

CHAPTER 324

INDUSTRIAL PROPERTY

INDUSTRIAL PROPERTY RULES

(SECTION 58)

*[Commencement 8th June, 1967]S.I. 33/1967S.I. 96/1975S.I. 70/1983S.I. 34/2003S.I. 54/2004PART I PRELIMINARY

1. These Rules may be cited as the Industrial Property Rules. Citation.

Interpretation

2. (1) In the construction of these Rules, any words herein used the meaning of which is defined by the Act or the Interpretation and General Clauses Act, as amended, shall have the meanings thereby assigned to them. Interpretation.
Ch. 2.

(2) In these Rules —

“agent” means an agent duly authorised to the satisfaction of the Registrar General;

“Deposit List” means deposit list of designs;

“Office” means the Industrial Property Office of the Registrar General’s Department; S.I. 96/1975.

“Register” means the register of patents.

(3) Any reference in these Rules to a section or subsection shall be read and construed as a reference to a section or subsection of the Industrial Property Act. S.I. 96/1975.

3. The fees to be paid in pursuance of the Act shall be the fees specified in the First Schedule to these Rules. Fees.

4. The forms herein referred to are the forms contained in the Second Schedule to these Rules and such forms shall be used in all cases to which they are applicable and shall be modified as directed by the Registrar General to meet other cases. Forms.

Documents

Size, etc., of documents.

5. Subject to any other directions that may be given by the Registrar General in any particular case, all applications, notices, papers having representations affixed, and other documents lodged under the Act or these Rules, other than drawings supplied in connection with applications for Letters Patent, shall be upon foolscap paper of a size approximately 13 inches by 8 inches, on one side only, and shall have on the left hand part thereof a margin of not less than one inch and a half.

Service of documents.

6. Any application, notice or other document sent to the Department by post shall be deemed to have been given, made or filed at the time when the letter containing the document would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

Address.

7 (1) Every person concerned in any proceedings to which these Rules relate and every patentee and every proprietor of claim for design copyright shall furnish to the Registrar General an address for service in The Bahamas and that address may be treated for all purposes connected with such proceedings or patent or claim for design copyright as the address of the person concerned in the proceedings or the patentee or the proprietor of the claim for design copyright as the case may be.

(2) The address given shall in all cases be as full as possible for the purpose of enabling any person easily to find the place of business or of residence (as the case may be) of the person whose address is given.

(3) When a person does not carry on business or reside in a town with streets, the Registrar General may require the address to include all indications which he thinks necessary for the purpose set out in paragraph (2) above.

(4) When a person carries on business or resides in a town where there are streets, the address given shall include the name of the street and the number in the street or name of premises, if any.

Agents

Agents.

8. (1) With the exception of documents mentioned in paragraph (2) and unless the Registrar General otherwise directs in any particular case all notices, applications or other documents filed under the Act may be signed by and all attendances upon the Registrar General may be made by or through an agent duly authorised to the satisfaction of the Registrar General.

(2) The following documents are excepted from paragraph (1): the authorisation of an agent, an application for a patent or for the grant of a patent of addition in lieu of an independent patent; a claim for design copyright; and an application, request, notice, claim or declaration on any of the following forms, namely Forms numbers 3, 4, 9, 11, 12 and 20.

(3) Where an agent is authorised as aforesaid service upon such agent of any document relating to the matter in respect of which such agent has been authorised shall be deemed to be service upon the person so appointing him, and all communications directed to be made to such person in respect of such matter may be addressed to such agent.

(4) The Registrar General shall not be bound to recognise as such agent any person who has been convicted criminally or struck off the Roll of Counsel and Attorneys or who is an undischarged bankrupt.

PART II PATENTS

Applications for the Grant of Patents

9. (1) An application for a patent shall be made on Form No. 1.

Form of application.
Form 1.

(2) In the case of an application by the assignee of the person claiming to be the true and first inventor there shall be furnished at the time of filing such application or within a period of three months thereafter the declaration required by section 6(2).

(3) An application for the grant of a Patent of Addition in lieu of an independent patent shall be made on Form No. 1 Add.

Form No. 1 Add.

Application by personal representatives.

10. In the case of an application by the personal representative of a deceased person who, immediately before his death, was entitled to make such an application the probate of the will of the deceased, or the letters of administration of his estate, or an official copy of the probate or letters of administration, shall be produced at the Department in proof of the applicant's title to act as personal representative.

Translation of documents.

11. If any specification or other document relating to an application for a patent is in a foreign language, it shall be accompanied by a translation thereof verified by affidavit or otherwise to the satisfaction of the Registrar General.

Application by firm or company.

12. (1) If an application for a patent is made by a firm or partnership it may be signed in the name of or for and on behalf of the firm or partnership by any one or more members thereof.

(2) If the application be made by a body corporate it may be signed by a Director or by the Secretary or other principal officer of such body corporate.

Drawings

To accompany specification.

13. Drawings when supplied shall be furnished in duplicate and shall accompany the specification to which they refer.

Material.

14. (1) Drawings shall be hand-made or reproduced on white, hot-pressed, rolled or calendered strong drawing paper of smooth surface, good quality and medium thickness, without washes or colours, in such a way as to admit of being clearly reproduced on a reduced scale by photography or, without any intermediary steps on a stereotype.

(2) Mounted drawings may not be used.

Size.

15. (1) Drawings shall be on sheets which measure 13 inches from top to bottom and are either from 8 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches to 84 inches or from 16 inches to 16 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide and a clear margin of half an inch shall be left at the edges of the sheet.

(2) If there are more figures than can be shown on one of the smaller sized sheets, two or more of these sheets shall be used unless the larger size is required by the size of any one figure.

(3) An exceptionally large figure may be continued on subsequent sheets.

(4) No more sheets shall be employed than are necessary.

(5) The figures shall be numbered consecutively without regard to the number of sheets, and shall as far as possible be arranged in numerical order, separated by a sufficient space to keep them distinct.

(6) Where figures on a number of sheets form in effect a single complete figure, they shall be so arranged that the complete figure can be assembled without concealing any part of another figure.

16. Drawings shall be prepared in accordance with the following requirements —

Draughtsmanship requirements.

- (a) they shall be executed in durable very dark markings;
- (b) each line shall be firmly and evenly drawn, sharply defined, and of the same strength throughout;
- (c) section lines, lines for effect, and shading lines shall be as few as possible and shall not be closely drawn;
- (d) shading fines shall not contrast excessively in thickness with the general lines of the drawing;
- (e) sections and shading shall not be represented by solid black or washes;
- (f) they shall be on a scale sufficiently large to show the invention clearly, and only so much of the apparatus, machine or article may appear as effects this purpose;
- (g) if the scale is given, it shall be drawn and not denoted by words, and no dimension may be marked on the drawings;
- (h) the figures shall be drawn in an upright position in regard to the top and bottom of the sheet;
- (i) reference letters and numerals, and index letters and numerals used in conjunction therewith, shall be bold, distinct and not less than one-eighth of an inch in height, the same letters or numerals shall be used in different views of the same parts, and where the reference letters or numerals are shown outside the parts referred to they shall be connected with the said parts by fine lines.

Marking of drawings.

- 17. (1) Drawings shall bear —
- (a) in the left-hand top corner the name of the applicant;
 - (b) in the right-hand top corner the number of sheets of drawings sent and the consecutive number of each sheet and the words “original” or “duplicate” as the case may require;
 - (c) in the right-hand bottom corner the signature of the applicant or his agent.

(2) The title of the invention shall not appear on the drawings.

No descriptive matter on constructional drawings.

18. (1) No descriptive matter shall appear on constructional drawings, but drawings in the nature of flow sheets may bear descriptive matter to show the materials used and the chemical or other reactions or treatments effected in carrying out the invention.

(2) Drawings showing a number of instruments or units of apparatus and their interconnections, either mechanical or electrical, where each such instrument or unit is shown only symbolically, may bear such descriptive matter as is necessary to identify the instruments or units or their interconnections.

(3) No drawing or sketch other than a graphic chemical formula or a mathematical formula, symbol or equation, shall appear in the verbal part of the specification.

Drawings to be unmarked.

19. Drawings shall be delivered at the Department free from folds, breaks or creases which would render them unsuitable for reproduction by photography.

Examiner’s fee.
S.I. 96/1975.

20. Where the Registrar General refers the application and specification to an examiner under section 10(1), there shall be paid by the applicant the examiner’s fee specified at item 2 of the First Schedule.

First Schedule.

Divisions and Ante-dating of Applications

Division under section 10(3).

21. (1) Subject to the approval of the Registrar General an applicant may on his own initiative divide his application by limiting the claims of the specification and filing a divisional application or applications in respect of subject matter which has thus been excluded from the claims, and preserve as the date of each divisional application (and the specification filed in pursuance thereof) the date of the initial application and the benefit of the right of convention priority, if any, and the Registrar General may direct accordingly provided that —

- (a) such division is made before the acceptance of the specification;
- (b) the filing of the divisional application or applications takes place within two months of effecting the limitation of the claims of the first application;
- (c) the application which is sought to be divided is not itself an application which has been divided from another application under section 10(3) of the Act or an application which has been ante-dated under section 10(7) of the Act.

(2) Each divisional application shall be examined in accordance with the provisions of section 10 of the Act, and shall otherwise be proceeded with as a substantive application in accordance with the Act and these Rules.

22. (1) Where an applicant has made an application for a patent, and before the acceptance of the specification, makes a fresh application for a patent for matter included in the first mentioned application or the specification filed in pursuance thereof the Registrar General may direct that the fresh application and specification filed in pursuance of that application shall be ante-dated to the date of filing of the first mentioned application if the applicant includes in the fresh application a request to that effect.

Ante-dating
under section
10(7).

(2) The Registrar General may require such amendment of the specification filed in pursuance of either of the said applications as may be necessary to ensure that neither of the said specifications includes a claim for matter claimed in the other.

Request for Post-dating an Application

23. Where an applicant for a patent desires that his application shall be post-dated in pursuance of the provisions of section 10(6) he shall make a request on Form No. 3.

Post-dating of application.

Form 3.

Issue and Form of Patent

Request for issue.
Form 4. 24. A request for the issue of a patent on a application shall be made on Form No. 4.

Extension of time.
Form 5. 25. An application under section 12(2) for the extension of the period for making a request for the issue of a patent shall be made on Form No. 5.

Form of patent. 26. A patent shall be in the Form A or B (whichever is applicable) set out in Part II of the Second Schedule to these Rules or such modification of either of these forms as the Registrar General directs.

Renewal Fees

Payable as from end of 4th year.
Form 6. 27. The prescribed renewal fees shall be paid by filing Form No. 6 before the expiration of the fourth year from the date of a patent and thereafter before the expiration of each successive year during the term of the patent or before the expiration of such extended period as may be allowed upon an application under rule 29.

Payable in advance. 28. All or any of the prescribed annual renewal fees may be paid in advance.

Extension of time.
Form 7. 29. A request for extension of the period for payment of any renewal fee shall be made on Form No. 7.

Certificate of payment.
Form 8. 30. On due compliance with the terms of rule 27 the Registrar General shall issue a Certificate on Form No. 8 that the prescribed fee has been duly paid.

Reminder. 31. At any time not less than one month before the date when any renewal fee will become due in respect of any patent, the Registrar General shall send to the patentee or patentees at this or their address for service and to the address of the person or persons who paid the last renewal fee, a notice reminding him or them of the date when such fee will become due and of the consequences of the non-payment thereof.

*Restoration of Lapsed Patents and Lapsed
Applications for Patents
(Sections 15 and 16)*

32. An application under section 15 for restoration of a patent shall be made on Form No. 25 and shall be accompanied by evidence in support of the statements made in the application.

Application for restoration of patent.
S.I. 96/1975.
Form 25.

33. (1) If upon consideration of the evidence, the Registrar General is not satisfied that a prima facie case for an order under section 15 has been made out, he shall notify the applicant accordingly and, unless within one month the applicant requests to be heard in the matter, the Registrar General shall refuse the application.

Refusal of application.
S.I. 96/1975.

(2) If the applicant requests a hearing within the time allowed, the Registrar General after giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard, shall determine whether the application may proceed to advertisement or whether it shall be refused.

34. (1) At any time within two months of the advertisement of the application under section 15(4), any person may give notice of opposition thereto on Form No. 26.

Notice of opposition.
S.I. 96/1975.
Form 26.

(2) Such notice shall be accompanied by a copy thereof and shall be supported by a statement (in duplicate) setting out fully the nature of the opponent's interests and the facts upon which he relies.

(3) A copy of the notice and of the statement shall be sent by the Registrar General to the applicant.

35. If the applicant desires to proceed with his application, he shall, within three months of the receipt of such copies, file a counter-statement setting out fully the grounds upon which the opposition is contested and deliver to the opponent a copy thereof.

Applicant's counter-statement.
S.I. 96/1975

36. The opponent may, within three months from the receipt of the copy of the counter-statement, file evidence in support of his case and shall deliver to the applicant a copy of the evidence.

Opponent's filing of evidence.
S.I. 96/1975.

Applicant's evidence and opponent's evidence in reply.
S.I 96/1975.

37. Within three months from the receipt of the copy of the opponent's evidence, or, if the opponent does not file any evidence, within three months from the expiration of the time within which the opponent's evidence might have been filed, the applicant may file evidence in support of his case and shall deliver to the opponent a copy of the evidence; and within three months from the receipt of the copy of the applicant's evidence, the opponent may file evidence confined to matters strictly in reply and shall deliver to the applicant a copy of the evidence.

Further evidence.
S.I. 96/1975

38. No further evidence shall be filed by either party except by leave or direction of the Registrar General.

Copies of documents to be supplied.
S.I 96/1975.

39. (1) Copies of all documents referred to in the notice of opposition or in any statement or evidence filed in connection with the opposition, authenticated to the satisfaction of the Registrar General, shall be furnished (in duplicate) for the Registrar General's use unless he otherwise directs. Such copies shall accompany the notice, statement or evidence in which they are referred to.

(2) Where a specification or other document in a foreign language is referred to, a translation thereof, verified by statutory declaration or otherwise to the satisfaction of the Registrar General, and one additional copy of the translation, shall also be furnished.

Hearing.
S.I. 96/1975.

40. (1) On completion of the evidence (if any) or at such time as he may see fit, the Registrar General shall appoint a time for the hearing of the case, and shall give the parties at least 14 days' notice of the appointment.

Form 10.

(2) If either party desires to be heard, he shall notify the Registrar General on Form No. 10 and the Registrar General may refuse to hear either party who has not filed the said form prior to the date of the hearing.

(3) If either party intends to refer at the hearing to any publication not already mentioned in the proceedings, he shall give to the other party and to the Registrar General at least ten days' notice of his intention, together with details of each publication to which he intends to refer.

(4) After hearing the party or parties desiring to be heard or if neither party desires to be heard, then, without a hearing, the Registrar General shall decide the case and notify his decision to the parties.

41. If the Registrar General decides in favour of the applicant, he shall notify him accordingly and require him to file Form No. 27 together with Form No. 6 accompanied by fees to the amount of the unpaid renewal fees.

Decision favourable to applicant.
S.I. 96/1975.
Form 27.
Form 6.

42. In every order of the Registrar General under section 16 restoring a patent the following provision shall be inserted for the protection of persons who have begun to avail themselves of the patented invention between the date when the patent ceased to have effect and the date of the application —

Protection of other persons.
S.I. 96/1975.

“(1) No action or other proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted nor any damage recovered in respect of any manufacture use or sale of the invention the subject of the patent in the interim period as hereinafter defined by any person not being a licensee under the patent at the date when it ceased to have effect, the who after such date and before the the date of the application has made, used, exercised or sold the invention the subject of the patent or has manufactured or installed any plant, machinery or apparatus claimed in the specification of the patent or for carrying out a method or process so claimed. Any such person shall be deemed to have so acted with the licence of the patentee and shall thereafter be entitled to continue to make, use, exercise or sell the invention, without infringement of the patent to the extent hereinafter specified that is to say —

- (a) In so far as the specification of the patent claims an article (other than plant, machinery or apparatus or part thereof as specified under head (b) hereof) and any article so claimed has been manufactured by him during the said interim period, that particular article may at all times be used or sold.
- (b) In so far as the specification claims any plant, machinery or apparatus or part thereof for the production of an article, then any particular plant, machinery or apparatus or part thereof so claimed, which has been manufactured or installed by him during the said interim period, and the products thereof, may at all times be used or sold and so that in the event of any such plant, machinery, apparatus or part thereof being impaired by wear or tear or accidentally destroyed a like licence shall extend to any replacement thereof and to the products of such replacement.

- (c) In so far as the specification claims any process for the making or treating of any article or any method or process of testing, any particular plant, machinery or apparatus which during the said interim period has been manufactured or installed by him or exclusively or mainly used by him for carrying on such method or process may at all times be so used or continue to be so used and the products thereof may at all times be used or sold and so that in the event of any such plant, machinery or apparatus being impaired by wear and tear or accidentally destroyed a like licence shall extend to such method or process when carried on in any replacement of such plant, machinery or apparatus and to the products of the process so carried on.

(2) In paragraph (1) “the interim period” means the period between the date when the patent ceased to have effect and the date of the order.”

43. An application under section 18 for sealing of a patent shall be made on Form No. 28 and shall be accompanied by evidence in support of the statements made in the application.

44. (1) If upon consideration of the evidence, the Registrar General is not satisfied that a prima facie case for an order under section 16 has been made out, he shall notify the applicant accordingly and unless within one month from that notification the applicant requests to be heard in the matter, the Registrar General shall refuse the application.

(2) If the applicant requests a hearing within the time allowed, the Registrar General, after giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard, shall determine whether the application may proceed to advertisement or whether it shall be refused.

45. (1) At any time within two months of the advertisement of an application under section 18(3) any person may give notice of opposition thereto on Form No. 29.

Notice of opposition.
S.I. 96/1975.
Form 29.

(2) Such notice shall be accompanied by a copy thereof and shall be supported by a statement (in duplicate), setting out fully the nature of the opponent's interest and the facts upon which he relies.

(3) A copy of the notice and statement shall be sent by the Registrar General to the applicant.

46. Upon notice of opposition being given, rules 35 to 40 shall apply.

Procedure upon
opposition.
S.I. 96/1975.

47. If the Registrar General decides in favour of the applicant, he shall notify the applicant accordingly and require him to file Form No. 30 together with Form No. 4.

Decision for applicant.
S.I. 96/1975.

48. In every order of the Registrar General under section 16 for the sealing of a patent the same provision shall be inserted for the protection of persons who have begun to avail themselves of the invention between the time allowed by or under section 12 for making the prescribed request for sealing expired and the date of the application for an order for sealing, as are specified in rule 42 for the protection of persons who have begun to avail themselves of a patented invention between the date when the patent ceased to have effect, and the date of the application for restoration, there being substituted for references to the date when the patent ceased to have effect references to the date when the time allowed by or under section 12 for making the request for sealing expired.

Protection of other persons.
S.I. 96/1975.

*Revocation of Patent by the Registrar
General*

49. (1) An application for the revocation of a patent under section 25 shall be made on Form No. 9 and shall be accompanied by a copy thereof, and a statement (in duplicate) setting out fully the facts upon which the applicant for revocation relies and the relief which he seeks.

Application for revocation.
Form 9.

(2) A copy of the application and of the statement shall be sent by the Registrar General to the patentee.

50. If the patentee desires to contest the application, he shall within three months of the receipt of such copies file a counter-statement setting out fully the grounds upon which the application is contested and deliver to the applicant for revocation a copy thereof.

Counter-statement.

Evidence in support of application.

51. The applicant for revocation may, within three months from the receipt of the copy of the counter-statement, file evidence in support of his case and shall deliver to the patentee a copy of the evidence.

Evidence in support of patentee's case and evidence in reply.

52. Within three months from the receipt of the copy of the evidence of the applicant for revocation or, if the applicant for revocation does not file any evidence, within three months from the expiration of the time within which such evidence might have been filed, the patentee may file evidence in support of his case and shall deliver to the applicant for revocation a copy of the evidence; and within three months from the receipt of the copy of the patentee's evidence, the applicant for revocation may file evidence confined to matters strictly in reply and shall deliver to the patentee a copy of the evidence.

Further evidence.

53. No further evidence shall be filed by either party except by leave or direction of the Registrar General.

Hearing.

54. (1) On completion of the evidence (if any) or at such other times as he may see fit, the Registrar General shall appoint a time for the hearing of the case and shall give the parties at least 14 days notice of the appointment.

Form 10.

(2) If either party desires to be heard, he shall notify the Registrar General on Form No. 10 and the Registrar General may refuse to hear either party who has not filed the said form prior to the date of hearing.

(3) After hearing the party or parties desiring to be heard or, if neither party desires to be heard, then without a hearing, the Registrar General shall decide the case and notify his decision to the parties.

Directions to Co-owners

Directions under section 24(5).

Form 11.

55. (1) An application for directions under section 24(5) by a co-grantee or co-proprietor of a patent shall be made on Form No. 11 and shall be accompanied by a statement setting out fully the facts upon which the applicant relies and the directions which he seeks.

(2) A copy of the application and of the statement shall be sent by the Registrar General to each other person registered as grantee or proprietor of the patent and the applicant shall supply a sufficient number of copies for that purpose.

(3) Thereafter the Registrar General may give such directions as he may think fit with regard to the subsequent procedure.

56. (1) An application for directions under section 24(6) by a co-grantee or co-proprietor of a patent shall be made on Form No. 12, and shall be accompanied by a copy thereof, and a statement setting out fully the facts upon which the applicant relies, and the directions which he seeks.

Directions under section 24(6).

Form 12.

(2) A copy of the application and of the statement shall be sent by the Registrar General to the person in default.

(3) Thereafter the Registrar General may give such directions as he may think fit with regard to the subsequent procedure.

Register of Patents

57. (1) Upon the making of an application for a patent, the Registrar General shall cause to be entered in the register the name, address and nationality of the applicant, the title of the invention, the date of the application together with the address for service, and subsequently the date of issue of a patent upon the application.

Entry on Register.

(2) The Registrar General may at any time enter in the Register such other particulars as he may deem necessary.

PART III DESIGNS

Deposit of Claims for Design Copyright

58. (1) A claim for design copyright in a design shall be made on Form No. 13 and shall be signed by the person claiming to be proprietor thereof.

Claim for design copyright.
Form 13.

(2) If any document relating to a claim for design copyright is in a foreign language, it shall be accompanied by a translation thereof verified by affidavit or otherwise to the satisfaction of the Registrar General.

Translation of documents.

Separate claims for each article in respect of features of shape or configuration.

59. Where it is desired to claim design copyright for features of shape or configuration in respect of more than one article, a separate claim shall be made in respect of each article.

Deposit of representations or specimens.

60. There shall be deposited in connection with each claim for design copyright three identical representations of the design in a form satisfactory to the Registrar General or at the Registrar General's option three specimens.

Representation requirements.

61. Each representation of the design shall be upon paper of the size prescribed by rule 5 and not on cardboard, and shall appear on one side only of the paper. The figure or figures shall be placed in an upright position on the sheet. When more figures than one are shown, these shall where possible be on one and the same sheet, and each shall be designated perspective view, front view, side view, plan or otherwise as the case may be.

Drawings or tracings.

62. When the representations furnished are drawings or tracings, they shall be in ink, and if on tracing cloth or tracing paper shall be mounted on paper of the size prescribed by rule 5.

Words, letters or numerals.

63. Where words, letters or numerals appear in the design, the Registrar General may require the insertion in the claim for design copyright of a disclaimer of any right to their exclusive use.

Repeating patterns.

64. Each representation of a design which consists of a repeating surface pattern shall show the complete pattern and a sufficient portion of the repeat in length and width and shall not be of less size than 7 inches by 5 inches.

Royal and other arms, etc.

65. Where a portrait of Her Majesty or of any member of the Royal Family or a reproduction of the armorial bearings, insignia, orders of chivalry, decorations or flags of any country, city, borough, town, place, society, body corporate, institution or person appears on a design, the Registrar General, before entering a claim for design copyright in respect thereof in the Deposit List, shall, if he so requires, be furnished with a consent to the use of such portrait or reproduction from such official or other person as appears to the Registrar General to be entitled to give consent, and in default of such consent he may refuse to enter the claim for design copyright in the Deposit List.

66. Where the name or portrait of a living person appears on a design, the Registrar General shall be furnished, if he so requires, with consent from such person before entering a claim for design copyright in respect thereof in the Deposit List. In the case of a person recently dead the Registrar General may call for consent from his personal representative before entering in the Deposit List a claim for design copyright in a design on which the name or portrait of the deceased person appears.

Representations of living person or person recently dead.

Convention Claims

67. (1) A claim for design copyright made under section 65 shall contain a declaration that the application for protection in a convention country upon which the applicant relies is the first application made in a convention country in respect of the design whether by the applicant or by any person of whom he claims to be the personal representative or assignee, and shall specify the convention country in which such foreign application was made, or is to be deemed under section 65(4) to have been made, the official date thereof and the number thereof.

Claims based on applications in convention country.

(2) In addition to the representations or specimens deposited with every convention claim for design copyright, there shall be deposited with the claim or within three months thereafter, a copy of the representation of the design filed or deposited in respect of the first application for protection in a convention country, duly certified by the official chief or head of the appropriate office of the convention country or otherwise verified to the satisfaction of the Registrar General.

Certificate of Deposit

68. The certificate of deposit of a claim for design copyright shall be in the Form C set out in Part II of the Second Schedule to these Rules and may be modified as directed by the Registrar General.

Certificate of deposit, Form C, Second Schedule.

Extension of Period of Design Copyright

69. An application for extension of the period of design copyright for a further period of five years shall be made on Form No. 14.

Extension, Form 14.

Reminder. 70. At any time not less than one month before the date when any fee payable for an extension of the period of design copyright will become due in respect of any design, the Registrar General shall send to the proprietor at his address for a service a notice reminding him of the date when such fee will become due and of the consequences of non-payment thereof.

Enlargement of time. 71. A request for an enlargement of time for payment of any fee payable for an extension of the period of design copyright shall be made on Form No. 15.

Form 15.
