- (viii) the Ghana Medical Association;
- (ix) the National House of Chiefs.
- (e) three persons representing NGO's registered in Ghana; and
- (f) eight other citizens at least three of whom shall be women.

(2) The President shall in appointing the persons under paragraph (f) of subsection (1) of this section have regard to the knowledge of the persons and their ability to contribute to the work of the Council.

Section 3—Functions of the Council.

The Council shall have the following functions—

- (a) advise the Government on population programmes and activities which the Council considers necessary for better and effective population management;
- (b) recommend such new population policies or changes to existing policies as it considers necessary for a better and effective population management;
- (c) promote comprehensive population programmes for integration into the national development plans;
- (d) determine targets for population programme performance and the expected impact and recommend strategies for their achievement;
- (e) encourage the full participation of the private sector in attaining the set population targets or goals;
- (f) promote research and studies on population issues;
- (g) co-ordinate and monitor population programmes in the country;
- (h) advise on suitable methods for generating internal and external resources to support the implementation of population policies; and
- (i) perform such other functions as are incidental to the foregoing.

Section 4—Tenure of Office of Members.

(1) A member of the Council other than the Executive Director shall hold office for a period not exceeding three years and shall on the expiration of that period be eligible for re-appointment.

(2) A member of the Council other than the Executive Director may at any time by letter addressed to the President resign his office.

(3) A member who is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Council without sufficient cause shall cease to be a member.

(4) The Chairman or a member of the Council may be removed from office by the President for inability to perform the functions of his office, for stated misbehavior or for any other just cause.

(5) The Chairman of the Council shall notify the President of vacancies that occur in the membership of the Council within three months of occurrence of the vacancy.

Section 5—Allowances for Members.

The Chairman and the other members of the Council shall be paid such allowances as the Council with the approval of the Minister responsible for Finance, may determine.

Section 6—Meetings of the Council.

(1) The Council shall meet for the despatch of business at such times and in such places as the Chairman may determine but shall meet at least twice in a year.

(2) The Chairman shall upon the request of not less than one-third of the membership convene a special meeting of the Council.

(3) The quorum at a meeting of the Council shall consist of at least one-third of the membership and shall include the Executive Director or the person acting in that capacity.

(4) Every meeting of the Council shall be presided over by the Chairman and in his absence by the Vice Chairman and in the absence of both, by a member of the Council elected by the members present from among their number.

(5) Questions before the Council shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting.

(6) The Chairman or the person presiding at a meeting of the Council shall in the event of equality of votes have a second or casting vote.

(7) The Council may co-opt any person to attend any of its meetings but no co-opted person is entitled to vote at the meeting.

(8) The validity of the proceedings of the Council shall not be affected by a vacancy among its members or by a defect in the appointment or qualification of a member.

(9) Except as otherwise expressly provided for under this Act, the Council shall determine and regulate the procedure for its meetings.

Section 7—Committees of the Council.

The Council may for the discharge of its functions appoint committees including technical committees of the Council comprising members of the Council or non-members or both and may assign to any such committee such functions of the Council as it may determine.

Section 8—Function of Regional Co-ordinating Office and District Assembly.

The office of each Regional Co-ordinating Council and of each District Assembly shall perform such function of the Council in the region or district as the Council may assign to them.

PART II—MANAGEMENT AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 9—Secretariat of the Council.

(1) There shall be a National Population Council Secretariat referred to in this Act as the "Secretariat" which shall consist of the staff and employees of the Council and shall be headed by the Executive Director.

(2) The Secretariat shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be responsible for giving effect to the decisions of the Council.

Section 10—Executive Director and his Functions.

(1) There shall be appointed by the President in accordance with the advice of the Council given in consultation with the Public Services Commission an Executive Director of the Council who shall be the chief executive of the Council.

(2) The Executive Director shall hold office on such terms and conditions as shall be specified in his letter of appointment.
