SCHEDULES

THE MARRIAGE ACT

[2nd June, 1897.]

Cap. 237.
Law
48 of 1957.
Acts
42 of 1969,
3rd Sch.,
1 of 1979,
1st Sch.,
7 of 2011
Sch.

1. This Act may be cited as the Marriage Act.

Short title.

2. In this Act—

Interpretation.

“Registrar-General”, “Civil Registrar”, “Marriage Officer” mean respectively Registrar-General of Marriages, Civil Registrar of Marriages and Marriage Officer under this Act;

“General Register Office” means General Register Office for the keeping of registers of marriages solemnized in this Island as appointed by law.

3.—(1) If both the parties to a marriage knowingly and wilfully acquiesce in the solemnization of the marriage ceremony between them—

In what cases
marriage
void.
48/1957
S. 2(a).

(a) by or before a person not being a Marriage Officer; or

(b) otherwise than in the presence of two witnesses besides the Marriage Officer solemnizing or witnessing and registering the marriage, the marriage shall be void.

(2) A marriage solemnized between persons either of whom is under the age of sixteen years shall be void.

48/1957
S. 2(b).

(3) If the parties to any marriage are within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity or affinity according to the law of England from time to time in force, the marriage shall be void.

48/1957
S. 2(b).

Effect of non-observance of the conditions of this Act.

4. Except as aforesaid, and except as in section 37 of this Act provided with respect to marriages under that section, no marriage otherwise lawful which has been actually solemnized shall be declared void on the ground that any of the conditions by this Act directed to be observed have not been duly observed.

Civil Registrars and Marriage Officers.

5. The Minister shall from time to time appoint, and remove at pleasure, such persons as he shall think fit to be Civil Registrars of Marriages, and such ministers of religion as may be entitled to appointment under the provisions of this Act to be called Marriage Officers.

Appointments and removals of, and any resignation or vacation of office by Civil Registrars and Marriage Officers shall be notified in the Gazette, and shall take effect from the date of publication.

Ministers of religion, how far entitled to be Marriage Officers. 48/1957 S. 3.

6. Ministers of religious denominations, whether acting for one congregation or having the local superintendence of several congregations, shall be entitled to be appointed Marriage Officers for the Island, but the Minister may refuse to appoint any such minister if he thinks him unfit.

Civil Registrar to be Marriage Officer ex officio.

7. A Civil Registrar shall be ex officio a Marriage Officer, and shall have a known office to be approved by the Registrar-General, but shall not act as a Marriage Officer otherwise than subject to the provisions of section 28.

When Marriage Officer may refuse to act as such.

8. No minister of religion who is a Marriage Officer shall be required to act as a Marriage Officer with respect to any marriage which is contrary to the rules of the religious denomination to which he belongs.

9. A Civil Registrar shall, subject to the approval of the Minister, appoint by writing under his hand a fit person to act as his deputy in case of his illness or absence.

Deputies to Civil Registrars, their appointments, removal powers and duties.

Such deputy shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Civil Registrar by whom he is appointed, but shall be removable from his office by the Minister.

Such deputy while so acting shall have all the powers and duties and be subject to all the penalties herein declared concerning Civil Registrars.

A Civil Registrar shall be civilly responsible for the acts and omissions of his deputy.

In the event of the incapacity or absence of the deputy the Registrar-General shall, subject to the approval of the Minister, appoint a fit person to act as Civil Registrar until the person thus holding the appointment of Civil Registrar resumes the duties of his office, or until a new appointment to the office of Civil Registrar is duly made.

In case a Civil Registrar dies, or otherwise ceases to hold his office, his deputy shall act as Civil Registrar in his place until the appointment of another Civil Registrar is made by the Minister.

10. All applications by ministers of religion for appointment as Marriage Officers must be made in writing to the Registrar-General.

Applications for appointment as a Marriage Officer.

Every minister of religion acting as such for a congregation, or having the local superintendence of several congregations, who applies to be appointed a Marriage Officer, must state in his application the name or other description of the place of public worship in which he so acts, or of the places of public worship of the congregations over which he has such local superintendence.

Ministers of religion ceasing to act to notify Registrar-General.

11. Every Marriage Officer who is a minister of religion acting for a congregation or having a local superintendence of several congregations shall, if he ceases so to act, or to have such superintendence forthwith notify the fact to the Registrar-General.

It shall be lawful for any Marriage Officer to resign his appointment as such, and such resignation shall be notified in the Gazette, and shall take effect from the date of publication.

Vacation of office of Marriage Officer to be Gazetted.

12. A Marriage Officer when duly appointed shall retain his office unless and until it is notified in the Gazette that he has ceased to be a Marriage Officer.

Temporary absence of Marriage Officer.

13. Any Marriage Officer intending temporary absence from the Island shall notify the Registrar-General of such intention, and shall make such arrangements for the custody of the marriage register books supplied to him as shall be satisfactory to the Registrar-General.

Power to remove Marriage Officer.

14. Upon representation being made to the Minister by the Registrar-General showing to the satisfaction of the Minister that any Marriage Officer has ceased to act for a congregation, or to have the local superintendence of several congregations, or has left the Island without notifying the Registrar-General and making arrangements for the custody of the marriage records in his possession as required by section 13, the Minister may remove such person as a Marriage Officer, and upon notification of such removal being made in the Gazette, the powers and authorities of such person as a Marriage Officer shall absolutely cease and be determined.

15. Whenever any Marriage Officer shall cease to reside in the parish, or shall change his postal address as last recorded on the list of Marriage Officers at the General Register Office, or shall take the active charge or Superintendence of any place or places of worship in respect of which he is not recorded at the General Register Office, he shall forthwith report in writing to the Registrar-General such change of residence, postal address, or ministerial charge, and in default thereof he shall be liable to be removed from the list of Marriage Officers, and his name shall be submitted to the Minister for such removal.

Change of residence, postal address and ministerial charges of Marriage Officers to be reported.

16. Marriage may be solemnized under the authority—
- (a) of a Civil Registrar's certificate or Civil Registrars' certificates;
  - (b) of a Marriage Officer's certificate or Marriage Officers' certificates;
  - (c) of licence from the Minister;
  - (d) of a licence from a Justice, the Clerk of a Resident Magistrate's Court, or any person appointed for the purpose by the Minister, and without any such authority in the cases specially provided for in section 37.

Authority for marriage.

17. In every case of persons residing in Jamaica intending that a marriage shall be solemnized between them under the authority of a Civil Registrar's certificate of notice, each of such persons shall on or about the same date give notice of the intended marriage to the Civil Registrar of the parish in which he or she has resided for a period of not less than fifteen clear days before the giving of such notice, in the form as nearly as may be set forth in Schedule A:

Preliminaries to marriage on Civil Registrar's certificate.

Schedule A.

Provided that when both of such persons reside within the same parish a single notice shall suffice:

MARRIAGE

Provided also that where one of the persons intending marriage is not residing in Jamaica a single notice by the other person shall suffice.

On the receipt of a notice of an intended marriage, the Civil Registrar, being satisfied that the notice is conformable to the requirements of this Act, shall forthwith enter the particulars set forth in the notice in a book to be called the Marriage Notice Book, and shall on the same day put up in a conspicuous and accessible place on the door or outer wall of his office, a public notice of the intended marriage in the form as nearly as may be set forth in Schedule B, and shall keep the same so put up for seven consecutive days thereafter.

Schedule B.

The Marriage Notice Book shall be open at all reasonable times to any person desiring to inspect it.

The Civil Registrar having complied with the requirements of this Act shall, on the expiration of seven clear days after the receipt of the notice of an intended marriage, in the event of no objection to the marriage being in force as hereinafter mentioned, grant upon request to the person who gave the notice, or to any person authorized by the person who gave the notice, a certificate of the due publication thereof, in this Act referred to as the Civil Registrar's certificate, as nearly as may be in one of the forms set forth in Schedule C, and shall therein set forth whether any objection has been offered to such intended marriage.

Schedule C.

Preliminaries to marriage on a Marriage Officer's certificate.

18. In every case of persons residing in Jamaica intending that a marriage shall be solemnized between them under the authority of a Marriage Officer's certificate or certificates of banns, each of such persons shall, on or about the same date, give notice in writing, in the form as nearly as may be set forth in Schedule D, to the minister (being a Marriage Officer) of the congregation to which he or she belongs, or is considered to be attached, or if not belonging or not considered to be attached to any congregation, then to any minister (being Marriage Officer) having the ministerial charge of a place of worship in the parish in which he or she resides :

Provided that when both of such persons belong to the same congregation a single notice shall suffice :

Provided also that where one of the persons intending marriage is not residing in Jamaica a single notice by the other person shall suffice.

On the receipt of a notice of an intended marriage the minister (being a Marriage Officer), being satisfied that the notice is conformable to the requirements of this Act, shall (subject to his right of refusal under section 8), by himself, or some other person by him duly authorized, publish the banns of marriage between the parties named therein, conformably to the notice in the place of public worship in which he ministers.

The publication shall be made in an audible manner some time during public divine service on a Sunday, or in the case of persons professing the Jewish religion, Seventh-Day Adventists and others of like religious persuasion, on a Saturday, in the face of the congregation, and shall be in the words as nearly as may be in Schedule E, and shall be made during the morning service (if there is service in the morning) or if there is no morning service then during the evening service :

48/1957

Schedule E.

Provided, that in addition to such publication of banns during divine service, the minister (being a Marriage Officer) shall enter the particulars set forth in the said notice on paper, as nearly as may be in the form set forth in Schedule K, and shall affix the same on the outside of the principal door of the place of public worship at which the banns of the marriage are required to be published, in the manner already provided, and thereafter, when such notice shall have been kept affixed as aforesaid for a period of seven clear days, the required publication of the said banns shall be deemed to be complete.

The minister (being a Marriage Officer) having complied with the requirements of this Act shall, after the publication is complete, in the event of no objection to the marriage being in force, as hereinafter mentioned, grant upon request to the person who gave the notice, or to any person authorized by the person who gave the notice, a certificate of the due publication of banns, in this Act referred to as the Marriage Officer's certificate, as nearly as may be in one of the forms set forth in Schedule F, and shall therein set forth whether any objection has been offered to such intended marriage.

Schedule F.

Notice of intended marriage under Foreign Marriage Act.

19.—(1) When a marriage is intended to be solemnized in any foreign country or place under the provisions of the Act of the United Kingdom entitled the Foreign Marriage Act, 1892 (55 and 56 Victoria, chapter 23), and one of the parties has had his or her usual place of abode in Jamaica for a period of not less than one week (or such other period as may hereafter be fixed by any Order in Council made in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act) immediately preceding the notice hereinafter mentioned, such person shall give notice, in the prescribed form, of the intended marriage—

- (a) to a Civil Registrar of Marriages in the parish in which he or she has had his or her usual place of abode as aforesaid; or
- (b) to the minister (being a Marriage Officer under this Act), of the congregation to which he or she belongs, or is considered to be attached, or, if not considered to be attached to any congregation, then to any minister (being a Marriage Officer) having the ministerial charge of a place of worship in the parish in which he or she has had his or her usual place of abode as aforesaid.

(2) A notice given to a Civil Registrar of Marriages shall be deemed to be and shall be dealt with as a notice under section 17.

(3) A notice given to a minister (being a Marriage Officer) under this section, shall be deemed to be and shall be dealt with as a notice under section 18.

(4) Every Civil Registrar of Marriages, and every minister (being a Marriage Officer) shall, on the notice having been published as provided, in the case of notices under sections 17 and 18, and unless he is aware of any impediment or objection which should obstruct the solemnization of the marriage, grant to the person who gave the notice under this section, or to any person authorized by the person who gave the notice, a certificate in the prescribed form, of the due giving and publication of the notice.

(5) The Minister shall prescribe such forms as he may think fit for carrying out the provisions of this section, and until such forms are prescribed, the forms set out in the Schedules shall be used, with such variations as may be necessary.

20. No minister of religion who is not a Marriage Officer or is not expressly authorized by a Marriage Officer, shall publish any banns of marriage.

Who may publish banns.

21. In any case of persons residing in Jamaica intending that a marriage shall be solemnized between them, the Minister may, on application by or on behalf of either of the parties, if he thinks fit, upon proof being made to his satisfaction that there is no impediment of kindred or alliance or other lawful hindrance to the intended marriage, and, where consent is required, that the consent of the persons authorized to give such consent has been obtained,

Preliminaries to marriage on the Minister's licence.

Schedule G. grant a licence for such marriage, as nearly as may be in the form set forth in Schedule G.

Schedule I. For the purposes of such proof, the Minister may prescribe any form of declaration according to Schedule I that he thinks fit to be made before any persons that he may appoint, and declarations so prescribed shall be deemed to be declarations required by law for the purposes of a marriage.

Every Minister's marriage licence under this Act shall be deemed to be a marriage licence within the meaning of that term in the Schedule to the Stamp Duty Act :

Provided that every such Minister's marriage licence shall bear a stamp of the value of ten dollars.

Special licences.
48/1957
S. 5(a) & (b).

22. Where the parties or one of the parties to an intended marriage has resided in the Island for a period of not less than fifteen clear days, any Justice for any parish or parishes of the Island of Jamaica, the Clerk of the Resident Magistrate's Court for the parish in which the parties or one of the parties intending marriage resides, or any person appointed for the purpose by the Minister, may issue a special licence for marriage, such licence to be in such form as shall be approved of by the Minister, and to be furnished for the purpose :

Schedule A. Provided that before the granting of such licence there shall be produced to such Justice, Clerk of the Resident Magistrate's Court, or other appointed person, a notice of marriage and declaration, signed by the parties applying for the licence, and as nearly as may be in the form set forth in Schedule A, together with a statutory declaration from some minister of religion (being a Marriage Officer) setting forth that the applicants for the marriage licence are well known to him, that the statements made by them in their marriage notice are, to the best of his knowledge and belief, in every particular just and true.

23. Before the issue of any marriage licence, the person issuing it shall secure that such licence be stamped with revenue stamps to the value of twenty-five cents, and shall himself cancel the stamps before he delivers the licence.

Stamps on marriage licences.

The provision made by the Schedule to the Stamp Duty Act, under "Licences", whereby the sum of ten dollars is made payable on every marriage licence, shall not apply to the special marriage licences provided for by section 22.

Schedule to Stamp Duty Act.

24. Persons who have reached the age of eighteen years of age and widowers or widows may marry without the consent of others.

Consent to marriage when required and who may give it. 1/1979 1st Sch.

Where a person under eighteen years of age not being a widower or widow intends to marry, the father, or if the father is dead the lawful guardian or guardians, or if there is no such guardian the mother, if unmarried, of such person shall have authority to consent to the marriage of such person, and such consent is hereby required unless there is no person authorized to give it resident in this Island.

If the parent or guardian whose consent is necessary is non compos mentis, or unreasonably withholds consent to the marriage of any person, either party to the intended marriage may refer the matter to a Judge of the Supreme Court who shall decide upon the same in a summary way, and if the proposed marriage appears upon examination to be proper, the Judge shall certify the same, and his certificate shall be as good and effectual as if the necessary consent had been given.

Where either of the parties to a marriage is under eighteen years of age, not being a widower or widow, and is married under this Act without the consent of the person having authority to consent, it shall be lawful for the Supreme Court, on an information by the Attorney-General, to declare a forfeiture of all interest in any property acquired by such marriage by the other party thereto, and to secure the same for the benefit of the party so under eighteen years of age, and of the issue of the marriage.

Objections to a marriage,
how to be made and dealt with.

25. Any person may notify his objection to an intended marriage by giving notice of objection to the Civil Registrar or Marriage Officer publishing the notice of banns.

A Civil Registrar or Marriage Officer shall disregard all objections to an intended marriage not appearing on the face of the notice, unless—

- (a) they are stated prior to the issuing of the certificate of publication;
- (b) they are stated in writing by the person making the same;
- (c) the person making the same appears personally to lodge the same with the Civil Registrar or Marriage Officer, and in his presence makes and subscribes a declaration as nearly as may be in the form set forth in Schedule H, which the Civil Registrar or Marriage Officer shall endorse on the written statement of objection.

Schedule H.

With regard to objections timely and duly made as above provided, the following provisions shall apply—

- (a) Where the objection does not set forth a legal impediment to a marriage between the parties intending to solemnize marriage, or a refusal of consent on the part of any person whose consent is required to such marriage, the Civil Registrar or Marriage Officer shall suspend the issue of his certificate pending decision upon the objection, and shall consider the objection and make such enquiry thereabout as he sees fit, and himself decide thereupon.

- (b) Where the objection sets forth any legal impediment to a marriage between the parties, or any refusal of consent on the part of any person whose consent is required to such marriage, the Civil Registrar or Marriage Officer shall refer the matter to a Judge of the Supreme Court (who shall decide upon the same in as summary a way and as expeditiously as the circumstances of the case will permit), and shall suspend the issue of his certificate until he receives a certified copy of the Judge's decision to the effect that the parties are not in respect of the said objection disqualified from contracting such marriage, or where the objection is in the nature of a refusal of consent that such refusal is unreasonable and ought not to interfere with such marriage.

If it appears to the Judge that the objection, in case of an objection to a marriage, was frivolous and vexatious, he may condemn the party making it, to pay, in addition to costs and all civil damages to which he may be liable, a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to be enforced in the same way as a judgment of the Supreme Court.

Sch.

26. Whenever a marriage does not take place within three months of the date of the Civil Registrar's certificate or the Marriage Officer's certificate, or a Minister's licence, or a licence by a Justice, the Clerk of the Resident Magistrate's Court, or a person appointed for the purpose by the Minister, the certificate or licence as the case may be shall be void, and no person shall proceed to solemnize the marriage until new notice has been given and certificate issued or a new licence has been granted.

Certificate or licence void after three months.

27. After the issue of a Civil Registrar's certificate or Civil Registrars' certificates, or a Marriage Officer's certificate, or Marriage Officers' certificates or a Civil Registrar's certificate

riage to be solemnized and conditions to be observed.

in the case of one of the parties, and of a Marriage Officer's certificate in the case of the other party, or a licence from the Minister, or a licence by a Justice, the Clerk of the Resident Magistrate's Court, or a person appointed for the purpose by the Minister, the marriage may be solemnized between the parties described in the certificate or licence according to such form and ceremony as the parties may see fit to adopt:

Provided that every such marriage shall be solemnized in the presence of a Marriage Officer and of two witnesses between the hours of six a.m. and eight p.m. with open doors:

Provided also that the certificate or certificates, or if the marriage is by licence, the licence shall be first delivered to the Marriage Officer by or before whom the marriage is solemnized:

Provided also that in some part of the ceremony or immediately before the ceremony, and in the presence of such Marriage Officer and witnesses, each of the parties shall declare—

I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I, A.B., may not be joined in matrimony to C.D.

And each of the parties shall say to the other—

I call upon these persons here present to witness that I, A.B., do take (or how now taken) thee, C.D., to be my lawful wife (or husband):

Provided also that there be no lawful impediment to the marriage of such parties.

Marriage by a Civil Registrar.

28. If the parties so desire they may, after certificate or licence duly granted, contract, and solemnize marriage in the presence of a Civil Registrar, and in the presence of two witnesses, with open doors, and between the hours of six a.m. and eight p.m., making the declaration and using the form of words provided in section 27; but, in such case no religious service shall be used.

29. If the parties to a marriage contracted before the Civil Registrar or a Marriage Officer desire that there shall be separately performed any religious service of marriage between them, they may present themselves to any acknowledged minister of religion, and such minister upon the production of a certified copy of the Register of Marriage as contracted before a Civil Registrar or a Marriage Officer, may, if he thinks fit, perform such religious service.

As to a separate religious service.

Nothing in the reading or celebration of such service shall supersede or invalidate any marriage previously contracted before the Marriage Officer, nor shall such ceremony be registered under this Act as a marriage.

30. The Marriage Officer by or before whom a marriage is solemnized shall ask the parties to be married the particulars required to be registered touching the marriage.

Inquiries by Marriage Officer.

31. Immediately after the solemnization of a marriage the Marriage Officer before whom it is solemnized shall register it in duplicate, that is to say—

How marriages to be registered.

(a) in a Marriage Register Book to be kept by him for the purpose, and also

(b) in a duplicate form attached to the Marriage Register Book as a counterfoil, and the entry of such marriage both in the Marriage Register Book and the duplicate shall be signed by the Marriage Officer, and also by the parties married, and by two witnesses.

The Register shall contain the particulars and be in the form indicated in Schedule L.

Schedule L.

Marriage Officer's duties immediately after registration.

32. Immediately after registration the Marriage Officer shall separate the duplicate register from the Marriage Register Book and forthwith deliver or cause to be delivered such duplicate register to the Registrar-General, and shall deliver a certified copy of the register to one of the parties to the marriage, without fee.

Registering marriage in the General
Register
Office.

33. The duplicate register transmitted by the Marriage Officer to the Registrar-General shall be filed and safely preserved by him in the General Register Office.

Rectification of register as to marriage not properly registered.

34. Where a Marriage is solemnized under the provisions of this Act, which, without fault of the parties thereto, has been omitted to be registered, or where the Register of a Marriage has been lost or destroyed, it shall be lawful for either of the parties, or in case of his or her death the issue or other lawful representative of such party, to apply to any Resident Magistrate for an order to have such marriage correctly registered.

The Resident Magistrate shall require notice of such application to be given to such persons as he thinks expedient.

If the Resident Magistrate is satisfied after hearing such evidence as may be adduced that such marriage has been proved, he shall make an order to that effect, and shall certify the same to the Registrar-General, who shall thereupon cause the marriage to be specially registered (in duplicate) in accordance with the terms of the order, in books to be kept for the purpose in the General Register Office, with a note of such order and the date thereof.

Alteration of Register of Marriage.

35.—(1) No alteration in any Register of Marriages shall be made except as authorized by this Act.

(2) Any clerical error which may from time to time be discovered in any such Register of Marriages may be corrected by the Registrar-General or any person authorized in that behalf by him, subject to the prescribed rules.

(3) An error of fact or substance in any Marriage Register may be corrected by entry in the margin in red ink (without any alteration in the original entry) by the Registrar-General upon production to him by either of the parties to the marriage, or in case of his or her death by the issue or other lawful representative of such party, of a statutory declaration setting forth the nature of the error and the true facts of the case. <sup>48/1957</sup>
S. 6.

36. Certified copies of Registers under this Act and under sections 61, 62 and 63 of the Registration (Births and Deaths) Act, relating to Civil Status Records, shall be exempt from all stamp duty. Certified copies of Registers exempt from stamp duty.

37. It shall be lawful for a Marriage Officer to solemnize a marriage without any certificate of notice or banns in the following special case, that is to say, where the marriage is between two persons one of whom is in articulo mortis. Act to marriage in articulo mortis.

No such marriage shall be solemnized unless both parties are able to signify their consent thereto in presence of two witnesses.

No such marriage shall be solemnized where either of the parties is under twenty-one years of age not being a widower or widow, unless the person whose consent is required is present and gives his or her consent verbally.

A marriage so solemnized shall be specially registered.

The Register shall contain the particulars and be in the form indicated in Schedule M.

Schedule M.

No marriage solemnized under the provisions of this section shall be valid unless the foregoing conditions are observed.

Rules under this Act, how and by whom made, altered or revoked.

38. The Registrar-General may from time to time make, and when made revoke, add to and alter, rules for the carrying out of the registration provisions of this Act, and for the direction of officers connected with registration in the performance of duties under this Act. Such rules shall be subject to the approval of the Minister, who may allow, disallow, alter and add to, such rules or any of them.

General Register Office for marriages.

39. The General Register Office for keeping registers of births and deaths shall be the General Register Office for keeping registers of all marriages solemnized in this Island.

Seal of office.

40. There shall be provided a seal or stamp of the General Register Office with which all certified copies issuing out of the office as in this Act provided shall be sealed or stamped.

Supply of books, forms, etc., to Marriage Officers.
