately before the commencement of this Act in relation to the indicia or image.

(2) Nothing in this Act affects the use of the indicia or image by a person who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, was entitled to prevent another person from using the indicia or image or similar indicia or image, for the purpose of passing off.

(3) This Act does not apply to the use of a business name in connection with a business if—

- (a) the name is registered in relation to the business under a law of Antigua and Barbuda relating to business names; and
- (b) the name was so registered before the commencement of this Act in relation to the business.

(4) This Act does not apply in relation to the use of the name of an incorporated company if—

- (a) the company was in existence before the commencement of this Act;
- (b) the company uses the name in connection with a business carried on by the company; and
- (c) the company used the name in connection with the business before the commencement of this Act.

PART VI

REMEDIES

Injunctions.

47. (1) Where a person has engaged, is engaging, or is proposing to engage in conduct in contravention of section 10, 27,

Part IV or V, the Court may, on application by CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user, grant an injunction—

- (a) restraining the person from engaging in the conduct; and
- (b) if, in the Court's opinion, it is desirable to do so, requiring the person to take such action as the Court sees fit including, in the case of a sign, the erasure or removal of the sign.

(2) The Court may grant an interim injunction pending the determination of an application under subsection (1).

(3) Nothing in this Part limits or shall be construed as limiting any rights or remedies available under the Trade Marks Act, 2003.

48. Where, on an application under section 47 the Court is satisfied that a person has engaged in conduct constituting a contravention of section 35 or 40, the Court may make an order requiring the person—advertisement.

Corrective

- (a) by such means (including a broadcast or Internet publication) as the Court thinks fit;
- (b) at the person's own expense; and
- (c) at the times specified in the order, to publish advertisements in accordance with the order.

49. Where CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user suffers loss or damage as a result of anything done in contravention of section 35 or 40, the amount of the loss or damage may be recovered by action in the Court.

Damages.

50. Where, on the application of CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user, the Court is satisfied that a person has engaged in conduct in contravention of section 35 or 40, the Court may make an order granting relief based on an account of profits.

Account of profits.

51. CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user is not entitled, in respect of the same contravention of section 35 or 40, to both—

Limitation.

- (a) the recovery of loss or damages under section 49; and

ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA 34 The ICC Cricket World Cup West Indies 2007 Act, 2006. No. 19 of 2006.

(b) damages based on an account of profits under section 50.

Destruction or delivery of goods

52. (1) Where, on the application of CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user, the Court is satisfied that a person has contravened section 35 or 40 in relation to goods, the Court may order that the goods be—

(a) destroyed;

(b) delivered up to CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or to the licensed user; or

(c) otherwise dealt with in such manner as the Court thinks fit.

(2) A Court may make an order under this section whether or not an injunction is granted under section 47.

(3) Where the Court makes an order under this section, the person against whom the order is granted shall bear the expenses occasioned by the making of the order.

Other remedies.

53. (1) The remedies provided under this Part are in addition to any remedy provided by any law—

(a) that confers any rights or powers on CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user in relation to conduct of a kind that constitutes a contravention of section 35 or 40;

(b) relating to engaging in conduct that is misleading or deceptive and, in particular, relating to representations—

(i) that goods or services have sponsorship or approval that they do not have; or

(ii) that a corporation has a sponsorship, approval or affiliation that it does not have.

(2) The reference in subsection (1) to particular representations does not preclude the application of any law to conduct of a kind that constitutes a contravention of section 35 or 40.

(3) The Court may make any order the effect of which would be to deprive an offender of any economic gain from the goods in relation to which the contravention occurred.

PART VII

MISCELLANEOUS

54. (1) Where by virtue of any provision of this Act, any right of a person under any other Act is infringed, that person is entitled to such compensation as assessed by the Court. Compensation

(2) In determining claims for compensation for the infringement of any right under this Act, the Court may take into consideration—

- (a) in the case of infringement of property rights, the market value of the property on the date of the infringement;
- (b) any damage sustained by the person at the time of awarding compensation;
- (c) the damage (if any) sustained by the person at the time of awarding compensation by reason of the infringement affecting his other rights or his earnings; and
- (d) if in the consequence of the infringement he is compelled to change his residence or place of business, the reasonable expenses incidental to the change.

(3) The Court in assessing compensation to be paid under subsection (1), shall not take into consideration—

- (a) the degree of urgency or necessity which has led to the infringement;
- (b) any disinclination of the person to consent to the infringement; or
- (c) any damage sustained by the person which, if caused by a private person, would not render the private person liable to an action.

(4) In determining claims for compensation, the Court shall have power to consider and award to the person in respect of compensation for the infringement, in addition to the matters specified in subsection (2), any sum not exceeding such percent of the market value of the property at the time of awarding compensation as the Court thinks fit.

(5) Nothing in this section limits or shall be construed as limiting any law respecting compensation for the infringement of rights.

Offences by bodies
corporate.

55. (1) Where a body corporate commits an offence against this Act, each person who is a director of the body corporate or an officer concerned in the management of the body corporate is taken to have committed the offence to the same extent as the body corporate unless the court is satisfied that—

- (a) the commission of the offence occurred without the person's knowledge;
- (b) the person was not in a position to influence the conduct of the body corporate in relation to the offence; or
- (c) the person used all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence by the body corporate.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the act and omissions of a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were an officer of the body corporate.

(3) Proceedings may be brought against a person and an order or finding of guilt may be made in respect of the person by virtue of subsection (1) whether or not the body corporate has been or is being proceeded against or an order or finding of guilt has been or will be made in respect of the body corporate.

(4) This section does not affect the liability of a body corporate in relation to an offence committed against this Act or any other Act.

Regulations.

56. (1) The Minister and the Minister for Immigration may make regulations prescribing matters—

- (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
- (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), regulations may provide for—

- (a) the organisation, management and control of CWC 2007 activity and the carrying out of works or activities or providing services for the safe and orderly conduct of such activity;
- (b) the control, management and use of a CWC 2007 venue and the carrying out of works or activities or providing services in, on or near a CWC 2007 venue for the safe and orderly management and use of the CWC 2007 venue;
- (c) the prohibition or regulation of entry into a CWC 2007 venue or part of such venue; or
- (d) the prohibition or regulation of the conduct or activities of persons for the purpose of the safe and orderly conduct of CWC 2007 activity or the safe and orderly use of a CWC 2007 venue.
- (e) the publication in the local newspapers of the matters prescribed for in the Schedules to the Act.

57. The Minister may by Order amend any of the Schedules to this Act. Amendment of Schedule.

58. This Act binds the State. Act to bind the State.

59. This Act expires on 30 June 2007. Expiry of Act.
