(2) Where international trust property is held for a charitable purpose, the Court, on the application of the trustee, may approve any arrangement which varies or revokes the purposes or terms of the trust or enlarges or modifies the powers of management or administration of the trustee, if it is satisfied that the arrangement —

- (a) is now suitable or expedient; and
- (b) is consistent with the original intention of the settlor.

(3) The Court shall not make a declaration under sub-section (1) above or approve an arrangement under sub-section (2) unless satisfied that any person with a material interest in the trust has had an opportunity of being heard.

12. (1) On the termination of an international trust the trust property shall, subject to sub-section (2), be distributed by the trustee within a reasonable time in accordance with the terms of the trust to the persons entitled thereto.

13. (1) Without prejudice to any power of the Court and notwithstanding the terms of the international trust, where all beneficiaries are in existence and have been ascertained, and none is a person under legal disability or a minor, and all beneficiaries are in agreement so to do, they may require the trustee to terminate the trust and distribute the trust property as the beneficiaries direct.

(5) A trustee who becomes aware of a breach of trust shall take all reasonable steps to have the breach remedied.

(6) Nothing in the terms of a trust shall relieve a trustee of liability for a breach of trust arising from his own fraud or wilful misconduct.

Constructive trusts.

15. (1) A person who derives a profit from a breach of trust, shall be deemed to be a trustee of the profit or property, unless he derives or obtains it in good faith and without actual, constructive or implied notice of the breach of trust.

(2) A person who becomes a trustee by virtue of sub-section (1) shall deliver up the profit or property to the person properly entitled to it.

(3) This section does not exclude any other circumstance in which a constructive trust may arise.

Tracing trust property.

16. Without prejudice to the personal liability of a trustee, trust property which has been charged or dealt with in breach of trust, or any property into which it has been converted, may be followed and recovered unless —

Power to relieve trustee from personal liability.

19. Where a trustee commits a breach of trust at the instigation, at the request or with the concurrence of a beneficiary, the Court (whether or not the beneficiary is a minor or a person under legal disability) may impound all or part of his interest by way of indemnity to the trustee or any person claiming through him.

Power to make beneficiaries indemnify.

PART 5—POWERS OF THE COURT

20. The Court has jurisdiction in respect of any matters concerning an international trust where --

Jurisdiction of the Court.

- (a) the proper law of the trust is the law of Antigua and Barbuda;
- (b) a trustee of the trust is resident in Antigua and Barbuda;
- (c) any part of the administration of the trust is carried on in Antigua and Barbuda.

21. (1) On the application of a trustee, a beneficiary, a settlor or his personal representatives, a protector, or with the leave of the court any other person, the Court may --

General powers of the Court.

- (a) make an order in respect of --
 - (i) the execution, administration or enforcement of a trust;
 - (ii) a trustee, including an order as to the exercise of any power by a trustee, the appointment, remuneration or conduct of a trustee, the keeping or submission of account, and the making of payment, whether into Court or otherwise;

- (iii) a protector, including an order appointing a protector;
 - (iv) a beneficiary, or any person connected with a trust;
 - (v) any trust property, including an order as to the vesting, preservation, application, surrender or recovery thereof;
- (b) make a declaration as to the validity of enforceability of a trust;
 - (c) direct the trustee to distribute, or not to distribute the trust property;
 - (d) make such order in respect of the termination of the trust and the distribution of the property as it thinks fit;
 - (e) rescind or vary an order or declaration under this Act, or make a new or further order or declaration.

(2) Where the Court appoints or removes a trustee under this section —

- (a) it may impose such requirements and conditions as it thinks fit, including provisions as to remuneration and requirements or conditions as to the vesting of trust property;
- (b) subject to the Court's order a trustee appointed by the Court has the same functions, and may act in all respects, as if he had been originally appointed a trustee.

(3) If a person does not comply with an order of the Court under this Act requiring him to do any thing, the Court may, on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, order that the thing be done by another person, nominated for the purpose by the Court, at the expense of the person in default (or otherwise, as the Court directs) and a thing so done has effect in all respects as if done by the person in default.

22. (1) The Court may declare an international trust to be invalid if —

Courts determination of validity.

- (a) the trust was established by duress, mistake, undue influence or misrepresentation; or
- (b) the trust is immoral or contrary to the public policy of Antigua and Barbuda; or
- (c) the terms of the trust are so uncertain that its performance is rendered impossible (provided that a charitable purpose shall be deemed always to be capable of performance); or
- (d) the settlor was, at the time of its creation, incapable under the law in force in Antigua and Barbuda of creating such a trust.

(2) Where an international trust is created for two or more purposes of which some are lawful and others are not or where some of the terms of the trust are lawful and others are not —

- (a) if those purposes cannot be separated or the terms cannot be separated, the trust is invalid;
- (b) if those purposes can be separated or the terms can be separated the Court may declare that the trust is valid as to the terms which are valid and the purposes which are lawful.

(3) Where an international trust is partially invalid the Court may declare what property is to be held subject to the trust.

(4) Property provided by a settlor and as to which a trust is invalid shall, subject to any order of the Court, be held by the trustee in trust for the settlor absolutely or, if he is dead, as if it had formed part of his estate at death.

(5) In determining the existence and validity of an international trust registered under this Act the Court shall apply —

- (a) the provisions of this Act;
- (b) any other law of Antigua and Barbuda; and
- (c) any other law which may be applied;

if to do so would validate the trust.

Avoidance of fraud.

23. (1) Where it is proven beyond reasonable doubt by a creditor that a trust settled or established or property disposed to a trust —

- (a) was so settled established or disposed by or on behalf of the settlor with principal intent to defraud that creditor of the settlor; and
- (b) did at the time such settlement, establishment or disposition took place render the settlor insolvent or without property by which that creditor's claim (if successful) could have been satisfied, then such settlement, establishment or disposition shall not be void or voidable and the international trust shall be liable to satisfy the creditor's claim and such liability shall only be to the extent of the interest that the settlor had in the property prior to settlement, establishment or disposition and any other accumulation to the property (if any) subsequent thereto.

(2) In determining whether a trust, settled or established or a disposition, has rendered the settlor insolvent or without property by which a creditor's claim (if successful) may be satisfied, regard shall be had to the fair market value of the settlor's property, (not being property of or relating to the trust) at the time immediately after the settlement, establishment or the disposition referred to in sub-section (1)(b) and in the event that the fair market value of such property exceeded the value of the creditor's claim, at that time, after the settlement, establishment or disposition, then the trust so settled or established or the disposition shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed not to have been so settled or established or the property disposed of with intent to defraud the creditor.

(3) A trust settled or established and a disposition to such trust shall not be fraudulent as against a creditor of a settlor —

- (a) if settled, established or the disposition takes place after the expiration of two years from the date that such creditor's cause of action accrued; or
- (b) where settled, established or the disposition takes place before the expiration of two years from the date that the creditor's cause of action accrued, that creditor fails to commence such action before the expiration of one year from the date such settlement establishment or disposition took place.

(4) A trust settled or established and a disposition of property to such trust shall not be fraudulent as against a creditor of a settlor if the settlement, establishment or disposition of property took place before that creditor's cause of action against the settlor accrued or had arisen.

(5) A settlor shall not have imputed to him an intent to defraud a creditor, solely by reason that the settlor —

- (a) has settled or established a trust or has disposed of property to such trust within two years from the date of that creditor's cause of action accruing;
- (b) has retained, possesses or acquires any of the powers or benefits referred to in paragraphs (a) to (f) of section 46;
- (c) is a beneficiary.

(6) Where a trust is liable to satisfy a creditor's claim in the manner provided for in sub-section (1), that creditor's rights to recovery shall be limited to the property referred to in subsection (1), or to the proceeds of that property, to the exclusion of any claim, right or action against any trustee or any other property of the trust.

(7) For the purpose of this section the onus of proof of the settlor's intent to defraud the creditor lies on the creditor.

(8) For the purpose of this section —

- (a) the date of the cause of action accruing shall be, the date of that act or omission which shall be relied upon to either partly or wholly establish the cause of action, and if there is more than one act or the omission shall be a continuing one, the date of the first act or that date that the omission shall have first occurred, as the case may be, shall be the date that the cause of action shall have accrued;

- (b) the term "cause of action" means the earliest cause of action capable of assertion by a creditor against the settlor of a trust or, as the case may be, against the settlor of property upon a trust by which that creditor has established (or may establish) an enforceable claim against that settlor;
- (c) the entry of judgment in any proceeding shall not constitute a separate cause of action.

(9) The provisions of this section shall apply to all actions and proceedings brought in any court, however described, against any person (whether a party to the proceedings or not) with regard to the settlement or establishment of an international trust or the disposition of property to such a trust, or receipt of property by or for such a trust and the remedy conferred by subsection (1) shall be the sole remedy available in such an action or proceeding to the exclusion of any other relief or remedy against any party to the action or proceeding.

(10) Failure by a creditor to present all claims arising out of any controversy and join all parties with a material interest shall prevent that creditor from presenting such claims and bringing an action against such parties in a subsequent proceeding.

(11) For the purposes of this section the term "creditor" means a creditor of the settlor, including a judgment creditor and an assignee from such creditor of any claim and includes any person who alleges a cause or action against a settlor.

Saving of certain rights.

24. In the event that a trust shall be declared invalid pursuant to this Act, if the Court is satisfied that the beneficiary has not acted in bad faith —

- (a) the beneficiary shall have a first and paramount charge over the trust property of an amount equal to the entire costs properly incurred by him in the defense of the action or proceedings (and not merely such costs as might otherwise be allowed by the Court); and

- (b) the trust shall be declared invalid subject to the proper fees, costs, pre-existing rights, claims and interests of the beneficiary.

25. An international trust shall be declared invalid only to the extent necessary to satisfy the obligation of a creditor at whose instance the trust was declared invalid together with such costs as the Court may allow.

Extent of invalidity.

26. (1) Nothing in this Act shall validate any disposition of property which is neither owned by the settlor nor the subject of a power in that behalf vested in the settlor.

No validation of property not vested in settlor.

(2) This Act shall not affect the recognition of any foreign laws in determining whether the settlor is the owner of such property or the holder of such power referred to in sub-section (1) of this section.

27. Notwithstanding the provisions of any treaty or convention; the provisions of any statute; any rule of law, or equity, to the contrary, no proceedings for or in relation to the enforcement or recognition of a judgment obtained in a jurisdiction other than Antigua and Barbuda against —

judgment not enforceable.

- (a) an international trust;
- (b) a settlor of an international trust;
- (c) a trustee of an international trust;
- (d) a protector of an international trust;
- (e) a beneficiary of an international trust;
- (f) a person appointed or instructed in accordance with the express or implied provisions of an instrument or disposition to exercise a function or undertake any act, matter or thing in connection with an international trust; or

- (g) property of either an international trust or of a trustee or a beneficiary thereof; shall be entertained by any Court in Antigua and Barbuda if —

- (i) that judgment is based upon the application of any law inconsistent with the provisions of this Act; or
- (ii) that judgment relates to a matter or particular aspect that is governed by the laws of Antigua and Barbuda.

Exclusion of
