CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS AND INVESTIGATIONS

Mutual Service of Process

3. (1) This section has effect where the Attorney-General receives from the government of, or other authority in, a country outside The Bahamas — Service of overseas process in The Bahamas.

(a) a summons or other process requiring a person to appear as defendant or attend as a witness in criminal proceedings in that country; or

(b) a document issued by a court exercising criminal jurisdiction in that country and recording a decision of the court made in the exercise of that jurisdiction, together with a request for that process or document to be served on a person in The Bahamas.

(2) The Attorney-General may cause the process or document to be served by post or, if the request is for personal service, direct the Commissioner to cause it to be personally served on the person concerned.

(3) Service by virtue of this section of any such process or document as is mentioned in subsection (1) shall not impose any obligation under the law of The Bahamas to comply with it.

(4) Any such process or document served by virtue of this section shall be accompanied by a notice —

- (a) stating the effect of subsection (3);
- (b) indicating that the person on whom it is served may wish to seek advice as to the possible consequences of his failing to comply with the process under the law of the country or territory where it was issued; and
- (c) indicating that under that law he may not, as a witness, be accorded the same rights and privileges as would be accorded in criminal proceedings in The Bahamas.

(5) Where the Commissioner is directed under this section to cause any process or document to be served, he shall after it has been served forthwith inform the Attorney-General when and how it was served and, if possible, furnish him with a receipt signed by the person on whom it was served; and if the Commissioner has been unable to cause the process or document to be served he shall forthwith inform the Attorney-General of that fact and of the reason.

4. (1) Process of the following descriptions, that is to say —

- (a) a summons requiring a person charged with an offence to appear before a court in The Bahamas; and
- (b) a summons or order requiring a person to attend before a court in The Bahamas for the purpose of giving evidence in criminal proceedings, may be issued or made notwithstanding that the person in question is outside The Bahamas and may be served outside The Bahamas in accordance with arrangements made by the Attorney-General.

(2) Service of any process outside The Bahamas by virtue of this section shall not impose any obligation under the law of The Bahamas to comply with it and accordingly failure to comply shall not constitute contempt of any court nor is it a ground for issuing a warrant to secure the attendance of the person in question.

(3) Subsection (2) is without prejudice to the service of any process (with usual consequences for non-compliance) on the person in question if subsequently effected in The Bahamas.

Mutual Provision of Evidence

5. (1) On an application made in accordance with subsection (2), a Judge or Stipendiary and Circuit Magistrate shall issue a letter (“a letter of request”) requesting assistance in obtaining such evidence as is specified in the letter for use in the proceedings or investigation of an offence.

Overseas
evidence for use
in The Bahamas.

(2) An application under subsection (1) may be made by the Attorney-General or, if proceedings have been instituted, by the person charged in those proceedings.

(3) The Attorney-General may issue a letter of request if he is satisfied —

- (a) that an offence has been committed or that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that an offence has been committed; and
- (b) that proceedings in respect of the offence have been instituted or that the offence is being investigated.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a letter of request shall be sent to the Attorney-General for transmission either —

- (a) to a court or tribunal specified in the letter and exercising jurisdiction in the place where the evidence is to be obtained; or
- (b) to any authority recognised by the government of the country in question as the appropriate authority for receiving requests for assistance of the kind of which this section applies.

(5) In cases of urgency a letter of request may be sent directly to such a court or tribunal as is mentioned in subsection (4)(a).

(6) In this section “evidence” includes documents and other articles.

(7) Evidence obtained by virtue of a letter of request shall not without the consent of such an authority as is mentioned in subsection (4)(b) be used for any purpose other than that specified in the letter; and when any document or other article obtained pursuant to a letter of request is no longer required for that purpose (or for any other purpose for which such consent has been obtained), it shall be returned to such authority unless that authority indicates that the document or article need not be returned.

6. (1) This section has effect where the Attorney-General receives —

- (a) from a court or tribunal exercising criminal jurisdiction in a country outside The Bahamas or a prosecuting authority in such a country; or
- (b) from any other authority in such a country which appears to him to have the function of making requests of the kind to which this section applies, a request for assistance in obtaining evidence in The Bahamas in connection with criminal proceedings that have been instituted, or a criminal investigation that is being carried on, in that country.

(2) If the Attorney-General is satisfied —

- (a) that an offence under the law of the country in question has been committed or that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that such an offence has been committed; and
- (b) that proceedings in respect of that offence have been instituted in that country or that an investigation into that offence is being carried on in that country, he may cause an application to be made ex parte to the Supreme Court by an originating summons for an order to give effect to the request.

(3) A court to which an application is made pursuant to subsection (2) shall have jurisdiction to entertain the application and to make such order as it sees fit to give effect to the request.

Ch. 53, Sub. Leg.
Vol. II.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act the procedure applicable to an application under the provisions of Order 65 of the Rules of the Supreme Court pertaining to the obtaining of evidence for use abroad and the mode of carrying out and enforcement of any order of the Supreme Court shall mutatis mutandis apply to an application pursuant to subsection (2).

(5) For the purpose of satisfying himself as to the matters mentioned in subsections (2)(a) and (b) the Attorney-General shall regard as conclusive a certificate issued by such authority in the country in question as appears to him to be appropriate.

(6) In this section, “evidence” includes documents and other articles.

(7) The First Schedule shall have effect with respect to the proceedings before the court in pursuance of the application under subsection (2). First Schedule.

(8) Where it appears to the Attorney-General that the request relates exclusively to a fiscal offence he shall not exercise his powers under subsection (2) unless the request is made pursuant to a treaty to which The Bahamas is a party.

Additional Co-operation Powers

7. (1) The Attorney-General may, if he thinks fit, issue a warrant providing for any person (a “prisoner”) serving a sentence in a prison in The Bahamas to be transferred to a country outside The Bahamas for the purpose —

- (a) of giving evidence in criminal proceedings there; or
- (b) of being identified in, or otherwise by his presence assisting in, such proceedings or the investigation of an offence.

(2) No warrant shall be issued under this section in respect of a prisoner unless he has consented to being transferred as mentioned in subsection (1), and that consent may be given either —

- (a) by the prisoner himself; or
- (b) in circumstances in which it appears to the Attorney-General inappropriate, by reason of the prisoner’s physical or mental condition or his youth, for him to act for himself, by a person appearing to the Attorney-General to be an appropriate person to act on his behalf, but a consent once given is not capable of being withdrawn after the issue of the warrant.

(3) The effect of a warrant under this section is to authorise —

- (a) the taking of the prisoner to a place in The Bahamas and his delivery at a place of departure from The Bahamas into the custody of a person representing the appropriate authority of the country to which the prisoner is to be transferred; and
- (b) the bringing of the prisoner back to The Bahamas and his transfer in custody to the place where he is liable to be detained under the sentence to which he is subject.

(4) Where a warrant has been issued in respect of a prisoner under this section he shall be deemed to be in legal custody at any time when, being in The Bahamas or on board a ship or aircraft registered in The Bahamas, he is being taken under the warrant to or from any place or being kept in custody under the warrant.

(5) A person authorised by or for the purposes of the warrant to take the prisoner to or from any place or to keep him in custody has all the powers, authority, protection and privileges of a police officer.

(6) If the prisoner escapes or is unlawfully at large, he may be arrested without warrant by a police officer and taken to any place to which he may be taken under the warrant issued under this section.

(7) This section applies to a person in custody awaiting trial or sentence and a person committed to prison for default in paying a fine as it applies to a prisoner, and the reference in subsection (3)(b) to a sentence shall be construed accordingly.

8. (1) This section has effect where —

- (a) a witness order has been made or a witness summons issued in criminal proceedings in The Bahamas in respect of a person (a “prisoner”) who is detained in custody in a country outside The Bahamas by virtue of a sentence or order of a court or tribunal exercising criminal jurisdiction in that country; or

overseas prisoner
to give evidence
in The Bahamas.

(b) it appears to the Attorney-General that it is desirable for a prisoner to be identified in, or otherwise by his presence to assist in, such proceedings or the investigation in The Bahamas of an offence.

(2) If the Attorney-General is satisfied that the appropriate authority in the country where the prisoner is detained will make arrangements for him to come to The Bahamas to give evidence pursuant to the witness order or witness summons or, as the case may be, for the purpose mentioned in subsection (1)(b), he may issue a warrant under this section.

(3) A warrant shall not be issued under this section in respect of a prisoner unless he has consented to being brought to The Bahamas to give evidence as aforesaid or, as the case may be, for the purpose mentioned in subsection (1)(b); but a consent once given is not capable of being withdrawn after the issue of the warrant.

(4) The effect of the warrant is to authorise —

- (a) the bringing of the prisoner to The Bahamas;
- (b) the taking of the prisoner to, and his detention in custody at, such place or places in The Bahamas as are specified in the warrant; and
- (c) the returning of the prisoner to the country from which he has come.

(5) Subsections (4) to (7) of section 7 shall have effect in relation to a warrant issued under this section as they have effect in relation to a warrant issued under that section.

(6) A person is not subject to the Immigration Act in respect of his entry into or presence in The Bahamas in pursuance of a warrant under this section, but if the warrant ceases to have effect while he is still in The Bahamas he shall be treated for the purposes of that Act as if he has then illegally entered The Bahamas. Ch. 191.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), an order made under this section may provide for the registration by a court in The Bahamas of any order as a condition of its enforcement and prescribe requirements to be satisfied before an order can be registered.

(3) An order made under this section may include such supplementary and incidental provisions as appear to be necessary or expedient and may apply for the purposes of the order, with such modifications as appear to the Attorney-General to be appropriate, any provisions relating to confiscation or forfeiture orders under any other written law.

(4) An order made under this section may make different provisions for different cases.

(5) This section applies to any offence which corresponds to or is similar to an offence under the Dangerous Drugs Act, 2000, or an offence as defined in the Proceeds of Crime Act, 2000.
