The principal Act is amended by the insertion, immediately after section 138 of the following new sections 138A to 138D —

“138A. Exercise of powers on behalf of domestic regulatory authorities.

- (1) At the request of a domestic regulatory authority, the Commission may, where it considers appropriate, exercise its powers under securities laws for the purposes of assisting the performance by the domestic regulatory authority of its regulatory functions.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection 138(1), the Commission may provide information that it has acquired in the course of its duties or in the exercise of its functions under securities laws to any other domestic regulatory authority where the commission considers such information may be relevant to the functions of such other domestic regulatory authority or as a necessary part of a framework for consolidated supervision, oversight or regulation of the financial services sector.

138B. Assistance to Foreign Regulatory Authorities.

- (1) The Commission may provide the assistance referred to in section 138C to an overseas regulatory authority

if the Commission is satisfied that all of the following conditions are fulfilled —

- (a) the assistance is intended to enable the overseas regulatory authority, or any designated third party, to carry out the supervision, investigation or enforcement to which the request relates;
 - (b) the overseas regulatory authority has given a written undertaking that any material obtained pursuant to its request shall not be used for any purpose other than a purpose that is specified at the time of the request or thereafter and is approved by the Commission;
 - (c) the overseas regulatory authority has given a written undertaking not to disclose to a third party, other than a designated third party of the foreign jurisdiction in accordance with paragraph (d), any material received pursuant to the request;
 - (d) the overseas regulatory authority has given a written undertaking to obtain the prior consent of the Commission before disclosing to a designated third party any material received pursuant to the request, and to make such disclosure only in accordance with such conditions as may be imposed by the Commission;
 - (e) the material requested is of sufficient importance to the carrying out of the supervision, investigation or enforcement to which the request relates and cannot reasonably be obtained by any other means;
 - (f) the matter to which the request relates is of sufficient gravity; and
 - (g) the rendering of assistance will not be contrary to the public interest of The Bahamas or the interest of the investing public.
- (2) In deciding whether to grant a request for assistance referred to in section 138C from an overseas regulatory authority, the Commission may also have regard to the following —
- (a) whether the act or omission that is alleged to constitute the contravention of the law or regulatory requirement to which the request relates would, if it had occurred in

The Bahamas, have constituted a breach of securities laws;

- (b) whether the overseas regulatory authority has given or is willing to give an undertaking to the Commission to comply with a future request by the Commission to the overseas regulatory authority for similar assistance;
 - (c) whether the overseas regulatory authority has given or is willing to give an undertaking to the Commission to contribute towards the costs of providing the assistance that the overseas regulatory authority has requested.
- (3) where an overseas regulatory authority fails to comply with a requirement of the Commission under subsection (1) or (2), the Commission may refuse to provide the assistance sought.

138C. Assistance that may be rendered.

- (1) Notwithstanding subsection 138(1), the provisions of any prescribed written law or any requirement imposed thereunder, or any rule of law, the Commission may, in relation to a request by an overseas regulatory authority for assistance —
- (a) transmit to the overseas regulatory authority any material in the possession of the Commission that is requested by the authority;
 - (b) order any person to furnish to the Commission any material that is requested by the overseas regulatory authority, that the Commission may then transmit to that authority;
 - (c) order any person to give the Commission assistance in connection with a request made by an overseas regulatory authority; or
 - (d) order any person to make an oral statement to the Commission on any information requested by the overseas regulatory authority, record such statement, and transmit the recorded statement to the authority.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the material which the Commission may order to be furnished under subsection (1) includes —
- (a) auditing information including, but not limited to, audit working papers, communications, and other information relating to the audit or review of financial statements;

- (b) subscriber records held or maintained by telephone service providers located in The Bahamas that include the identity of subscribers (name and address), payment details and incoming and outgoing communications with date, time, duration and identification of phone numbers from which communications are made or received, and such other details as prescribed; and
 - (c) subscriber records held or maintained by internet service providers or other electronic communication providers located in The Bahamas that include the identity of subscribers (name and address), payment details, length of service, type of service utilized, network addresses, session times, dates and durations, and such other details as prescribed.
- (3) An order under subsection (1)(b), (c) or (d) shall have effect notwithstanding any obligations as to secrecy or other restrictions upon the disclosure of information imposed by any prescribed written law or any requirement imposed thereunder, any rule of law, any contract or any rule of professional conduct.
 - (4) A person shall not be required under this section to disclose information or to produce a document which the person would be entitled to refuse to disclose or to produce on the grounds of legal professional privilege in court proceedings.
 - (5) For the purposes of this section, any information or other matter comes to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to the legal adviser —
 - (a) by, or by a representative of, a client of the adviser in connection with the giving by the adviser of legal advice to the client;
 - (b) by, or by a representative of, a person seeking legal advice from the adviser; or
 - (c) by any person —
 - (i) in contemplation of, or in connection with, legal proceedings; and
 - (ii) for the purpose of those proceedings.
 - (6) No information or other matter shall be treated as coming to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given with a view to furthering any criminal purpose.

- (7) Where the person in possession of any document required to be produced under this Part claims a lien on the document —
- (a) the requirement to produce the document shall not be affected by the lien;
 - (b) no fees shall be payable for or in respect of the production; and
 - (c) the production shall be without prejudice to the lien.

138D. Interpretation.

For the purposes of section 138 A to 138C, unless the context otherwise requires —

“designated third party” in relation to a foreign jurisdiction, means —

- (a) any person or body responsible for supervising the overseas regulatory authority in question;
- (b) any authority of the foreign jurisdiction responsible for carrying out the supervision, investigation or enforcement in question; or
