(5th December, 1910.)

12/1910.

1. This Act may be cited as the Law Library Act. Short title.
2. There shall be established a law library to be called Establishment of library.
The Antigua and Barbuda Law Library.
3. All the volumes, pamphlets, publications, Supreme Court Library taken over.
documents, and property of all kinds whatsoever which, prior to the passing of Leeward Islands Act No. 6 of 1910, constituted "The Supreme Court Library" in the Court House of St. John's, shall constitute and become "The Antigua and Barbuda Law Library".

- Management.           4. The general management, regulation, and control of "The Antigua and Barbuda Law Library" shall be vested in, and exercised by, a Committee of six persons, who shall, from time to time, from such funds as may be at their disposal for the purpose, provide for the said Library such text books, works of reference, reports and legal publications of all kinds as they may think fit.
- Committee.               5. The Chief Justice, the Attorney-General, and the Registrar, or the persons acting in such offices, shall be ex officio members of the said Committee, and the three remaining members shall be appointed by the Governor-General for a period of two years.
- Committee meetings.       6. The Committee shall meet at least once in every quarter and at such other times as they think fit.
- Quorum.                   7. At any Committee meeting three shall form a quorum.
- Chairman.                 8. The Chief Justice shall be Chairman of the Committee, and, in his absence, the Attorney-General.
- Questions to be decided by a majority of votes.           9. All questions arising at any meeting of the Committee shall be decided by a majority of votes, and the Chairman shall have an original vote on all questions and a casting vote, if the votes be equal.
- Committee may make regulations.       10. (1) The Committee may, from time to time, make regulations for the general management, upkeep, and control of "The Antigua and Barbuda Law Library" as they may deem fit.
- (2) Every regulation made under this section shall be subject to the approval of the Governor-General who is hereby given authority to confirm or disallow any such regulation.
- (3) Every regulation made under this section shall be published in the Gazette, and, when so published, shall have effect as if enacted by this Act.
