SUMMARY OFFENCES ACT 1926

[13 January 1926]

[preamble and words of enactment omitted]

Interpretation

1 In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

"dependant" means any person who is found as a fact to have been wholly or in part dependent upon any other person at the time of the commission of an alleged offence; and "dependent" means dependent as aforesaid;

"driver" includes any person in charge of a vehicle;

"fire apparatus" includes any fire engine, fire pump, fire ladder, hose reel, chemical extinguisher or truck carrying or towing any hose or other thing used for the purpose of fire fighting;

"highway" includes every public road, street, lane, alley, wharf or other public place in Bermuda, and Admiralty and Defence Department roads;

"horse" includes a mule, ass, and any other beast of draft or burden;

"public place" means any highway, wharf, street, bridge and thoroughfare, and includes —

- (a) every place (including any foreshore or any beach or open space belonging to the Government) to which the public under ordinary circumstances have the right of legal access, whether with or without payment of any entrance fee or gate money; and
- (b) any steamer, boat or vehicle plying for hire in Bermuda; and
- (c) all land and land covered with water contiguous to a public place from which an act constituting an offence against this Act would ordinarily be viewable or audible to or by persons in such public place;

"vehicle" includes any carriage, cart, dray, wagon, bicycle, velocipede or other similar vehicle, and every mechanically propelled vehicle.

Offences against public policy

2 Any person—

- (a) who being able wholly or in part to maintain himself or his dependants wilfully neglects so to do ; or

- (b) who runs away and leaves his dependants chargeable to any parish; or
- (c) who returns to, and becomes chargeable in, any parish from which he has legally been removed; or
- (d) [Repealed]
- (e) who endeavours by the exposure of wounds or deformities, or by any show of violence or insult or by attempt at intimidation, to obtain alms; or
- (f) who, when arrested, violently resists any police officer arresting him; or
- (g) who is found tipping in any unlicensed shop; or
- (h) [deleted]
- (i) who wilfully and maliciously breaks, damages, removes or tampers with, any electric or other bell or instrument, or any part of or appendage to any bell or instrument, provided or erected for use for giving alarm in case of fire; or
- (j) who refuses or neglects to assist any police officer in the execution of his duty; or
- (k) who in any highway or thoroughfare appears improperly or indecently dressed; or
- (kk) who sells, or permits any person in his employ to sell, any tobacco, cigars or cigarettes to any person under sixteen years of age; or
- (m) who without reasonable cause, the proof whereof shall be upon him, in any manner makes, or circulates, or causes to be made or circulated, any false statement, which expressly or by implication suggests the presence in, on or about any aircraft, vessel, vehicle, structure building or other place of explosive or other dangerous or potentially dangerous substance; or
- (n) who resists or wilfully obstructs or assaults a police officer, customs officer or prison officer, while such officer is acting in the execution of his duty, or any person acting in aid of such officer while so acting,

commits an offence against this Act:

Provided that it shall be a good defence to a charge under paragraph (kk) for the person charged to prove that he had reasonable

 - (ii) a police officer; or
- (c) knowingly interferes with the carrying on of any lawful activity in any public premises, commits (without prejudice to any other provision of law) an offence against this Act:

Provided that nothing in paragraph (c) shall operate to prevent—

- (i) any lawful picketing carried on outside any public premises; or
- (ii) any other lawful act done

by or on behalf of a registered trade union in contemplation or in furtherance of a labour dispute under the Labour Relations Act 1975 [title 18 item 1].

(2) A police officer may remove from any public premises any person who commits an offence under subsection (1)(b) in those premises.

(3) A person authorised to give directions for the purposes of subsection (1)(b) with respect to any public premises shall, if so required by any person to whom a direction is given under that paragraph to leave those premises, produce his authorisation to give such a direction.

(4) References in this section to public premises include references to any building which is owned, occupied or used for any purpose by or on behalf of the Government or a local or public authority or which is occupied or used for parliamentary, judicial or police purposes and includes a school, and any part of any such building the curtilage thereof and the boundary walls thereof and any place or thing which is within the curtilage of any such building.

Restriction on flying certain flags

21 (1) Any person who otherwise than in conformity with the terms of a licence granted by the Governor, acting in his discretion, or under other lawful authority, flies or exhibits in any public place any of the following flags, that is to say—

- (a) the Royal Standard or the personal standard of any member of the Royal Family;
- (b) the flag for the time being appointed to be flown by the Governor;
- (c) the White Ensign, the Blue Ensign, or any flag appointed to be flown only on Her Majesty's Ships or in connection with establishments of the Royal Navy;
- (d) any flag for the time being appointed to be flown only by any Department, or any branch of any Department, of Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom or in Bermuda; or
- (e) any flag so closely resembling any such flag as aforesaid that it might reasonably be taken to be that flag,

commits an offence against this Act.

(2) Any person who, except otherwise than in conformity with the terms of a licence granted by the Governor, acting in his discretion, or under other lawful authority, flies or exhibits in any public place—

- (a) any flag mentioned in the foregoing subsection; or
- (b) the Union Jack; or
- (c) the flag of any of Her Majesty's dominions, where that flag bears thereon any addition, or is in any way modified or defaced, commits an offence against this Act.

(3) Subject as hereinafter provided, any person who in any public place flies or exhibits the national flag of any Foreign State without at the same time flying or exhibiting the Union Jack or the flag of any of Her Majesty's dominions (any of which flags are hereinafter referred to in this section as a "British flag") in accordance with the following provisions —

- (a) the British flag shall not be smaller than the flag of the Foreign State and shall be in not less good condition as the flag of the Foreign State; and
- (b) where the British flag and the flag of the Foreign State are flown from the same staff or jack the British flag be uppermost,

commits an offence against this Act:

Provided that nothing in the foregoing provisions of this subsection shall have effect—

- (i) in relation to the flying, by a foreign ship, of the national or any other official flag of the Foreign State to which that ship belongs; or
- (ii) in relation to the flying at the consulate, vice-consulate or consular agency of any Foreign State, of the national or any other official flag of that Foreign State; or
- (iii) in relation to the flying, at any military, naval or air establishment of the United States of America, of the national or any other official flag of the United States of America.

Restriction on using Royal coat of arms and that of Bermuda

22 Subject as hereinafter provided, any person who, otherwise than in conformity with the terms of a licence granted by the Governor or under other lawful authority, uses or displays—

- (a) in connection with the carrying on of any business, trade, profession or calling; or
- (b) in connection with the activities of any body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, the Royal coat of arms or the coat of arms of Bermuda, or any arms so closely resembling either of these coats of arms that they might reasonably be taken to be that coat of arms, commits an offence against this Act:

Provided that nothing in the foregoing provisions of this section shall have effect in relation to the reproduction or representation of the Royal coat of arms or the coat of arms of Bermuda on any article, goods or things sold or offered for sale unless the Governor, on its appearing to him that any reproduction or representation of the Royal coat of arms or the coat of arms of Bermuda on any articles, goods or things is objectionable on public grounds, declares, by order published in the Gazette, that such foregoing provisions shall have effect in relation to the reproduction or representation of the Royal coat of arms or to the reproduction or representation of the coat of arms of Bermuda on those articles, goods or things.

Attempts

23 Any person who attempts to commit any summary offence constituted under this Act commits an offence against this Act and on conviction shall be liable to one half the punishment provided for in section 25.

Arrest without warrant

24 A police officer may arrest without warrant any person whom he finds committing an offence against this Act, or whom he finds committing an act which he honestly believes on reasonable grounds to constitute an offence against this Act.

Punishment of offenders

25 Where a person commits an offence under this Act:

Punishment on summary conviction: imprisonment for 6 months or a fine of $2,880 or both such imprisonment and fine.

[This Act was brought into operation on 1 May 1926 by notice published in Gazette 17/1926]
