

THE SOLICITOR-GENERAL'S ACT

Cap. 362.

[23rd March, 1939.]

1. This Act may be cited as the Solicitor-General's Act. Short title.

2. As from the commencement of this Act, the office of Assistant to the Attorney-General shall be abolished and the office of Solicitor-General for Jamaica created. Creation of office of Solicitor-General.

3. Save in so far as the provisions of this Act are not repugnant to the provisions of any enactment for the time being in force, the Solicitor-General shall have all the powers and privileges appertaining to the office of the Assistant to the Attorney-General at the time of the coming into force of this Act, and, subject always to the directions of the Attorney-General, may perform any of the duties and exercise any of the powers of the Attorney-General. Duties and powers of Solicitor-General.