

If you are claiming relief from Real Property Tax for any given year, the declared incomes of owner and spouse must be that of the previous year.

The penalty for making a false declaration for the purpose of obtaining relief from Real Property Tax may be a fine of three thousand dollars or a term of imprisonment of three months or both such fine and imprisonment.

If you are still not certain how to complete your APPLICATION AND DECLARATION for relief from Real Property Tax, you may request the assistance of an officer of the Real Property Tax Section who will be pleased to assist you without charge.

If possible, you should bring your APPLICATION AND DECLARATION along with your ASSESSMENT/DEMAND NOTE to the Real Property Tax Office which is in Curry House located in the North East Corner of the Royal Victoria Gardens immediately West of Zion Baptist Church on Shirley Street.
