(2) The provisions of the First Schedule shall have effect as the constitution of the Commission and otherwise in relation thereto.

Duty of Parliamentarian to furnish statutory declaration to Commission.
Second
Schedule.

4.—(1) Every person who is or was at any time after the 26th July, 1973, a Parliamentarian shall furnish to the Commission, a statutory declaration, subject to subsection (2), of his assets and liabilities, and his income in the form set out as Form A in the Second Schedule, at such times as may be required by or pursuant to this Act.

(2) A declaration pursuant to subsection (1) shall include such particulars as are known to the declarant of the assets, liabilities and income of the spouse and children of the declarant:

Provided that—

- (a) if the spouse was not living with the declarant at any time during the period in relation to which the declaration is made; or
- (b) if a child of a declarant has attained the age of 21 years and was not living with the declarant at any time during the period in relation to which the declaration is made, the particulars required to be furnished by this subsection shall be limited to assets held by the spouse or child (as the case may be) in trust for, or as agent of, the declarant; so, however, that nothing in this subsection shall be construed as precluding the Commission from requiring from a declarant any additional particulars the Commission may think fit.

(3) A statutory declaration pursuant to subsection (1) shall be furnished—

- (a) in the case of a person who is a Parliamentarian on the 26th July, 1973, within three months of such date; and
- (b) in the case of a person elected or appointed, as the case may be, a Parliamentarian at any time after the 26th July, 1973, within three months from the date of such election or appointment, as the case may be, and thereafter on the 31st day of December in each year during any part of which he remains a Parliamentarian and at the end of twelve months from the date on which he ceases to be a Parliamentarian, so, however, that a declaration required to be made on the 31st day of December in any year shall be deemed to comply with the requirements of this subsection if it is made on or before the 31st March next following that date.

(3A) The first declaration furnished pursuant to subsection (3) (b) shall include particulars of the assets, liabilities and income of the Parliamentarian as at the date of his election or appointment, as the case may be.

1/2001
S. 3.

(4) A statutory declaration furnished pursuant to subsection (1) may be accompanied by a statement of affairs certified by a registered public accountant if the declarant so desires.

5.—(1) The functions of the Commission shall be—

- (a) to receive and keep on record statutory declarations furnished by Parliamentarians pursuant to this Act;
- (b) to examine such statutory declarations, and to request from a Parliamentarian any information relevant to a statutory declaration made by him, which in their opinion would assist them in their examination;
- (c) to make such independent enquires and investigations relating to a statutory declaration as they think necessary;
- (d) to receive and investigate any complaint against a Parliamentarian regarding an act of corruption within the meaning of section 14 of the Corruption Prevention Act.

Regulations.

14. The Commission may make regulations—

- (a) prescribing the manner in which enquiries may be carried out and any matters incidental to or consequential on such enquiries;
- (b) amending the forms specified in the Second Schedule;
- (c) prescribing the period within which any information required by the Commission should be furnished;

Second
Schedule.

- (d) prescribing any matter or thing, whether similar to the above or not, in respect of which it may be expedient to make regulations for the purpose of carrying this Act into effect.

15.—(1) Any person who—

Offences.

- (a) fails, without reasonable cause, to furnish to the Commission a statutory declaration which he is required to furnish in accordance with the provisions of this Act;
- (b) knowingly makes any false statement in any such statutory declaration;
- (c) fails, without reasonable cause, to give such information as the Commission may require under section 7;
- (d) fails, without reasonable cause, to attend an enquiry being conducted by the Commission under section 7; or knowing gives any false information in such enquiry, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, on summary conviction thereof in a Resident Magistrate's Court, be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment, and where the offence involves the deliberate non-disclosure of a Parliamentarian's property the Court may, in addition to the imposition of a fine or term of imprisonment or both—

1/2001
S. 11 (a).

- (i) if the property involved is situated within the Island, declare that it be forfeited to the Crown;
- (ii) if the property involved is situated outside the Island, order that an amount equivalent to the value of such property (the value to be assessed as directed by the Court), be paid by the Parliamentarian concerned to the Crown.

(2) Payment of all sums due to the Crown pursuant to paragraph (ii) of subsection (1) may be enforced in like manner as a debt due to the Crown and any proceedings thereon on behalf of the Crown may be taken summarily in a Resident Magistrate's Court, without limit of amount.

1/2001
S.11 (b)

(3) In considering whether an order for forfeiture of a Parliamentarian's property should be made under subsection (1) (i), the Court shall have regard to the right and interests, if any, of third parties in that property.

1/2001
S.11 (b).

(4) A person who claims an interest in any property referred to in subsection (3) may—

(a) during the proceedings for the offence referred to in subsection (1); or

(b) within a period of six months after the day on which a forfeiture order is made in respect of that property or such longer period as the Court may, having regard to all the circumstances allow, apply to the Court for an order under subsection (5).

1/2001
S.11 (b)

(5) Where an application is made under subsection (4) the Court shall take account of the representations made by the applicant in relation to the property and shall make an order declaring the nature and extent of the applicant's interest, if any, in the property.

1/2001
S.11 (b).

(6) The Court may—

(a) where subsection (4) (a) applies, decide that the property or the part thereof to which the applicant's interest relates should not be forfeited to the Crown;

(b) where subsection (4) (b) applies, order that—

(i) the property or the part thereof to which the applicant's interest relates, be returned to the applicant; or

(ii) an amount equal to the value of the applicant's interest, as declared in the order under subsection (5), be paid to the applicant.

Expenses incurred in preparation of statutory declarations, etc.,
tax deductible.

17 For the purposes of subsection (1) of section 13 of the Income Tax Act, any disbursements and expenses incurred in a year of assessment by a Parliamentarian in connection with the preparation of a statutory declaration or other document required to be furnished by him for the purposes of this Act shall be deemed to be incurred by him wholly and exclusively in acquiring his income for that year of assessment.

FIRST SCHEDULE

(Section 3)

1. The Commission shall consist of—

- (a) the Auditor-General;
- (b) four other persons (hereinafter referred to as “appointed members”) appointed by the Governor-General, after consultation with the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition, from the following categories of persons—

Constitution of Commission.

19/1995 S. 2(a).

- (i) members of the Privy Council;
- (ii) the president or any past president of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Jamaica;
- (iii) retired Judges of Appeal or retired Judges of the Supreme Court;
- (iv) persons who have held the post of Commissioner of Income Tax, Financial Secretary or Auditor-General;
- (v) persons who, in the opinion of the Governor-General, are persons of high integrity and are able to exercise competence, diligence and sound judgment in fulfilling their responsibilities under this Act.

33/2004 S. 2(b).

2. The appointed members shall be appointed by instrument in writing and shall, subject to the provisions of this Schedule, hold office for such period not being less than two years nor more than five years, as the Governor-General may direct in the instrument of appointment.

Tenure of office.

3. Every appointed member shall be eligible for reappointment.

Reappointment.

4. (1) The Governor-General shall appoint one of the members to be Chairman of the Commission.

Chairman.

(2) The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Commission at which he is present, and in the case of the Chairman’s absence from any meeting, the members present and forming a quorum shall elect one of their number to preside at that meeting.

5. If any member is absent or unable to act the Governor-General may appoint any person to act in the place of that member, so, however, that such appointment shall be made in the same manner and from among any of the categories of persons as would be required in the case of a substantive appointment.

Acting appointments.

6. (1) Any appointed member other than the Chairman may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Governor-General and transmitted through the Chairman and from the date of receipt by the Governor-General of such instrument, that person shall cease to be a member.

Resignation.

(2) The Chairman may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Governor-General and such resignation shall take effect as from the date of receipt by the Governor-General of that instrument.

7. (1) The Governor-General after consultation with the Prime Minister Revocation of appointment.

19/1985
S. 2(a).

and the Leader of the Opposition may at any time revoke the membership of any appointed member.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph (1), a recommendation pursuant to that sub-paragraph shall have regard to any representations made by a Parliamentarian showing cause why a person should not remain a member of the Commission.

Filling of vacancies.

8. If any vacancy occurs in the membership of the appointed members, such vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of another appointed member, so, however, that such appointment shall be made in the same manner and from any of the categories of persons as would be required in the case of the original appointment.

Gazetting of membership.

9. The names of all members of the Commission as first constituted and every change therein, shall be published in the Gazette.

Funds of the Commission.

10. The funds of the Commission shall consist of such funds as may from time to time be placed at their disposition for the purposes of this Act by Parliament, and such other moneys as may be lawfully paid to the Commission.

Accounts and audit.

11. The Commission shall keep proper accounts of their receipts, payments, assets and liabilities and such accounts shall be audited annually by an auditor appointed in each year by the Commission with the approval of the Prime Minister.

Annual reports and estimates

12. (1) The Commission shall on or before the 31st day of October in each year submit to the Prime Minister for approval their estimates of revenue and expenditure in respect of the period commencing on the 1st day of April next following and ending on the 31st day of March of the subsequent year.

1/2001
S. 13(a).

(2) The Commission shall submit to the Prime Minister an annual report relating generally to the execution of its functions.

1/2001
S. 13(a).

(3) The Prime Minister shall cause a copy of the report referred to in sub-paragraph (2) to be laid on the Table of the House of Representatives and of the Senate.

Staff of Commission.

13. (1) The Commission shall appoint and employ at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as they think fit, a Secretary and such other officers and servants as they think necessary for the proper carrying out of the provisions of this Act:

1/2001
S. 13(b).

Provided that no salary in excess of seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be assigned to any post without the prior approval of the Prime Minister.

(2) The Governor General may, subject to such conditions as he may impose, approve of the appointment of any officer in the service of the Government to any office with the Commission and any public officer so appointed shall, in relation to pension, gratuity or other allowance, and in relation to other rights as a public officer, be treated as continuing in the service of the Government.

Seal and execution of documents.

14. (1) The seal of the Commission shall be kept in the custody of the Chairman and shall be affixed to instruments pursuant to a resolution of the Commission in the presence of the Chairman and any other member.

(2) The seal of the Commission shall be authenticated by the signatures of the Chairman and one other member.

(3) All documents other than those required by law to be under seal made by and all decisions of the Commission may be signified under the hand of the Chairman or the Secretary.

15. (1) The Commission shall meet at such times as may be expedient for the carrying out of its functions and such meetings shall be held on such days and at such places as the Chairman may determine. Procedure and meetings.

(2) A quorum of the Commission shall be three.

(3) The decision of the Commission shall be by a majority of votes and, in addition to an original vote, the Chairman shall have a casting vote in any case in which the voting is equal.

(4) Minutes in proper form of each meeting of the Commission shall be kept.

(5) The validity of the proceedings of the Commission shall not be affected by any vacancy amongst the members thereof or by any defect in the appointment of any member thereof.

16. No member shall be personally liable for any act or default of the Commission done or omitted to be done in good faith in the course of the operations of the Commission. Protection of members.

17. There shall be paid from the funds of the Commission to the Chairman and members such remuneration, whether by way of honorarium, salary or fees, and such allowances as may be approved by resolution of the House of Representatives and the Senate. Remuneration of members.

18. The office of Chairman or an appointed member shall not be a public office for the purposes of Chapter V of the Constitution. Office of Chairman or member not public office.

19. Where, pursuant to the provisions of this Schedule, the Governor-General is required to act after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition and— Provisions applicable when there is no Leader of the Opposition.

(a) there is no person holding the office of Leader of the Opposition; or

(b) the holder of that office is unwilling or, by reason of his illness or absence from Jamaica, unable to perform his functions in that regard.

those provisions shall be construed as if the reference to the Leader of the Opposition were a reference to such person as the Governor-General, in his discretion, considers appropriate.
