

THE EMERGENCY (LIGHTING CONTROL) ACT

Cap. 110.
Act
42 of 1969.
3rd Sch.

[19th January, 1939.]

1. This Act may be cited as the Emergency (Lighting Control) Act. Short title.

2. On any occasion which the Governor-General may consider to be an occasion of emergency or public danger, and also whenever he may consider it necessary by way of experiment or practice for any such occasion, the Governor-General may make such regulations as he may consider desirable providing, either by express command or by request for co-operation, for the total or partial cessation of lighting in the Island. Power to make Regulations. 42/1969 3rd Sch.

3. Compliance with any such express command or with any such request for co-operation shall exonerate any person from any liability contractual or otherwise for damage resulting from such compliance, provided that such person has taken all other reasonable measures possible to avoid such damage. Exoneration from liability of persons complying with regulations.

4. Any person who refuses or fails to comply with any such express command shall be liable on summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars. Penalty for refusal or failure to comply with mandatory regulations.
