

“examination” means an examination deemed by the Bar Council to be necessary for call to the Bar.

3. A candidate may be exempted from examination in such subjects as the Bar Council may in its discretion permit upon being satisfied by a candidate that he has passed examinations in subjects of equivalent content administered by a University or professional body which is recognized by the Bar Council.

Bar Council may exempt candidate.

4. An application for exemption by the Bar Council under regulation 3 shall —

Application for exemption.

- (a) be made in writing to the Secretary;
- (b) be supported by evidence of academic achievement required under regulation 5,

and may be made either at or after the time of making an application for entry into service under articles.

5. Evidence of academic achievement necessary to satisfy the Bar Council shall include —

Evidence of academic achievement.

- (a) certified copies of transcripts of studies and examination results;
- (b) certified copies of the relevant syllabus; and
- (c) such other information as the Bar Council may deem necessary.

THE BAR ARTICLES REGULATIONS

SI 71/1979

(SECTION 35)

[Commencement 1st November, 1979]

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Bar Articles Regulations.

Citation.

2. In these Regulations —

Interpretation.

“candidate” means a person seeking admission to service under articles;

“Secretary” means the member of the Bar Council discharging the Council’s secretarial functions.

3. A counsel and attorney shall not admit a person to service under articles without first obtaining the approval in writing of the Council.

Prerequisite of Council’s approval.

Application for approval

4. An application for approval of the Council under regulation 3 shall —

- (a) be made in writing to the Secretary;
- (b) contain such biographical data of the candidate as the Council may deem sufficient;
- (c) be supported by evidence of the qualifications required under regulation 5; and
- (d) be accompanied by draft articles of service.

Qualifications

5. The minimum qualifications of a candidate shall be —

- (a) at least five passes, including one in English Language, at Ordinary Level in the Examination for the General Certificate of Education of a recognized examining board and two passes at Advanced Level in the same Examination in subjects listed in the Schedule; or
- (b) qualifications deemed by the Council to be equivalent to those mentioned in paragraph (a).

Registration of articles

6. (1) Articles shall within thirty (30) days of their being entered into, be registered with the Council. Registration shall be effected by lodging with the Secretary a copy thereof certified as a correct copy by the parties to such Articles.

(2) Articles shall not be accepted for registration unless stamped according to law.

SCHEDULE

ADVANCED LEVEL SUBJECTS

Ancient History

British Government and Political System

Economics

English Literature

Geography

History (British Economic & Social)

Latin

Logic