WHEREAS —

- (a) a Constituency Boundaries Commission was appointed on 14 October 1994 under section 53 of the Constitution; and
- (b) the Commissioners reported on 30 June 1995 making recommendations for the retention of certain constituency boundaries and the alteration of others; and
- (c) the House of Assembly on 14 February 1996 approved a draft of the following Order, being a draft designed to give effect to those recommendations without modification; and
- (d) it is deemed expedient to confirm and give legal effect to that draft:

CONSTITUENCY BOUNDARIES ORDER 1996

The Governor now therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by sections 54 and 108 of the Constitution, makes the following Order:—

Citation

1 This Order may be cited as the Constituency Boundaries Order 1996.

New constituency boundaries

2 The boundaries of the constituencies into which the several Parishes are divided are those set forth in the Schedule.

Incidental and consequential matters

3 (1) Unless otherwise expressly stated, the word "part" in the Schedule, in relation to a Parish, includes any island situate in that part.

(2) The constituencies described in the Schedule are delineated on a series of Maps prepared by the Minister of Works and Engineering, Parks and Housing on 5 December 1995 and deposited with the Deputy Governor, and those Maps may be referred to for the purpose of clarifying anything in the Schedule or resolving any doubt or question as to its meaning or intent.

Revocation of BR 7/1988

4 The Constituency Boundaries Order 1988 is revoked.

Commencement

5 This Order comes into force upon the next dissolution of the Legislature.
