(i) a return for the payment period;

(ii) a statement of the number of rentals or services which occurred in the period, and the revenue obtained from the rentals or services; and

(iii) such additional information as the Revenue Commissioner requires; and

(b) pay to the Barbados Revenue Authority the levy payable by that person for the payment period.

(3) A person who files a return after the payment period referred to in subsection (2) shall pay a penalty of $100 to the Barbados Revenue Authority.

(4) A person who fails to pay the amount of the levy payable by that person within one month of the period referred to in subsection (2) shall pay

(a) a penalty of 10 per cent of the amount of the levy that is payable; and

(b) simple interest at the rate of one per cent per month calculated for each month or part of a month during which any amount of the levy and penalty remains unpaid.

Consolidated fund

12. All monies collected as a levy pursuant to this Act shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Refund for overpayment

13.(1) In circumstances where a person has paid an amount as a levy and that amount exceeds the amount that was payable by that person under this Act, the Revenue Commissioner shall refund to that person the sum which is equal to the amount of the excess, where that person applies for a refund within 2 years after the amount was paid.

(2) The refund payable under subsection (1) shall be paid from the Consolidated Fund.

Waivers and refunds

14. The Minister may by order, where he thinks it equitable to do so, waive, exempt, remit or refund, in whole or in part, the amount of any levy payable or paid by any person under this Act.

Keeping of accounts and records

15.(1) A person who provides tourist accommodation or a direct tourism service shall keep records, information and accounts so as to enable the Revenue Commissioner to determine the amount of the levy which is payable by that person for any payment period.

(2) Where a person fails to keep records, information and accounts for the purposes of this Act, the Revenue Commissioner may require that person to keep such records, information and accounts as the Authority determines.

(3) A person shall retain the records, information and accounts referred to in subsections (1) and (2) until the expiration of 5 years after the end of the year to which the records, information and accounts relate or for such shorter period as the Revenue Commissioner may determine.

(4) A person who fails to keep records, information and accounts in accordance with this section is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $5 000.

Audit

16.(1) An officer may at any reasonable time audit or examine the records of a person who provides tourist accommodation or a direct tourism service for the purposes of assessing

- (a) the amount paid by that person as a levy;
- (b) any amount to be refunded to that person; or
- (c) whether the records of the tourist accommodation or direct tourism service are being kept in the manner required by the Revenue Commissioner pursuant to section 15.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an officer may, at any reasonable time, enter any premises or place to which this Act applies and

- (a) inspect or examine the records, information and books of account kept by a person who provides tourist accommodation or a direct tourism service, or any employee or agent of that person any other document, item or matter that may be relevant in determining
 - (i) the amount of the levy or other amounts payable or remittable under this Act or any other obligation under this Act; or
 - (iii) the amount of a refund due to the owner under this Act;
- (b) require the person who provides tourist accommodation or a direct tourism service or any employee or agent of that person to give him all reasonable assistance with his inspection, audit or examination and to answer all questions relating to the person responsible for the payment of the levy under this Act either orally or in writing.

(3) Where, during the course of an audit or examination referred to in subsection (1), it appears to the officer referred to in that subsection that there has been a violation of this Act, the officer may seize and take away any records, information or books of account which may afford evidence of the violation.

(4) The Revenue Commissioner may, for any purpose related to the administration of this Act, by registered letter or by an instrument in writing served personally, require any person

- (a) to provide any information in the form of a return or otherwise; and
- (b) to produce any record, information or books of account, within such time as the Revenue Commissioner specifies.

Copies of documents

17. Where any document, information or book of account has been produced, seized, inspected or examined by an officer under this Act, the officer may make copies and a document purporting to be certified by the officer to be a copy made pursuant to this section is admissible in evidence and has the same probative value as the original document.

Notice of assessment of levy

18. In circumstances where,

- (a) a person has failed to submit the sums collected in accordance with sections 5, 7 or 9;
- (b) a person has failed to file a return in accordance with section 11; or
- (c) the Revenue Commissioner is satisfied that a true account of the levy payable has not been given in a return the Revenue Commissioner shall notify the person by an instrument in writing that an assessment will be done, and that instrument in writing shall state what is being assessed, the reason for the assessment, detail when and how the assessment will be done, and invite the person to submit in writing by a stated date any representation or information which the person has which can explain the concern raised by the Revenue Commissioner.

Notice of assessment result

19. The Revenue Commissioner shall notify the person referred to in section 18, by an instrument in writing, of the result of the assessment, and state what action the person is required to take and by what date.

Objections

20.(1) Subject to this section, a person who

- (a) having been assessed, disagrees with the assessment; or
- (b) having made an application for a refund of the levy, disagrees with the Revenue Commissioner's determination respecting the application may object to the assessment or determination by filing an instrument in writing with the Revenue Commissioner within 21 days after the date of the notice of assessment or notice of determination, as the case may be, or such longer period as the Revenue Commissioner allows.

(2) A notice of objection shall be in writing and shall state the precise grounds for the objection.

(3) The Revenue Commissioner shall give a person who has objected to an assessment or determination an opportunity to support his objection by a written or oral submission to the Revenue Commissioner.

(4) The Revenue Commissioner shall, after receiving a notice of objection in respect of an assessment or determination and after giving the person who objected an opportunity to support his objection,

- (a) review the assessment or determination and either confirm it or make a reassessment or redetermination, as the case may require; and
- (b) deliver to the person who objected, a notice of confirmation, a notice of reassessment or a notice of redetermination, as the case may require.

(5) Where a person has filed a notice of objection under this Act and the Revenue Commissioner has not, within 6 months thereafter, delivered to the person a notice of confirmation, reassessment or redetermination, that person may appeal to the Tribunal in respect of the objection.

(6) Where the Revenue Commissioner delivers to a person, a notice of confirmation, reassessment or redetermination respecting an objection after the expiration of the period of 6 months referred to in subsection (5), the person may appeal to the Tribunal within 30 days after the delivery of the notice.

Appeal to Tribunal

21.(1) A person who objects to an assessment or determination and who receives a notice of confirmation, reassessment or redetermination, may appeal the decision of the Revenue Commissioner to the Barbados Revenue Appeals Tribunal, within 30 days after the day on which the notice of confirmation, reassessment or redetermination, as the case may be, was delivered to him.

(2) An appeal under this section shall be instituted by filing a notice of appeal with the Tribunal together with such copies thereof as the Tribunal may require, and such notice shall, as far as possible, state the precise grounds of appeal.

(3) Where the Tribunal is satisfied that there is good reason for the failure of a person to object or appeal within the time specified in subsection (1) the Tribunal may allow the person objecting such further time as the Tribunal thinks fit.

Appeal to the High Court

22.(1) Any party to an appeal to the Tribunal may appeal from the decision of the Tribunal to the High Court on a point of law.

(2) In disposing of an appeal under this section in respect of an assessment or determination, the High Court may

- (a) confirm or set aside the assessment or determination;
- (b) make an order referring the assessment or determination back to the Revenue Commissioner for reassessment or redetermination in accordance with the directions of the Court; or

(c) make such other order as it thinks fit.

Recovery of the levy

23. Any levy payable under this Act and any other amount payable as penalty and interest is a debt due to the Crown and is recoverable as such in civil proceedings in the magistrate's court, notwithstanding that the amount involved exceeds the normal monetary limit on the jurisdiction of a magistrate's court.

Obstruction of officers

24. A person who threatens, assaults or obstructs an officer acting in the execution of his duty under this Act is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $10 000 or to imprisonment for 2 years or to both.

Validation

25.(1) All decisions made, all acts done and all levies paid to and collected by the Barbados Revenue Authority from the 1st day of July, 2018 until the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been lawfully and validly made, done, paid, and collected.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not prohibit the Barbados Revenue Authority or the Minister from taking any action as may be required pursuant to section 13 or section 14.

Amendment of enactments in the Fifth Schedule and Sixth Schedule

26.(1) The enactments specified in the first column of the Fifth Schedule are amended in the manner specified in the second column thereof.

(2) The enactment specified in the first column of the Sixth Schedule is amended in the manner specified in the second column thereof.
