LAW LIBRARY ACT 1910

Library books are Government property

3 All books hereafter procured by purchase, gift or otherwise for the Law Library shall be conspicuously stamped or marked on the outer cover "Supreme Court of Bermuda", and all books now belonging to the Law Library, or hereafter procured for the same, shall be the property of the Government.

Duty of Registrar

4 The Registrar shall have the charge of the Law Library, under the Law Library Committee.

Application of annual grants

5 Any annual grant made by the Legislature for the purposes of the Law Library may be applied by Law Library Committee for the purchase and binding of books and other requisites for the Law Library, and for the preservation of the books belonging thereto, and for other incidental expenses.

Rules

6 (1) The Law Library Committee may make rules consistent with this Act for the better regulation of the Library and without prejudice to the generality of such power, rules under this section may prescribe—

- (a) the categories of person who are permitted to use the Library, whether free of charge or upon payment of such reasonable subscription as may be prescribed;
- (b) the hours when the Library will be open for use by such persons; and
- (c) the conduct to be observed by persons while on Library premises.

(2) Section 6 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1977 [title 1 item 3] shall not apply to rules made under this section.
