7/2003
S. 3 (b).

- (a) edible oil or edible fat, except oil or fat from animals;
- (b) any oil or fat producing item set out in the Second Schedule; or
- (c) soap made wholly or in part from oil or fat, except liquid or powdered detergent, whether produced locally or imported into the Island.

Second Schedule.

“the Board” means the Coconut Industry Board established under this Act;

PART II. Constitution and Powers of Coconut Industry Board

3.—(1) There shall be established a Coconut Industry Board which shall consist of nine members who shall be appointed and elected in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) and of subsection (3), respectively, of section 4.

Establishment of Board.

(2) The powers of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership thereof.

4.—(1) The Minister shall appoint four members of the Board, one of whom shall be the Chairman, who, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) and of section 7, shall hold office for three years from the date of appointment but shall be eligible for reappointment.

Appointment and election of members of Board.

(2) The Minister may at any time remove any member appointed under subsection (1).

(3) The registered coconut growers shall elect five members of the Board who shall either be themselves registered coconut growers or the attorneys for such registered coconut growers or the managing directors or managers of companies which are registered coconut growers.

(4) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1) and subsection (3) of section 7, every member elected to the Board in accordance with the provisions of subsection (3) shall hold office until election day in the year next but two after the year of his election to the Board.

Election and voting rights.

5.—(1) There shall be an election in each year to fill any vacancy in the number of elected members of the Board.

(2) At any election every registered coconut grower who in the prescribed period in relation to such election produced or is deemed to have produced any coconuts the disposal of which is recorded in the prescribed manner shall be entitled in respect of the first three hundred units or part thereof so recorded to one vote, and in respect of each additional two hundred units or part thereof so recorded to one additional vote, so, however, that no registered coconut grower shall be entitled to more than thirty votes.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)—

- (a) “unit” means one hundred and fifty pounds or such other weight or quantity or number of coconuts as may be prescribed;
- (b) every registered coconut grower who at the time of any election is in possession or control of any land on which coconuts were grown during the prescribed period in relation to such election shall be deemed to have produced such coconuts notwithstanding that he first came into possession or control of the land after the coconuts were produced.

(4) So soon as may be after the holding of any election, the Board shall cause a notice to be published in the Gazette specifying the names of the persons elected to the Board at such election.

S. 3

Grant of leave of absence to members.

6.—(1) The Minister may, on the application of the Chairman or of any other nominated member, grant to such Chairman or nominated member, as the case may be, leave of absence for any period not exceeding six months and may appoint some other person to act as Chairman or as a nominated member, as the case may be, during the period of leave of absence so granted.

(2) Where the Minister appoints any nominated member to act as Chairman under the provisions of subsection (1), he may appoint some other person to act as a nominated member in the place of the nominated member appointed to act as Chairman.

(3) The Board may, on the application of any elected member, grant to such member leave of absence for any period not exceeding six months and may co-opt some other person eligible for election to the Board to act for such elected member during such period.

7.—(1) There shall retire from the Board on election day— Retirement of members.

(a) next after the first election, two elected members;
and

(b) next but one after the first election, two elected members; and

(c) next but two after the first election, one elected member,

and so thereafter in each succeeding triennial period :

Provided that any member retiring under this section shall be eligible for re-election.

(2) Elected members shall retire in the order of their seniority, the member who has served longest since he was last elected to the Board retiring first, and as between members of the same seniority the order of retirement shall be determined by lot.

(3) Any elected member who ceases to be eligible for election to the Board, becomes insane, is adjudicated a bankrupt, by writing under his hand addressed to the Chairman resigns, or is absent without leave from any four consecutive meetings of the Board, shall thereupon vacate his office.

(4) Any nominated member of the Board may by writing under his hand addressed to the Minister through the Chairman resign his office.

Co-option
of members.

8. Where any elected member dies or vacates his office in accordance with the provisions of subsection (3) of section 7, the Board may co-opt a person eligible for election to the Board to fill such vacancy until such time as the member by whose death, insanity, bankruptcy or resignation the vacancy was occasioned would, but for such death, insanity, bankruptcy or resignation, have retired in accordance with the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of section 7.

Incorporation of Board.

9. The Board shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal, and a registered office and may sue and be sued, and may purchase, hold and dispose of land and other property of whatever kind for the purposes of this Act.

Liability of
the Board.

10. No member of the Board shall be personally liable for any act or default of the Board done or omitted to be done in good faith in the course of the operations of the Board.

Meetings and procedure thereat.

11.—(1) The Board shall hold monthly meetings for the transaction of their business, which shall be held at such time and place and on such days as the Board may determine.

(2) The Chairman may at any time call a special meeting of the Board and shall call a special meeting within seven days of a requisition for that purpose addressed to him by any two members of the Board.

(3) The Chairman or acting Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board at which he is present, and in the case of his absence the members present and constituting a quorum shall elect a nominated member to act as Chairman of the meeting.

(4) At any meeting of the Board five members of whom at least one shall be a nominated member shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.

(5) All acts of the Board, and all questions coming or arising before the Board, shall be done and decided by the majority of such members of the Board as are present and vote. In case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

(6) The Board may from time to time make standing orders for the transaction of their business, including the power to appoint any member or committee to whom they may delegate authority to carry out such portions of the duties committed to them as they may from time to time determine.

(7) The Board may from time to time delegate to any of their officers or servants authority to carry out such portions of the duties committed to the Board as the Board may from time to time determine.

12. The Board, at any time, may, subject to the approval of the Minister, authorize the payment out of the funds of the Board of such sum or sums as they may think fit by way of remuneration and allowances to the Chairman and members of the Board.

Remuneration of members of the Board.
31/1987
S. 5.

Appointment of officers and servants.
31/1987
S. 6.

13.—(1) The Board may appoint and employ at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, such officers and servants as it thinks necessary for the proper carrying out of the provisions of this Act :

Provided that—

- (a) no salary in excess of the prescribed rate shall be assigned to any post without the prior approval of the Minister; and
- (b) no appointment shall be made to any post to which a salary in excess of the prescribed rate is assigned without the prior approval of the Minister.

(2) In subsection (1) the “prescribed rate” means a rate of twenty thousand dollars per annum or such higher rate as the Minister may, by order, prescribe.

General powers of the Board.

14.—(1) The Board may—

- (a) buy, sell and trade in coconuts, and coconut products, and such other commodities as the Board with the approval of the Minister may from time to time determine; and export or dispose of coconuts, and coconut products, in such quantity and in such manner and at such price as they consider desirable in the interests of the coconut industry;
- (b) process or manufacture coconut products;
- (c) apply for the allotment of, purchase, or hold, shares in any company having as one or other of its objects the sale of coconuts or the processing or manufacturing of coconut products;
- (d) subject to the approval of the Minister, apply for the allotment of, purchase, or hold, shares in any company, irrespective of the objects of such company;

31/1987
S. 7.

- (e) dispose of the shares held by them in any company;
- (f) borrow or raise money, at any time, in such manner, and for such purposes as they shall deem fit, with or without security, and secure the repayment of any moneys borrowed or raised or owing by them by mortgage, charge, or lien, upon the whole or any part of their property or assets (whether present or future); and by similar mortgage, charge, or lien, secure and guarantee the performance by them of any obligation or liability they may undertake;
- (g) subject to the prior approval of the Minister, institute, conduct, finance and assist research activities and experiments for the elimination or control of any coconut disease and for the development, extension and betterment of the production of coconuts and of coconut products;
- (h) subject to the prior approval of the Minister make grants or loans or supply materials to, or do or procure to be done any work for, or enter into any contracts of guarantee, suretyship or indemnity on behalf of, any person for any purpose which they deem to be in the interests of the coconut industry;
- (i) appoint any person to enter upon and inspect any lands whereon coconuts are growing and any premises used, or which the Board have reasonable cause to think are being used, for the manufacture, handling, storage, purchase or sale of any coconuts or coconut products;
- (j) do such acts, matters and things as may be prescribed;
- (k) apply the whole or any portion of their funds to any purpose which, with the approval of the Minister, they deem to be in the interests of the coconut industry.

(2) In addition to the powers specified in subsection (1) the Board shall have such other powers, whether similar to the powers specified in subsection (1) or not, and shall perform such duties as the Minister may from time to time specify.

Cess on coconut products and substitutes. 42/1995 S. 3.

14A.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Board may impose a cess on coconut products and substitutes manufactured in or imported into Jamaica.

(2) No cess imposed under subsection (1) shall be of any effect unless and until approved by the Minister by order.

No person other than Board to sell or purchase copra in the Island.

15.—(1) No person—

- (a) shall purchase from or sell to any person other than the Board any copra made or produced in the Island;
- (b) other than the Board shall export any copra made or produced in the Island;
- (c) shall use, consume or otherwise deal with any such copra as aforesaid except with the consent of the Board, and subject to such conditions as the Board may determine.

Any person contravening the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of an offence and shall, upon summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding four hundred dollars and in default of payment to imprisonment for any period not exceeding six months.

(2) Any copra dealt with contrary to the provisions of subsection (1), may be seized by the Board and shall be forfeited and disposed of as the Board may direct.

31/1987 S. 8.

Board required to purchase all marketable copra.

16. The Board shall, upon being required so to do by the owner of any marketable copra, purchase such copra at the prescribed price.

17. The Board shall upon being required so to do by a local manufacturer sell copra to such manufacturer at the prescribed prices in such proportions and quantities as may from time to time be prescribed.

Board required to sell copra to manufacturers.

18. [Repealed by Act 31 of 1987.]

PART III. Control of Coconut Industry

31/1987
S. 10.

19. [Repealed by Act 31 of 1987.]

20.—(1) The Board may with the approval of the Minister make regulations generally for the control of the coconut industry and for giving effect to the provisions of this Act, and without prejudice to such general powers may make regulations—

Regulations.
31/1987
