[20th October, 1932.]

An Act to provide for suppressing the terrorist movement in Bengal.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make special provisions for the purpose of suppressing the terrorist movement in Bengal and to provide for the speedier trial of offences committed in furtherance of or in connection with the said movement;

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained under sub-section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act to the passing of this Act;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Suppression of Terrorist Outrages Act, 1932.

(2) This section, section 2, <sup>2</sup>[Chapters II and III] and the Schedule extend to the whole of <sup>3</sup>[West Bengal]. The <sup>4</sup>[State Government] may, by notification in the <sup>5</sup>[Official Gazette], extend any or all of the provisions of Chapter I to any area in <sup>3</sup>[West Bengal].

Short title, extent and

As regards appeal to the High Court at Calcutta from sentences of Special Magistrates under this Act, see section 3 of the Bengal Suppression of Terrorist Outrages (Supplementary) Act, 1932 (XXIV of 1932), and as regards the exclusion of interference of Courts with proceedings under this Act, see section 5 of the said Act.

(d) "the appropriate Government" means, in relation to any of the matters enumerated in List I in the Seventh Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935, the Central Government, and in relation to any other matter, the State<sup>4</sup> Government.]

26 Geo. V, c. 2.

CHAPTER I

Emergency Powers.

Power to detain and question persons behaving suspiciously.

3. (1) Any <sup>5</sup>[servant of the Government] authorised in this behalf by general or special order of the <sup>6</sup>[State Government] may require any person whom on reasonable grounds he suspects to be acting or about to act in a manner prejudicial to the public safety or peace to give an account of his identity and movements, and may arrest and detain him for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours for the purpose of obtaining and verifying his statements.

(2) An officer making an arrest under this section may in so doing use any means that may be necessary to effect the arrest.

Power to take possession of immovable property.

4. (a) If, in the opinion of the <sup>6</sup>[State Government], it is necessary to utilize any particular land or building for quarters or offices for public servants, or for the accommodation of troops or police or prisoners or

of 1932.]

(Chapter I.—Emergency Powers.—Sections 5, 6.)

persons in custody in places where public lands or buildings are not sufficient for the purpose, the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may by order in writing, require the occupier or other person in charge of the land or building to place it at the <sup>2</sup>[disposal of the State Government] at such time as may be specified in the order, together with the whole or any part specified in the order of any fixtures, fittings, furniture or other things for the time being in the building; and the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may utilize such land, building, fixtures, fittings, furniture or other things in such manner as it may consider expedient:

Provided that reasonable notice and reasonable facilities for withdrawal shall be given to persons occupying any such building before possession is taken under this section:

Provided also that the land or building—

- (a) shall not be utilized as to wound the religious feelings of the owner or of the persons who were in occupation when possession was taken; and
- (b) shall not, as far as practicable, so utilized as to interfere with access to any place of worship situated in or contiguous to the land or building.

(2) In this section "building" includes any portion or portions of a building whether separately occupied or not, but does not include any structure set apart for public worship.

5. If, in the opinion of the District Magistrate, it is necessary to utilize any product, article or thing, or any class of product, article or thing, in furtherance of the purposes of this Act, the District Magistrate may, by order in writing, require any owner or person in charge of such product, article or thing to place it at the <sup>2</sup>[disposal of the State Government] at such time and place as may be specified in the order; and the District Magistrate may utilize it in such manner as he may consider expedient.

Power to take possession of movable property.

6. The District Magistrate may, by order in writing, prohibit or limit, in such way as he may think expedient for the purposes of this Act, access to any building or place in the possession or under the control <sup>3</sup>[of the Central or the State Government] or of any railway administration or local authority, or to any building or place in the occupation, whether permanent or otherwise, of <sup>4</sup>[Government's] Naval, Military or Air forces or of any police force, or to any place in the vicinity of any such building or place.

Power to prohibit or limit access to certain places.

<sup>2</sup>The words "disposal of the Provincial Government" were originally substituted for the words "disposal of Government" by para. 3 and Sch. IV to the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, and thereafter the word "State" was substituted for the word "Provincial" by para. 4(1) of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

<sup>3</sup>The words "of the Central or the Provincial Government" in sections 6 and 11 were originally substituted for the words "of Government" by para. 3 and Sch. IV to the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937, and thereafter the word "State" was substituted for the word "Provincial" by para. 4(1) of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

<sup>4</sup>This word was substituted for the words "His Majesty's" by para. 4(1) of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

(Chapter I.—Emergency Powers.—Sections 7-10.)

Power to prohibit or regulate traffic.

7. The District Magistrate may, by order in writing, prohibit or regulate, in such way as he may think expedient for the purposes of this Act, traffic over any road, pathway, bridge, waterway or ferry.

Power to regulate means of transport.

8. (1) The District Magistrate may, by order in writing, require any person to make, in such form and within such time and to such authority as may be specified in the order, a return of any vehicles or means of transport owned by him or in his possession or under his control.

(2) The District Magistrate, if, in his opinion, it is expedient for the purposes of this Act, may, by order in writing, require any person owning or having in his possession or under his control any vehicle or means of transport to take such order therewith for such period as may be specified in the order.

Compensation.

9. The Collector shall, on the application of any person who has suffered loss by the exercise of the powers conferred by section 4 or section 5 or sub-section (2) of section 8, award to such person such reasonable compensation as he thinks proper.

Powers regarding arms, ammunition, etc.

10. (1) The District Magistrate may, by order in writing published in such manner as he thinks best adapted for informing the persons concerned,—

- (a) prohibit or regulate the purchase, sale or delivery of, or other dealing in, any arms, parts of arms, ammunition or explosive substances; or
- (b) direct that any person owning or having in his possession or under his control any arms, parts of arms, ammunition or explosive substances, shall keep the same in a secure place approved by the District Magistrate or remove them to any place specified in the order.

(2) The District Magistrate may take possession of—

- (a) any arms, ammunition or explosives, or
- (b) any tools, machinery, implements or other material of any kind, likely, in his opinion, to be utilized, whether by the owner or by any other person, for the commission of any scheduled offence, and may make such orders as he may think fit for the custody and disposal thereof.

of 1932.]

(Chapter I.—Emergency Powers.—Sections 11-11B.)

11. The District Magistrate may require any person residing in the district to assist in the restoration and maintenance of law and order and in the protection of property in the possession or under the control <sup>1</sup>[of the Central or the State Government], or of any railway administration or local authority, in such manner and within such limits as the District Magistrate may specify:

Power to require the assistance of any person.

Provided that before passing any order under this section the District Magistrate shall satisfy himself that such order is not of a harassing or humiliating nature or incompatible with the ability or position in life of the person concerned:

Provided also that no female person shall be required to render any assistance.

<sup>2</sup>11A. (1) If the District Magistrate is of opinion that any place is being used for the purposes of an association which encourages or aids persons to commit acts of violence or intimidation he may, by order in writing, published in such manner as he thinks best adapted for informing the persons concerned, prohibit the use of such place for such purposes.

Power to prohibit use of places for purposes of certain associations.

(2) In this section and sections 11B and 11C "place" includes a house or building, or part thereof or a tent or vessel.

<sup>3</sup>11B. (1) If, in the opinion of the District Magistrate, any place is being used in contravention of an order published under section 11A, the District Magistrate or any officer authorised in this behalf in writing by the District Magistrate may take possession of such place and evict therefrom any person found therein, and shall forthwith make a report of the taking possession to the <sup>3</sup>[State Government]:

Power to take possession of places used for purposes of certain associations.

Provided that where such place contains any apartment occupied by women or children reasonable time and facilities shall be afforded for their withdrawal:

Provided also that if such place is regularly used for the purposes of worship or religious observances reasonable facilities shall be afforded for the continued use of such place for such purposes.

(2) The District Magistrate or officer taking possession of any place under sub-section (1) shall allow reasonable facilities for the removal of any movable property from the said place by any person who applies for, and, in the opinion of the District Magistrate or such officer, is entitled to possession of such property unless such property is liable to forfeiture or seizure under any law for the time being in force.

(Chapter I.—Emergency Powers.—Sections 11C, 12 and 13.)

(3) Where possession of any place has been taken under sub-section (1), the District Magistrate, on the application of any person who has suffered loss thereby, shall, if such person, in the opinion of the District Magistrate, has not used such place for the purposes of, and has no connection with, any association of the nature described in sub-section (1) of section 11A, award to such person, such reasonable compensation as the District Magistrate thinks proper.

(4) Where possession of any place has been taken under sub-section (1), the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may at any time direct that possession of such place shall be relinquished.

Penalty for entering or remaining upon a place of which possession is taken.

<sup>2</sup>11C. Any person who enters or remains, without the permission of the District Magistrate or of an officer authorised by him in this behalf, upon a place of which possession is taken under section 11B shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

Power to issue search-warrants.

12. The power to issue search-warrants conferred by section 98 of the Code shall be deemed to include a power to issue warrants authorising—

- (a) the search of any place in which any Magistrate mentioned in that section has reason to believe that any scheduled offence or any offence punishable under this Act has been, is being or is about to be committed or that preparation for the commission of any such offence is being made;
- (b) the seizure in or on any place searched under clause (a) of anything which the officer executing the warrant has reason to believe is being used, or is intended to be used, for any purpose mentioned in that clause;

and the provisions of the Code shall, so far as may be, apply to searches made under the authority of any warrant issued and to the disposal of any property seized, under this section.

General power of search.

13. Any authority on which any power is conferred by or under this Chapter may authorise any person to enter and search any place the search of which such authority has reason to believe to be necessary for the purpose of—

- (a) ascertaining whether any order given, direction made, or condition prescribed in the exercise of such power has been duly complied with; or
- (b) generally, giving effect to such power or securing compliance with, or giving effect to, any order given, direction made or condition prescribed in the exercise of such power.

<sup>1</sup>See foot-note 4 on page 203, ante.

<sup>2</sup>See foot-note 2 on page 207, ante.

(Chapter I.—Emergency Powers.—Sections 14-17.)

14. If any person disobeys or neglects to comply with an order made, direction given, or condition prescribed, in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, the authority which made the order, gave the direction or prescribed the condition may take or cause to be taken such action as it thinks necessary to give effect thereto but shall not in any case inflict more harm than is necessary for such purpose.

Power to give effect to orders if disobeyed.

15. (1) Where it appears to the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] that the inhabitants of any area are concerned in the commission of scheduled offences or are in any way assisting persons in committing such offences, the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may, by notification in the <sup>2</sup>[Official Gazette], impose a collective fine on the inhabitants of that area.

Imposition of collective fine on inhabitants of turbulent areas.

(2) The <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may exempt any person or class or section of such inhabitants from liability to pay any portion of such fine:

Provided that such exemption shall not be based upon communal or racial considerations.

(3) The District Magistrate, after such enquiry as he may deem necessary, shall apportion such fine among the inhabitants who are liable collectively to pay it, and such apportionment shall be made according to the District Magistrate's judgment of the respective means of such inhabitants.

(4) The portion of such fine payable by any person may be recovered from him as a fine <sup>3</sup>[or as a public demand] under the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913.

(5) The <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may award compensation out of the proceeds of a fine realised under this section to any person who, in the opinion of the <sup>1</sup>[State Government], has suffered injury to person or property by the unlawful act of the inhabitants of the area.

16. Whoever disobeys or neglects to comply with any order made, direction given, or condition prescribed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter or impedes the lawful exercise of any power referred to in this Chapter, shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

Penalty for disobeying orders under this Chapter.

17. (1) The <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may invest the District Magistrate with the powers of a <sup>1</sup>[State Government] under section 4.

Delegation of powers.

<sup>2</sup>The words within square brackets were substituted for the words "Calcutta Gazette" by para. 4(1) of the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.

<sup>3</sup>The words within square brackets were substituted for the word "recoverable" by s. 2 of the Bengal Suppression of Terrorist Outrages (Amendment) Act, 1932 (Ben. Act XIX of 1932).

Ben. Act III of 1913.

(Chapter I.—Emergency Powers.—Sections 18, 19.)

(2) The <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may invest any Sub-divisional Magistrate, or any police officer not below the rank of Deputy Superintendent or any military officer not below the rank of Captain with any of the powers of a District Magistrate under this Chapter except powers under <sup>2</sup>[section 11A or] sub-section (3) of section 15.

(3) The District Magistrate may, by order in writing, authorise any civil or military officer to exercise in a specified area or in connection with a specified operation or series of operations any of the powers of the District Magistrate under this Chapter or with which the District Magistrate has been invested under sub-section (1).

Power to make rules.

18. (1) The <sup>1</sup>[State Government] * * * may, by notification in the <sup>4</sup>[Official Gazette], make rules—

- (a) to prevent communications with absconders and to secure information of the movements of absconders;
- (b) to prevent attacks on the persons or property of <sup>5</sup>[Government] subjects, or to secure information of such attacks and of designs to make such attacks;
- (c) to secure the safety of <sup>6</sup>[Government] forces and police;
- (d) to regulate the exercise of powers conferred by or under this Chapter;
- (e) to provide for the custody pending production before a Court of prisoners taken in circumstances in which the provisions of the Code cannot be followed without undue inconvenience;
- (f) generally, to carry out the purposes of this Chapter.

(2) In making a rule under this section the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may provide that any contravention thereof shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

jurisdiction.

<sup>6</sup>19. Except as provided in this Chapter, no proceeding or order purporting to be taken or made under this Chapter shall be called in question by any Court, and no civil or criminal proceeding shall be instituted against any person for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Chapter.

20. Nothing contained in this Chapter shall be deemed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law for any act or omission which constitutes an offence punishable under this Chapter.

Operation of other penal laws not barred.

21. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code, any offence punishable under this Chapter shall be cognizable and non-bailable.

Offences under this Chapter to be cognizable and non-bailable.

22. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code, an offence punishable under sections 160, 186, 187, 188, 189, 227, 228, 505, 506, 507 or 508 of the Indian Penal Code, or under section 17 of the Indian Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908, shall be cognizable and non-bailable.

Certain other offences to be cognizable and nonbailable.

Act XLV of 1860. XIV of 1908.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 195 or section 196 of the Code, any Court otherwise competent to take cognizance of an offence punishable under sections 186, 187, 188, 228 or 505 of the Indian Penal Code may take cognizance of such offence upon a police-report being made to it under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 173 of the Code, but shall not proceed with the trial unless it has received a complaint in respect of such offence under section 196, as the case may be, and the absence of such complaint shall be reasonable cause, within the meaning of section 344 of the Code, for postponing the commencement of the trial and for remanding the accused.

23. If this Chapter is extended to the Presidency town of Calcutta, "District Magistrate" shall, for the purposes of this Chapter, mean, in that town, the Commissioner of Police.

District Magistrate in Calcutta.

CHAPTER II

Special Magistrates.

24. Any Presidency Magistrate or Magistrate of the first class who has exercised powers as such for a period of not less than four years may be invested by the [appropriate Government] with the powers of a Special Magistrate under this Act.

Special Magistrate.

25. <sup>1</sup>[(1)] Where, in the opinion of the [appropriate Government], or of the District Magistrate if empowered by the [appropriate Government] in this behalf, there are reasonable grounds for believing that any person has committed a scheduled offence not punishable with death in furtherance of or in connection with the terrorist movement, or an offence punishable under this Act, <sup>1</sup>[or under section 6 of the Bengal Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1930] the <sup>2</sup>[appropriate Government] or District Magistrate, as the case may be, may, by order in writing, direct that such person shall be tried by a Special Magistrate.

Jurisdiction of Special Magistrates.

<sup>1</sup>The words within square brackets were substituted for the words "Local Government" by para. 3 and Sch. IV to the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.

<sup>2</sup>Section 25 was renumbered as sub-section (1) of section 25 and to this section as so renumbered sub-section (2) was added by s. 7 of the Bengal Criminal Law (Arms and Explosives) Act, 1932 (Ben. Act XXI of 1932).

Ben. Act VI
of 1930.

<sup>3</sup>(2) Where, in the opinion of the <sup>2</sup>[appropriate Government], there are reasonable grounds for believing that any person has committed, or attempted or conspired to commit, or abetted the commitment of, any offence under the Indian Arms Act, 1878, for the purpose of making, or assisting any person to make unlawful gain by trafficking in arms or ammunition without a license under the said Act, the <sup>2</sup>[appropriate Government] may, by order in writing, direct that such person shall be tried by a Special Magistrate.

XI of 1878.

Procedure of Special
Magistrates.

26. (1) In the trial of any case under this Act, a Special Magistrate shall follow the procedure prescribed by the Code for the trial of warrant cases by Magistrates:

Provided that the Special Magistrate shall not be bound to adjourn any trial for any purpose unless such adjournment is, in his opinion, necessary in the interests of justice.

(2) In matters not coming within the scope of sub-section (1), the provisions of the Code, so far as they are not inconsistent with this Chapter, shall apply to the proceedings of a Special Magistrate; and for the purposes of the said provisions the Special Magistrate shall be deemed to be a Magistrate of the first class.

Sentences by Special
Magistrates.

27. A Special Magistrate may pass any sentence authorised by law, except a sentence of death or of transportation or imprisonment for a term exceeding seven years.

Appeals.

28. (1) Where a Special Magistrate in any district passes a sentence of transportation for a term not exceeding two years or of imprisonment for a term not exceeding four years, or of fine, an appeal shall lie to the Court of Session.

(2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be presented within thirty days from the date of the sentence.

Retrospective effect of directions under section 25.

29. No direction shall be made under section 25 for the trial of any person by a Special Magistrate, for an offence for which he was being tried at the commencement of this Act before any Court but, save as aforesaid, a direction under the said section may be made in respect of any person accused of a scheduled offence <sup>4</sup>[or of an offence referred to in sub-section (2) of section 25], whether such offence was committed before or after the commencement of this Act.

(Chapter II.—Special Magistrates.—Sections 30-32.)

30. If in any trial under this Chapter it is found that the accused person has committed any offence, whether such offence is or is not a scheduled offence<sup>1</sup> [or an offence<sup>2</sup> referred to in sub-section (2) of section 25], the Special Magistrate may convict such person of such offence and, subject to the provision of section 27, pass any sentence authorised by law for the punishment thereof.

Power to convict for offence proved.

31. A Special Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, order at any stage of a trial that the public generally, or any particular person, shall not have access to, or be or remain in, the room or building used by the Special Magistrate as a Court:

Power to exclude persons or public from precincts of Court.

Provided that where in any case the Public Prosecutor or Advocate-General, as the case may be, certifies in writing to the Special Magistrate that it is expedient in the interests of the public peace or safety or of the peace or safety of any of the witnesses in the trial that the public generally should not have access to, or be or remain in, the room or building used by the Special Magistrate as a Court, the Special Magistrate shall order accordingly.

32. (1) Where any accused in a trial before a Special Magistrate, has, by his voluntary act, rendered himself incapable of appearing before the Magistrate, or resists his production before the Magistrate, or behaves before the Magistrate in a persistently disorderly manner, the Magistrate may, at any stage of the trial, by order in writing made after such inquiry as he may think fit, dispense with the attendance of such accused for such period as he may think fit, and proceed with the trial in the absence of the accused.

Powers of Special Magistrates to deal with refractory accused.

(2) Where a plea is required in answer to a charge from an accused whose attendance has been dispensed with under sub-section (1), such accused shall be deemed not to plead guilty.

(3) An order under sub-section (1) dispensing with the attendance of an accused shall not affect his right of being represented by a pleader at any stage of the trial, or of being present in person if he has become capable of appearing, or appears before the Magistrate and undertakes to behave in an orderly manner.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code, no finding, sentence or order passed in a trial before a Special Magistrate shall be held to be illegal by any Court by reason of any omission or irregularity whatsoever arising from the absence of any or all of the accused whose attendance has been dispensed with under sub-section (1).
