Interpretation

2 In this Act—

“Bermuda Monetary Authority” means the Bermuda Monetary Authority established under the Bermuda Monetary Authority Act 1969;

“dealer in high value goods” has the meaning given in section 2(1) of the Proceeds of Crime (Anti-Money Laundering and Anti-Terrorist Financing Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2008;

“FIA” means the Financial Intelligence Agency established by section 3 of the Financial Intelligence Agency Act 2007;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for the Registrar of Companies;

“National Anti-Money Laundering Committee” means the Committee established by section 49 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 1997;

“relevant person” means a person, body or entity with respect to which the Registrar has supervisory or regulatory functions under this or any other statutory provision, including a dealer in high value goods;

“Registrar” means the Registrar of Companies appointed under section 3 of the Companies Act 1981;

“Superintendent of Real Estate” means the person for the time being appointed under section 3 of the Real Estate Brokers’ Licensing Act 2017.

Supervisory functions and duties of the Registrar

3 (1) The Registrar shall have such supervisory or regulatory functions, duties and powers as are assigned to him by this Act and any other statutory provision.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Registrar—

- (a) has the general function of assisting with the detection and prevention of financial crime with respect to relevant persons;
- (b) has the functions that are conferred on him by section 5 of the Proceeds of Crime (Anti-Money Laundering and Anti-Terrorist Financing Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2008 in relation to dealers in high value goods;
- (c) shall implement an anti-money laundering or anti-terrorist financing risk-based supervisory or monitoring programme for dealers in high value goods;
- (d) shall effectively supervise all dealers in high value goods, whether or not they are registered with the Registrar.

(3) The Registrar may do all such acts or things as are necessary for the purpose of the performance of his supervisory or regulatory functions and may exercise his powers under this Act or any other statutory provision for that purpose.
