- (e) the fees to be charged for courses of study in the University and for admission to examinations, degrees and diplomas to the University;
- (f) the conditions and institution for award of fellowships, scholarships, studentships, medals and prizes;
- (g) the conduct of examination including the term of office and manner of appointment and the duties of examining bodies, examiners and moderators;
- (h) the conditions of residence of the students of the University;
- (i) the special arrangements, if any, which may be made for the residence and teaching of women students and the specifying of special courses of studies for them;
- (j) the establishment of centres of studies, boards of studies, specialised laboratories and other committees;
- (k) the creation, composition and functions of any other body which is considered necessary for improving the academic life of the University;
- (l) the setting up of machinery for redressal of grievances of employees and students; and

(m) any other matter which by this Act or Statutes, is to be, or may be, specified in the Ordinances.

39. Ordinances how made.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in this section, Ordinances shall be made by the Executive Council.

(2) All Ordinances made by the Executive Council shall have effect from such date as it may direct, but every Ordinance so made shall be submitted, as soon as may be, to the Governing Body and shall be considered by the Governing Body at its next succeeding meeting.

(3) The Governing Body shall have power by resolution to approve, modify or cancel any such Ordinance and such Ordinance shall from the date of such resolution stand modified accordingly or cancelled, as the case may be.

CHAPTER VII

TRIBUNAL OF ARBITRATION

40. Tribunal of Arbitration for employees.—(1) Every employee of the University shall be appointed under a written contract, which shall be retained by the University and a copy of the same shall be given to the employee concerned.

(2) Any dispute arising out of the contract between the University and any employee shall, at the request of the employee, be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration consisting of one member appointed by the Executive Council, one member nominated by the employee concerned and chaired by an umpire appointed by the Governing Body.

(3) The decision of the Tribunal of Arbitration shall be final and no suit shall lie in any civil court in respect of the matters decided by the said Tribunal: Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall preclude the employee from availing of the judicial remedies available under articles 32 and 226 of the Constitution.

(4) Every request made by the employee under sub-section (2) shall be deemed to be a submission to arbitration upon the terms of this section within the meaning of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (26 of 1996).

(5) The procedure for regulating the work of the Tribunal shall be laid down in the Statutes.

41. Redressal for debarment from examination and disciplinary action against students.—(1) Any student or candidate for an examination whose name has been removed from the rolls of the University by an order of the Vice-Chancellor on the recommendation of the disciplinary committee or examination committee, as the case may be, and who has been debarred from appearing at the examinations of the University for more than one year, may, within ten days of the date of receipt of such order by him, appeal to the Governing Body and the Governing Body may confirm, modify or reverse the decision of the Vice-Chancellor.

(2) Any dispute arising out of any disciplinary action taken by the University against a student shall, at the request of such student, be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration and the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3), (4) and (5) of section 40 shall apply to a reference made under this sub-section.

CHAPTER VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

42. Disputes as to constitution of authorities and bodies.— If any question arises as to whether any person has been duly elected or appointed as, or is entitled to be, a member of any authority or other body of the University, the matter shall be referred to the Central Government, and the decision of that Government thereon shall be final.

43. Power of Central Government to make rules in respect of matters relating to Governing Body.—(1) The Central Government may, after previous publication, make rules to carry out the purposes relating to Governing Body.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the manner of filling vacancies among the members of the Governing Body;
- (b) the disqualifications for being chosen as, and for being a member of the Governing Body;
- (c) the circumstances in which, and the authority by which, members may be removed;
- (d) the meetings of the Governing Body and the procedure for conduct of business;
- (e) the travelling and other allowances payable to members of the Governing Body; and
- (f) the manner in which functions of the Governing Body may be exercised.

44. Acts and proceeding not to be invalidated by vacancies, etc.—No act of the Governing Body or any other body set up under this Act or the Statutes, shall be invalid merely by reason of—

- (a) any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution thereof; or
- (b) any defect in the election, nomination or appointment of a person acting as a member thereof; or
- (c) any irregularity in its procedure not affecting the merits of the case.

45. University to be public authority under Right to Information Act.—The provisions of the Right to Information Act, 2005 (22 of 2005) shall apply to the University, as if it were a public authority defined in clause (h) of section 2 of that Act.

46. Power of Central Government to review work and progress made and to hold enquiries.— (1) The Central Government may, from time to time, appoint one or more persons to review the work and progress of the University, including colleges and institutions administered by it, and hold enquiries thereof and to submit a report thereon in such manner as the Central Government may direct.

(2) Upon receipt of any such report, the Central Government may, after obtaining the views of the Governing Body thereon through the Vice-Chancellor, take such action and issue such directions as it considers necessary in respect of any of the matters dealt with in the report and the University shall be bound to comply with such directions.

47. Protection of action taken in good faith.—No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against any officer or other employee of the University for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances made thereunder.

48. Residuary provisions. — (1) The Governing Body shall have the authority to deal with any matter pertaining to the University and not specifically dealt with in this Act.

(2) The decision of the Governing Body on all such matters shall, subject to revision by the Central Government, be final.

49. Power of Central Government to issue directions.—The University shall carry out such directions as may be issued to it from time to time by the Central Government for the efficient administration of this Act.

50. Power to remove difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions or give such directions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made under this section after the expiry of the period of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament.

51. Laying of rules, Statutes, Ordinances and notifications.— (1) Every rule, Statute or Ordinance made and every notification issued under this Act shall be published in the Official Gazette.

(2) Every rule, Statute or Ordinance made and every notification issued under this Act, shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule, Statute, Ordinance or notification or both Houses agree that the rule, Statute, Ordinance or notification should not be made, the rule, Statute, Ordinance or notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule, Statute, Ordinance or notification.

52. Transitional provisions. — (1) The existing Board of Governors, Finance Committee and other committees functioning in the Raksha Shakti University, Gujarat shall continue to function till such time the University constitutes the authorities or committees under the provisions of this Act.

(2) The existing officers of the Raksha Shakti University, Gujarat such as, Vice-Chancellor, Registrar or Finance Officer, shall continue to function till such time the officers are appointed under the provisions of this Act.

53. Repeal of Gujarat Act 14 of 2009.—(1) The Raksha Shakti University Act, 2009 is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal,—

(a) all appointments made, orders issued, degrees and other academic distinctions conferred, diplomas and certificates awarded, privileges granted, or other things done under the Raksha Shakti University Act, 2009, shall be deemed to have been respectively made, issued, conferred, awarded, granted or done under the corresponding provisions of this Act and, except as otherwise provided by or under this Act or the Statutes, continue in force unless and until they are superseded by any order made under this Act or the Statutes; and

(b) all the proceedings of selection committee or any other authority, if any, for the appointment or promotion of teachers and other employees that took place before the commencement of this Act and all actions of the concerned authorities in respect of the recommendations of such selection committee or authority, if any, where no orders of appointment on the basis thereof were passed before the commencement of this Act shall, notwithstanding that the procedure for selection has been modified by this Act, be deemed to have been valid but further proceedings in connection with such pending selections shall be taken in accordance with the provisions of this Act and be continued from the stage where they stood immediately before such commencement, except if the concerned authorities take a decision to the contrary.
