“prescribed form” means the form prescribed in any such letter;

Schedule.

“specified instrument” means any instrument specified in the Schedule to these Regulations.

Certain duties may be compounded.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Stamp Act, or any other Act relating to stamp duties, any specified instrument shall be deemed stamped in accordance with the provisions of that Act if the duty payable thereon is paid or compounded and the instrument is certified as provided in these Regulations.

4. (1) The Treasurer may by writing appoint authorized agents to receive on his behalf duty payable on specified instruments.

- (2) Each letter of appointment shall state —
 - (a) the specified instruments in respect of which the agent is authorized to collect duty;
 - (b) whether such agent is authorized to certify specified instruments as provided in regulation 5 of these Regulations;
 - (c) the accounting period, the first of which periods shall commence from the date of the letter of appointment;
 - (d) the form in which the authorized agent shall, at the end of each accounting period, give particulars of the specified instruments in respect of which he has received stamp duty.

5. (1) No specified instrument shall be deemed stamped in accordance with the Stamp Act unless it is stamped as provided in that Act or bears the certificate prescribed by this regulation.

(2) An agent authorized to certify specified instruments shall, upon receiving the duty payable thereon, forthwith certify upon the face or upon the back of such instrument the amount paid and the date of payment.

Certificates on specified instruments.

(3) Where stamp duty is paid on a specified instrument to an authorized agent not authorized to certify the specified instrument as provided in paragraph (2) of this regulation, such instrument must be certified by the Treasurer or some person specially deputed by him for the purpose.

6. Within two days from the expiration of an accounting period, each authorized agent shall pay into the Treasury all stamp duties received by him during the accounting period in respect of specified instruments and shall furnish a return in the prescribed form.

Payments and returns made by authorized agent.

7. The Treasurer may require any person before being appointed an authorized agent to give financial guarantees for the proper discharge of his duties under these Regulations.

Guarantees by authorized agent.

8. (1) In addition to the particulars in the prescribed form, an authorized agent shall furnish such further information as the Treasurer may require concerning transactions with regard to instruments whereon the duty payable is compounded under these Regulations.

Supervision of authorized agent by Treasurer.

(2) The Treasurer or any person designated by him may direct the production of and may inspect all documents and accounts in the possession of an authorized agent relating to such transactions.
