

CHAPTER 105

CRIMINAL JUSTICE INTERNATIONAL CO-OPERATION

CRIMINAL JUSTICE (INTERNATIONAL CO-OPERATION) (ENFORCEMENT OF OVERSEAS FORFEITURE ORDERS) ORDER, 2002
(SECTION 9)

SI 61/2002
SI 9/2004
SI 76/2004

[Commencement 29th April, 2002]

1. This Order may be cited as the Criminal Justice (International Co-operation) (Enforcement of Overseas Forfeiture Orders) Order, 2002. Citation.

2. (1) In this Order — Interpretation.

“appropriate authority of a designated country” means —

(a) the authority specified opposite that country in the Second Schedule; or Second Schedule.

(b) where no authority is so specified, the authority approved for the purposes of this Order under paragraph 13;

“a court of a designated country” includes a court of any state of a designated country;

“designated country” means a country designated under paragraph 4;

“the Act” means the Criminal Justice (International Co-operation) Act; Ch. 105.

“police officer” includes a customs officer employed in the Customs Department;

“property” includes money and all other property real or personal, heritable or moveable, including things in action and other intangible or incorporeal property.

(2) This Order applies to property whether it is situated in The Bahamas or elsewhere.

(3) Property is held by any person if he holds any interest in it.

(4) Proceedings are instituted in a designated country when —

- (a) under the law of the designated country concerned one of the steps specified in relation to that country in the right hand column of the First Schedule has been taken there in respect of an alleged drug trafficking offence or an offence under the Proceeds of Crime Act; or
- (b) an application has been made to a court in a designated country for an external forfeiture order; and where the application of this subparagraph would result in there being more than one time for the institution of proceedings, they shall be taken to have been instituted at the earliest of those times.

- (5) Proceedings are concluded —
 - (a) when (disregarding any power of a court to grant leave to appeal out of time) there is no further possibility of a forfeiture order being made in the proceedings;
 - (b) on the satisfaction of a forfeiture order made in the proceedings (whether by the recovery of all property liable to be recovered, or otherwise).

(6) An order is subject to appeal until (disregarding any power of a court to grant leave to appeal out of time) there is no further possibility of an appeal on which the order could be varied or set aside.

3. (1) An order made by a court in a designated country for the forfeiture and destruction or forfeiture and other disposal, of anything in respect of which a drug trafficking offence or an offence relating to the proceeds of drug trafficking has been committed or any offence if committed in the designated country would constitute an offence under the Proceeds of Crime Act or anything which was used in connection with the commission of such an offence is referred to in this Order as an “external forfeiture order”.

(2) In subparagraph (1), the reference to an order includes any order, decree, direction or judgment, or any part thereof, however described.

(3) A person against whom an external forfeiture order has been made, or a person against whom proceedings which may result in an external forfeiture

forfeiture orders

order being made have been, or are to be, instituted in a court in a designated country, is referred to as “the defendant”.

4. Each of the countries and territories specified in the Second Schedule is hereby designated for the purposes of section 9 of the Act.

Designation of countries and territories.
Second Schedule.
Restraint Orders.

5. (1) The Supreme Court may in accordance with this section by an order (referred to in this Order as a “restraint order”) prohibit any person, subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be specified in the Order, from dealing with any property liable to forfeiture, that is to say, any property in respect of which an external forfeiture order has been made or in respect of which such an order could be made in the proceedings referred to in subparagraph (2) and (3).

(2) A restraint order may be made where —

- (a) proceedings have been instituted against the defendant in a designated country;
- (b) the proceedings have not been concluded; and
- (c) either an external forfeiture order has been made in the proceedings or it appears to the Supreme Court that there are reasonable grounds for believing that such an order may be made in them.

(3) A restraint order may also be made where —

- (a) it appears to the Supreme Court that proceedings are to be instituted against the defendant in a designated country; and
- (b) it appears to the Court that there are reasonable grounds for believing that an external forfeiture order may be made in them.

(4) Where the Court has made an order under subparagraph (1) by virtue of subparagraph (3), the Court shall discharge the order if the proposed proceedings are instituted within such time as the Court considers reasonable.

(5) A restraint order —

- (a) may be made only on an application by or on behalf of the government of a designated country or, in a case where an external forfeiture order has been registered under paragraph 10, by the Attorney General;

- (b) may be made on an ex parte application to a Judge in Chambers; and
- (c) notwithstanding anything in rules of court, may provide for service on, or the provision of notice to, persons affected by the order in such manner as the Supreme Court may direct.

(6) A restraint order —

- (a) may be discharged or varied in relation to any property; and
- (b) shall be discharged when the proceedings in relation to which the order was made are concluded.

(7) An application for the discharge or variation of a restraint order may be made by any person affected by it.

(8) Where the Supreme Court has made a restraint order, the Court may at any time appoint a receiver —

- (a) to take possession of any property specified in the restraint order; and
- (b) in accordance with the Court's directions, to manage or otherwise deal with any property in respect of which he is appointed, subject to such exceptions and conditions as may be specified by the Court, and may require any person having possession of property in respect of which a receiver is appointed under this section to give possession of it to the receiver.

(9) For the purpose of this section, dealing with property held by any person includes (without prejudice to the generality of the expression) removing the property from The Bahamas.

(10) Where a restraint order has been made, a police officer may for the purpose of preventing any property specified in the restraint order being removed from The Bahamas, seize the property.

(11) Property seized under subparagraph (10) shall be dealt with in accordance with the directions of the Court which made the order.

Application for restraint orders.

6. An application under paragraph 5(5) shall be supported by an affidavit which shall —

- (a) state, where applicable, the grounds for believing that an external forfeiture order may be made in the proceedings instituted or to be instituted in the designated country concerned;

- (b) to the best of the deponent's ability, give particulars of the property in respect of which the order is sought and specify the person or persons holding such property;
- (c) in a case to which paragraph 5(3) applies, indicate when it is intended that proceedings should be instituted in the designated country concerned;

and the affidavit may, unless the Court otherwise directs, contain statements of information or belief with the sources and grounds thereof.

7. (1) Where an external forfeiture order has been registered in a Supreme Court under paragraph 10, the Supreme Court may, on the application of the Attorney-General, order the forfeiture of the property specified in the external forfeiture order.

Disposal of forfeited property.

(2) The proceeds of any property forfeited under subparagraph (1) shall be paid into the Confiscated Assets Fund.

(3) The court shall not in respect of any property exercise the powers conferred by subparagraphs (1) and (2) unless a reasonable opportunity has been given for persons holding any interest in the property to make representations to the court.

8. (1) This paragraph applies to the power conferred on the Supreme Court by paragraph 5 or on a receiver appointed under paragraph 5.

Exercise of powers by Supreme Court or receiver.

(2) The powers shall be exercised with a view to recovering property which is liable to be recovered under an external forfeiture order registered in the Supreme Court under paragraph 10 or, as the case may be, with a view to recovering property which may become liable to be recovered under any external forfeiture order which may be made in the defendant's case.

9. (1) Where a receiver appointed under paragraph 5 takes action —

Receivers supplementary provisions.

- (a) in relation to property which is not liable to recovery under an external forfeiture order, being action which he would be entitled to take if it were such property;

- (b) believing, and having reasonable grounds for believing, that he is entitled to take that action in relation to that property, he shall not be liable to any person in respect of any loss or damage resulting from his action except in so far as the loss or damage is caused by his negligence.

(2) Any amount due in respect of the remuneration and expenses of a receiver so appointed shall be paid by the person on whose application the receiver was appointed.

Registration of external forfeiture orders.

10. (1) On an application made by or on behalf of the government of a designated country, the Supreme Court may register an external forfeiture order made there if —

SI 9/2004

- (a) it is satisfied that at the time of registration the order is in force and not subject to appeal;
- (b) it is satisfied, where the person against whom the order is made did not appear in the proceedings, that he received notice of the proceedings in sufficient time to enable him to defend them; and
- (c) it is of the opinion that enforcing the order in The Bahamas would not be contrary to the interests of justice.

(2) In subsection (1) “appeal” includes —

- (a) any proceedings by way of discharging or setting aside a judgment; and
- (b) an application for a new trial or a stay of execution.

(3) The Supreme Court shall cancel the registration of an external forfeiture order if it appears to the court that the order has been satisfied by the forfeiture of the property liable to be recovered under the external forfeiture order or by any other means.

Proof of orders and judgement of court in a designated country.

11. (1) For the purposes of this Order —

- (a) any order made or judgment given by a court in a designated country purporting to bear the seal of that court, or to be signed by any person in his capacity as a judge, magistrate or officer of the court, shall be deemed without further proof to have been duly sealed or, as the case may be, to have been signed by that person; and

(b) a document, duly authenticated, which purports to be a copy of any order made or judgment given by a court in a designated country shall be deemed without further proof to be a true copy.

(2) A document purporting to be a copy of any order made or judgment given by a court in a designated country is duly authenticated for the purposes of subparagraph (1)(b) if it purports to be certified by any person in his capacity as a judge, magistrate or officer of the court in question or by or on behalf of the appropriate authority of the designated country.

12. (1) For the purposes of this Order, a certificate purporting to be issued by or on behalf of the appropriate authority of a designated country stating —

Evidence in relation to proceedings and orders in a designated country.

- (a) that proceedings have been instituted and have not been concluded, or that proceedings are to be instituted, there;
- (b) that an external forfeiture order is in force and is not subject to appeal;
- (c) that property recoverable in the designated country under an external forfeiture order remains un-recovered there;
- (d) that any person has been notified of any proceedings in accordance with the law of the designated country; or
- (e) that an order (however described) made by a court of the designated country for the forfeiture and destruction or the forfeiture and other disposal of anything in respect of which a drug trafficking offence or an offence under the Proceeds of Crime Act, has been committed or which was used in connection with the commission of such an offence, shall, in any proceedings in the Supreme Court or, as the case may be, a magistrate's court, be admissible as evidence of the facts so stated.

(2) In any such proceedings a statement contained in a document, duly authenticated, which purports to have been received in evidence or to be a copy of a document so received, or to set out or summarise evidence given in proceedings in a court in a designated country, shall be admissible as evidence of any fact stated therein.

(3) A document is duly authenticated for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2) if it purports to be certified by any person in his capacity as judge, magistrate or officer of the court in the designated country, or by or on behalf of the appropriate authority of the designated country, to have been received in evidence or to be a copy of a document so received, or, as the case may be, to be the original document containing or summarizing the evidence or a true copy of that document.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prejudice the admission of any evidence, whether contained in any document or otherwise, which is admissible apart from this paragraph.

Certificate of appropriate authority.
Second Schedule.

13. Where in relation to any designated country no authority is specified in the Second Schedule, a certificate made by the Governor-General to the effect that the authority specified therein is the appropriate authority for the purposes of this Order shall be sufficient evidence of that fact.

Representation of government of a designated country.

14. A request for assistance sent to the Attorney-General by the appropriate authority of a designated country shall, unless the contrary is shown, be deemed to constitute the authority of the government of that country for the Attorney-General to act on its behalf in any proceedings in the Supreme Court under paragraph 10 or any other provision of this Order.
