
IMMIGRATION (ATTENDANCE AND OTHER FEES) REGULATIONS

S.I. 61/2013.

(SECTION 45)

[Commencement 1st July, 2013]

Citation.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Immigration (Attendance and Other Fees) Regulations.

Attendance fees for Immigration Officers.

2. (1) Subject to paragraph (2), a person applying —

(a) for the attendance of an Immigration Officer outside a place of normal attendance shall pay a fee of fifty dollars in respect of —

(i) each Immigration Officer in attendance; and

(ii) each hour of attendance by each Immigration Officer.

(b) for the attendance of an Immigration Officer outside the normal eight hour shift at a seaport, shall pay a fee of thirty dollars in respect of —

(i) each Immigration Officer in attendance; and

(ii) each hour of attendance by each Immigration Officer.

(2) No fee is payable under subparagraph (b) of paragraph (1) for attendance —

(a) at the Prince George Dock, City of Nassau, New Providence Island; and

(b) with respect to cruise ships only, Freeport Harbour, Freeport, Grand Bahama Island.

(3) Fees payable pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be calculated to the last completed half hour of attendance, subject to a minimum charge equivalent to two hours of attendance.

(4) The Immigration Department may require an applicant for immigration services —

(a) to provide the necessary transportation; or

(b) to pay, in addition to the fees for attendance, the costs of transportation.

(5) All fees payable under this regulation shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

-
- 3. (1) Attendance fees at any government or other airport or dock between 5:01 p.m. and 8:59 a.m., Sunday through Saturday, are payable in respect of —
- Attendance fees for means of transport.
- (a) a commercial airline with a seating capacity not exceeding thirty seats, at a rate of fifty dollars per hour;
 - (b) a commercial airline with a seating capacity exceeding thirty seats but not exceeding seventy seats, at a rate of one hundred dollars per hour; and
 - (c) a commercial airline with a seating capacity exceeding seventy seats, at a rate of two hundred dollars per hour.
- (2) A fee in respect of the services performed by an Immigration Officer while in attendance is payable in respect of an aircraft or vessel in port as follows —
- (a) a cargo aircraft, at a rate of fifty dollars per hour;
 - (b) a cruise ship, at a rate of fifty dollars per hour;
 - (c) a cargo vessel, at a rate of fifty dollars per hour;
 - (d) a tanker and cement charter vessel, at a rate of fifty dollars per hour.
- (3) All fees payable under this regulation shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

4. Repealed.