

THE LAW REFORM (PROTECTION AND
ENFORCEMENT OF PUBLIC
RIGHTS) ACT

Act
17 of 1999.

[26th March, 1999.]

1. This Act may be cited as the Law Reform (Protection and Enforcement of Public Rights) Act. Short title.

2.—(1) Notwithstanding any provision in any enactment or any rule of law, a person may, in the public interest and without the consent of the Attorney-General, make an application to the Supreme Court for the protection and enforcement of public rights. Consent of Attorney-General not required in certain cases.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall not be made unless leave of the Supreme Court has been obtained in accordance with rules of court; and the Court shall not grant leave to make such an application unless it considers that the applicant has a sufficient interest in the matter to which the application relates.
