1. (1) The Council shall appoint five persons, two of whom shall be from among the members of the Council, to constitute a Disciplinary Committee for the purposes of an inquiry into the conduct of a member under this Act.

(2) One of the members shall be appointed by the Council to be chairperson of the Committee.

(3) The chairperson of the Council shall not be a member of the Disciplinary Committee.

2. (1) The Council shall cause a statement to be prepared setting out the charges to be investigated by the Disciplinary Committee and the Secretary to the Council shall submit a copy of the statement to each member of the Disciplinary Committee and to the person whose conduct is the subject of the inquiry.

(2) Where the inquiry is to be held in consequence of a petition or complaint alleging misconduct by any person, the Secretary to the Council shall, in addition, transmit a copy of that petition or complaint to that person and to each of the members of the Disciplinary Committee.

3. (1) The Secretary to the Council shall give notice of the first date fixed for the inquiry to the person whose conduct is the subject of the inquiry,

(2) Each notice shall be sent to the last known address of the person and shall be delivered by hand or sent by registered mail, at least fourteen days before the date fixed for the inquiry.

(3) Where a person to whom a notice has been given, without reasonable cause fails to appear in person or is not represented by counsel, the inquiry may be held by the Disciplinary Committee in the absence of that person.

4. (1) If the Council is of the opinion that the evidence of a person or the production of a document by a person is necessary to enable a matter to be investigated by the Disciplinary Committee, the Council shall direct the Secretary to the Council to require that person to attend or produce the document at a time and place specified in a notice which shall be addressed to and delivered at the last known place of residence of that person by hand or registered mail.

(2) The Secretary to the Council is the secretary to the Disciplinary Committee and shall sign every notice issued for the purpose of a disciplinary proceeding.

(3) The Disciplinary Committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to persons who are required to give evidence before the Disciplinary Committee, and a person who refuses to be sworn or affirmed commits an offence.

(4) A person whose conduct is the subject of investigation at an inquiry or who is in any way concerned or implicated in the inquiry may be represented by counsel at the inquiry.

(5) The Council may authorise any legal practitioner to assist the Disciplinary Committee in the leading and taking of evidence.

(6) An inquiry held by the Disciplinary Committee shall be held in camera unless the Council otherwise determines.

(7) A question before a Disciplinary Committee shall be determined by the decision of the majority of the members of the Disciplinary Committee present and voting at the meeting.

(8) Upon the conclusion of an inquiry, the Disciplinary Committee shall prepare and submit a report to the Council on their findings and recommendations on the matters in respect of which the inquiry was held.

SECOND SCHEDULE

(sections 12 and 41(d)(ii))

Meetings of the Institute

1—Annual General Meetings

- (1) The total membership of the Institute constitutes the General Assembly of the Institute.
- (2) The Council shall convene an Annual General Meeting of the Institute to
 - (a) elect the President, Vice-President and two other members of the Council;
 - (b) elect two members who are women;
 - (c) approve the annual report of the Council, the audited accounts of the Institute and the auditor's report on the accounts; and
 - (d) determine any other business.
- (3) The Annual General Meeting of the Institute shall be held not later than the 30th of June of each year or on the date appointed by the Council but which date shall not be more than fifteen months from the date of the previous Annual General Meeting.
- (4) The chairperson of the Institute or in the absence of the chairperson, the vice chairperson of the Institute shall preside at each Annual General Meeting of the Institute.
- (5) In the absence of both the chairperson and the vice chairperson of the Institute a member of the Council elected from among the members of the Council present at the meeting shall preside.
- (6) A member who intends to move a motion not related to the ordinary annual business of the Institute may do so when,
 - (a) notice in writing of the proposed motion is given to and received by the Secretary to the Council not later than twenty-one days before the date of the Annual General Meeting,
 - (b) not less than ten members entitled to vote at the Annual General Meeting have given notice in writing to the Chief Executive Officer of the Institute not later than three weeks before the date of the Annual General Meeting expressing a desire that the proposed motion be brought before the Annual General Meeting, and
 - (c) the proposed motion relates to matters affecting the Institute or the human resource management profession.

2—Extraordinary General Meeting

- (1) The Council may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Institute or on receipt of a written request signed by not less than twenty members of the Institute.
- (2) A request for an Extraordinary General Meeting shall state the purpose of the proposed meeting and be submitted to the Secretary to the Council.

3—Notice of a meeting

(1) The Secretary to the Council shall send to each member of the Institute a notice in writing stating the day, time, place and the agenda for the meeting not less than fourteen days and not more than twenty-one days before an Annual General Meeting or Extraordinary General Meeting of the Institute.

(2) The Secretary to the Council shall send each member of the Institute

(a) a notice of the meeting in writing;

(b) a copy of the annual report of the Council;

(c) a copy of the audited accounts of the Institute with the auditors' report on the accounts; and

(d) particulars of motions to be moved at the meeting in the case of the Annual General Meeting.

(3) The non-receipt of the documents by a member of the Institute shall not invalidate the proceedings of the meeting to which they relate.

4—Quorum at a meeting of the Institute

(1) The quorum for a meeting of the Institute is twenty members.

(2) An Annual General Meeting of the Institute shall be adjourned if twenty members are not present within sixty minutes of the time appointed for the meeting.

(3) Where there is no quorum, the meeting shall stand adjourned for a fortnight to be held at the same hour and place or at a place determined by the Council.

(4) The adjourned meeting shall proceed to do business on the next adjourned date despite the fact that the members present do not form a quorum.

(5) An Extraordinary General Meeting of the Institute shall be adjourned if fifteen members are not present within sixty minutes of the time appointed for the meeting.

5—Adjournment

(1) The person presiding at a meeting of the Institute may adjourn the meeting with the consent of the members present at the meeting.

(2) Business left unfinished at the previous meeting from which the adjournment took place shall take precedence over other business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

6—Resolution

(1) Every resolution and amendment proposed and seconded at a meeting of the Institute shall be put to the meeting by the person presiding and decided by majority of members of the Institute present and voting.

(2) The person presiding shall in the event of an equality of votes have a casting vote.

(3) A declaration by the person presiding as to the decision of the meeting shall be final.

(4) A poll of members of the Institute present at a meeting and entitled to vote may be taken in writing prior to the declaration of a decision but a poll shall not be taken on a resolution or amendment relating to the election of the person presiding, the appointment of scrutineers or the adjournment of a meeting.

(5) Members who have not paid up their annual subscription fee shall not be entitled to vote at a meeting of the Institute.
