measures to be implemented within a specified time for the elimination or control of such plant pests and to be undertaken by the owner or occupier of the land or by both.

(2) Where the owner or occupier of land does not comply with directions issued under subsection (1) within the specified time period, the Minister may cause the land in question to be entered and the measures set out in the directions to be effected.

(3) Where any owner or occupier of land incurs unavoidable expense, suffers pecuniary loss or damage as a direct consequence of the carrying out of directions issued by the Minister under this section, such owner or occupier may, without limit of amount, recover his expenses as a civil debt by referring the matter for decision in a Resident Magistrate's Court.

43. The Minister may, if he thinks fit, cause any land entered under section 42 to be fenced, and may direct payment out of public funds for the cost of such fencing; and no occupier of adjoining land shall be liable under the Dividing Fences Act to bear any part of the expenses of erecting such fence.

Land entered may be fenced and expenses paid out of the Consolidated Fund.
