(2) Except as permitted by the Regulations, no person shall be a beneficial owner, or receive monetary benefit based on the amount of money wagered in an interactive gaming or wagering activity unless that person holds a licence granted under these Regulations.

(3) No licence shall be granted to any entity unless the entity is incorporated under the Act as an interactive gaming or interactive wagering company, and is in possession of a Certificate of Incorporation and a certificate of good standing, and has complied with all the requirements of the Act and any Regulations made thereunder.

However, a defence to a breach under this subregulation is where a licence holder can demonstrate it undertook all reasonable means to identify the person and determined the person was not underage.

(2) It is an offence to allow problematic or pathological gaming or wagering to occur. When, in the mind of the Commission sufficient information existed that, a reasonable person would have considered the player had demonstrated behaviour characteristic of problem or pathological gaming or wagering then this constitutes an offence under this Part.

(3) It is an offence to allow players to be treated unfairly by internet gaming or internet wagering systems. When, in the mind of the Commission sufficient information existed that, a reasonable person would have considered the player had been treated unfairly, regardless of whether the unfair treatment was by a licence holder, an associate of the licence holder, or another player in an interactive game facilitated by a licence holder, then this constitutes an offence under this Part.

Any reports submitted to the Commission shall become the sole property of the Commission.

18. The Commission may consider evidence that an applicant has been licenced to conduct gaming in another jurisdiction toward a finding of the applicant's suitability to conduct interactive gaming and interactive wagering activities. The other licencing jurisdiction must have Regulations comparable to those of Antigua and Barbuda to ensure the integrity of the interactive gaming and interactive wagering and the suitability of the operations. - (d) The Commission may maintain an action on behalf of a claimant or any person injured by a wrongful act, omission, default, fraud or misrepresentation of a licence holder or employee of the licence holder in the conduct of its business as a licence holder. Only one reserve is required of a licence holder, irrespective of the number of executive officers, directors, principal employees or other employees of the licence holder.
- (e) A reserve requirement must remain in effect until cancellation of the interactive gaming or interactive wagering licence, which may occur only after 30 days' written notice to the Commission of the intended cancellation of the licence.
- (f) A reserve requirement must remain in effect for as long as the Commission specifies but at least five (5) years after the licence holder ceases to be an approved interactive gaming or interactive wagering business in Antigua and Barbuda. However, the Commission may permit the amount of reserve to be reduced or eliminated before that time to the extent that the amount of the licence holder's prizes outstanding are reduced. The Commission may permit a licence holder to substitute another form of reserve acceptable to the Commission for the reserve effective at the time the licence holder ceases to be an approved interactive gaming or interactive wagering operation in Antigua and Barbuda.
- (g) In lieu of the reserve prescribed in this Section, an applicant for a licence or a licence holder may provide the reserve in a form prescribed by the Commission.

23. Every licence holder and every applicant for a licence must receive the approval of the Commission to continue offering wagering and betting services before any material change from the facts previously approved by the Commission are made. The licence holder must file the appropriate application of a material change as determined by the Commission for the Commission's approval. Examples of material changes that must be reported to the Commission include:

- (a) a change in, or addition to, the licence holder's key person(s) or close associates;
- (b) a change in, or addition to, the directors or executive officers of the licence holder;
- (c) any act or default (whether by the licence holder or by another person) that might reasonably give rise to a negative implication in respect of the character, reputation or financial background of the licence holder;

- (f) a change in ownership of the licence holder;
- (g) a change in control of the licence holder;

 - (i) any merger or acquisition of a licence holder;
 - (j) any merger or acquisition by a licence holder; or
 - (k) The termination or suspension of a licence holder's licence in another gaming jurisdiction.
24. (a) A person or group of persons who proposes to acquire control of a licence holder shall give written notice to the Commission and request approval of the acquisition and also submit a non refundable fee of Ten Thousand United States Dollars ($10,000.00 US) to the Commission or the cost of the investigation, due diligence review and assessment, whichever is greater. This request must be made at least forty-five (45) days prior to the intended acquisition date.
- (b) After review of the request for approval under Subsection (a), of this section, the Commission may require the licence holder to provide additional information concerning the proposed controlling person. The additional information must be limited to the same types required of the licence holder or controlling person as part of its original licence or renewal application.
 - (c) The Commission shall approve a request or change of control under subsection (a) if, after investigation, the Commission determines that the person or group of persons requesting approval has the competence, experience, character, and general fitness to operate the licence holder or controlling person in a lawful and proper manner of control.
 - (d) The following persons or transactions are exempt from the requirements of subsection (a) but must still notify the Commission of the change of control:

- (f) Before filing a request for approval to acquire control, a person may request in writing a determination from the Commission as to whether the person would be considered a controlling person upon consummation of a proposed transaction. If the Commission determines that the person would not be a controlling person, the Commission shall enter an order to that effect and the proposed person and transaction is not subject to the requirements of subsections (a) through (c) of this section.

25. A material change report must be in writing as suggested by the Commission, must clearly identify the material change in question and must be received by the Commission prior to any material change becoming effective.

26. Failure to report a material change to the Commission as required by Regulation 0 may result in the immediate amendment, suspension or revocation of the interactive gaming or interactive wagering licence. In the case of an application, failure to report a material change is a sufficient ground for denial of the application or revocation of the issued licence.
