Schedule.
- 4.—(1) The functions of the Authority shall be to regulate and monitor public passenger transport throughout the Island and to perform such duties as immediately prior to Functions of Authority.

the 8th day of July, 1987, were required to be performed by—

- (a) Licensing Authorities or specially constituted Licensing Authorities under the Road Traffic Act;
- (b) the Public Passenger Transport (Kingston Metropolitan Transport Region) Board of Control constituted under the Public Passenger Transport (Kingston Metropolitan Transport Region) Act; and
- (c) the Public Passenger Transport (Rural Area) Board of Control constituted under the Public Passenger Transport (Rural Area) Act.

(2) The Authority may in carrying out its functions under subsection (1)—

- (a) charge and collect such fees as may be prescribed;
- (b) borrow money in accordance with section 9; and
- (c) do such other things as may, in its opinion, be conducive to an efficient public passenger transport system.

Ministerial direction.

5.—(1) The Minister may, after consultation with the chairman, give the Authority directions of a general character as to policy to be followed in the performance of its functions in relation to matters appearing to him to concern the public interest.

(2) The Authority shall furnish the Minister with such returns, accounts and other information as he may require with respect to the activities of the Authority.

Authority to co-opt.

6.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Authority may, if it thinks fit for the purpose of carrying out its functions, co-opt persons who are not members of the Authority to participate in any proceedings of the Authority either generally or in relation to any particular matter.

(2) Any person co-opted pursuant to subsection (1), shall not be entitled to vote in any proceedings of the Authority.

7.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Authority may appoint and employ at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, a managing director, a secretary, and such other officers and servants as it thinks necessary for the proper carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

S.4(b).

15. In any action or other legal proceedings brought against any Inspector in respect of any act done in pursuance or execution or intended execution of this Act or the regulations made thereunder the plaintiff shall not recover unless he alleges in his pleadings and proves at the trial that such act was done either maliciously or without reasonable and probable cause.

Proceedings against Inspector under this Act.

15A.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), for the purposes of the Road Traffic Act, this Act, and the regulations made under those Acts, public passenger vehicles shall be divided into the following classes—

Classification of public passenger vehicles.

- (a) stage carriages; that is to say, motor vehicles carrying passengers for hire or reward at separate fares for a single journey, stage by stage, and stopping to pick up or set down passengers along a designated route, and any other motor vehicles carrying passengers for hire or reward at separate fares and not being express carriages or hackney carriages as defined in this section;
- (b) express carriages; that is to say, motor vehicles not being hackney carriages, as defined in this section, carrying passengers for hire or reward at separate fares for a single journey and for a journey or journeys from one or more points specified in advance to one or more common destinations so specified, and not stopping to take up or set down passengers other than those paying appropriate fares for the journey or journeys in question;
- (c) contract carriages; that is to say, motor vehicles carrying passengers for hire or reward under a contract expressed or implied for the use of the vehicles as a whole at or for a fixed or agreed rate or sum and not standing or plying for hire on any road;
- (d) hackney carriages; that is to say, motor vehicles carrying passengers for reward or hire as a whole, used in standing or plying for hire on any thoroughfare or place frequented by the public and which have seating accommodation for not more than five persons, including the driver; and
- (e) route taxes; that is to say, motor vehicles, adapted for carrying no more than ten passengers for hire or reward at separate fares along a designated route not exceeding thirty kilometres, and stopping to pick up and set down passengers along that route.

(2) Subject to section 21 of the Public Passenger Transport (Corporate Area) Act, a public passenger vehicle adapted to carry less than eight passengers shall not be deemed to be a stage carriage or an express carriage by reason only that on occasions of public gatherings and other like special occasions it is used to carry passengers at separate fares.

(3) The Authority, in consultation with the Island Traffic Authority and the local authority shall, by order from time to time and subject to any restrictions or conditions specified in the order, authorize (within the area of the Authority) the use of certain sections of any road, or any other public place, as stands for contract carriages.

(4) Any person who fails to comply with a restriction or condition of an order under subsection (3) commits an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars.

(5) Where persons are carried in a motor vehicle for any journey for consideration of separate payments made by them, whether to the owner of the vehicle or to any other person, the vehicle in which they are carried shall be deemed to be a vehicle carrying passengers for hire or reward at separate fares whether the payments are solely in respect of the journey or not.

(6) A vehicle used on a special occasion for the conveyance of a private party shall not be deemed to be a vehicle carrying passengers for hire or reward at separate fares by reason only that the members of the party have made separate payments which cover their conveyance by that vehicle on that occasion.

(7) For the purposes of this section, a motor vehicle shall be deemed to be used on a special occasion for the conveyance of a private party where it is used on a journey in relation to which the following conditions are satisfied, and not otherwise, that is to say—

- (a) arrangements for the bringing together of all the passengers for the purpose of making the journey as a party shall have been made by some person, not being the holder of the licence in respect of the vehicle or a person acting on behalf of the holder of the licence or a person who receives any remuneration in respect of those arrangements;
- (b) the journey shall be made without previous advertisement to the public of the arrangements for the journey;
- (c) all the passengers shall, in the case of a journey to a particular destination, be carried to, or to the vicinity of, that destination, or, in the case of a tour, be carried for the greater part of the journey;
- (d) no differentiation of fares for the journey on the basis of distance or of time shall be made; and
- (e) in the case of a journey to a particular destination, the passengers shall not include any person who, frequently or as a matter of routine, travels at or about the time of day at which the journey is made, to that destination from a place from or through which the journey is made.

General

16. The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, prescribe, by order published in the Gazette, the fares payable on any public passenger vehicle.

Authority may prescribe fares.

16A.—(1) Where a vehicle is seized in the circumstances specified in section 13 (2) (a) (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv), the Court may, on an application made by its owner, release the vehicle to the owner, or operator before the matter is determined if the owner has—

Release of seized vehicles, etc. 21/2005 S.5.

- (a) paid to the Authority fees for the removal and storage of the vehicle; and
- (b) submitted to the Court, a bond, with such sureties as the Court may determine, in an amount not less than the minimum fine prescribed in respect of an offence under section 61(5) of the Road Traffic Act.

(2) Where the owner, driver or operator of a vehicle referred to in section 13 (2) (a) (i) to (iv) who is charged pursuant to section 61(5) of the Road Traffic Act—

- (a) is acquitted of the charge, the amount paid under the bond and the fees paid associated with removal and storage shall be refunded to the owner; or
- (b) is convicted of the charge and the amount paid under the bond is greater than the amount of the fine imposed, a refund of the difference shall be made to the owner.

17.—(1) Any person who offers, gives or promises to give money or money's worth to any Inspector or any member, officer, employee or servant of the Authority—

Penalties.

- (a) so as to secure an advantage in relation to any function of the Authority or the performance of any duty of the Inspector, member, officer, employee or servant; or

- (b) so that the Inspector, member, officer, employee or servant may perform or refrain from performing any function of the Authority or any duty which is assigned to such Inspector, member, officer, employee or servant,

21/2005

commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Any Inspector or any member, officer, employee or servant of the Authority or any person purporting to act on his own behalf or on behalf of any Inspector or any member, officer, employee or servant of the Authority, who solicits, receives or agrees to receive for himself or any other person money or money's worth—

- (a) as an inducement, in connection with the business of the Authority, to show preference or have preference shown to any person; or

- (b) as a reward for showing preference or, as the case may be, having preference shown, as mentioned in paragraph (a),

commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and imprisonment. 21/2005
S. 6(b).

(3) No prosecution for an offence punishable under subsection (1) or (2) shall be instituted except by or with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

18.—(1) The Minister may make regulations generally Regulations. for giving effect to the provisions of this Act and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make regulations—

- (a) prescribing and regulating the duties and powers of Inspectors;
- (b) prescribing fees;
- (c) regulating the carriage of passengers on public passenger vehicles;
- (d) regulating all matters affecting the appearance, whether of the interior or the exterior, of public passenger vehicles and the design and specifications of motor vehicles which may be used in providing public passenger transport service;

TRANSPORT AUTHORITY

- (e) prescribing the manner in which public passenger vehicles may be marked or identified;

- (f) prescribing records to be kept by drivers of public passenger vehicles;

- (g) prescribing tickets to be issued on public passenger vehicles and the form, time and manner in which such tickets shall be issued to passengers;

- (h) prescribing uniforms or other means of identification to be used by Inspectors; and prohibiting unauthorized persons from using in a public place any form of dress having the appearance of such uniform or bearing any distinctive marks of such uniform;

- (i) regulating the training of Inspectors.

(2) The Minister may, in making regulations under subsection (1), limit the applicability of all or any of those regulations to any specified area.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 29 of the Interpretation Act, regulations made under subsection (1) may provide that on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court, the penalties which may be imposed shall not exceed a fine of two thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) Except insofar as this Act otherwise provides, any power conferred thereby to make regulations may be exercised—

- (a) either in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of case; and
- (b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised—
  - (i) the full provision to which the power extends or any less provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise);
  - (ii) the same provision for all cases in relation to which the power is exercised or different provisions for different cases or class of case, or different provision as respects the same case or class of case for different purposes of the Act;
  - (iii) any such provision either conditionally or subject to any specified condition.

(5) Any regulations under this Act may contain such incidental or supplementary provisions as appear to the Minister to be expedient for the purposes of the regulations and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing and notwithstanding anything in the Road Traffic Act, may make different provisions with respect to different descriptions of motor vehicles specified in the regulations.

Construction of references to a Licensing Authority, the Public Passenger Transport (Kingston Metropolitan Transport Region) Board of Control and the Public Passenger Transport (Rural Area) Board of Control.

19.—(1) From and after the 8th day of July, 1987—

- (a) any reference to a Licensing Authority or to a specially constituted Licensing Authority in the Road Traffic Act; or
- (b) any reference to the Public Passenger Transport (Kingston Metropolitan Transport Region) Board of Control in the Public Passenger Transport (Kingston Metropolitan Transport Region) Act; or
- (c) any reference to the Public Passenger Transport (Rural Area) Board of Control in the Public Passenger Transport (Rural Area) Act, shall be construed as a reference to the Transport Authority established under this Act; and accordingly as regards any such Licensing Authority or Board of Control reference in any other Act or regulations or instrument in writing issued pursuant to any statutory power which is in force and has effect at the 8th day of July, 1987, shall be construed as a reference to the Transport Authority constituted by this Act.

(2) The Minister may, by order, make such adaptation or modification in the Road Traffic Act, the Public Passenger Transport (Kingston Metropolitan Transport Region) Act, the Public Passenger Transport (Rural Area) Act or in any other Act or regulations as may be necessary or expedient by reason of anything contained in subsection (1).

(a) shall disclose the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Authority; and

(b) shall not take part in any deliberation or decision of the Authority with respect to that matter.

(6) In the case of the absence or inability to act of the chairman, the Minister may appoint some other person to act temporarily in the place of the chairman.

2. An appointed member of the Authority shall, subject to the provisions of this Schedule, hold office for a period of three years from the date of his appointment or for such lesser period as the Minister may specify at the time of appointment and every such member shall be eligible for reappointment. Tenure of office.

3. Subject to sub-paragraph (6) of paragraph 1 the Minister may, in the case of the absence or inability to act of any appointed member, appoint any person to act temporarily in the place of that appointed member. Temporary appointment.

4.—(1) The chairman may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister and such resignation shall take effect as from the date of receipt of such resignation by the Minister. Resignations.

(2) Any appointed member, other than the chairman, may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister and transmitted through the chairman, and from the date of the receipt by the Minister of such instrument such member shall cease to be a member of the Authority.

5. The Minister may at any time revoke the appointment of the chairman or of any appointed member. Revocation of appointments.

- Filling of vacancies. 6. If any vacancy occurs in the appointed membership of the Authority such vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of another person as appointed member who shall, subject to the provisions of this Schedule, hold office for the remainder of the period for which the previous appointed member was appointed.
- Gazetting of appointments. 7. The names of all members of the Authority as first constituted and every change in the membership thereof shall be published in the Gazette.
- Leave. 8. The Minister may, on the application of any appointed member or the ex officio member who is the managing director, grant leave of absence to such member.
- Seal and execution of documents. 9.—(1) The seal of the Authority shall be kept in the custody of the chairman or the secretary and shall be affixed to instruments pursuant to a resolution of the Authority in the presence of the chairman or any other member of the Authority authorized to act in that behalf and the secretary thereof.
- (2) The seal of the Authority shall be authenticated by the signatures of any member authorized to act in that behalf and the secretary.
- (3) All documents other than those required by law to be under seal, made by and all decisions of the Authority, may be signified under the hand of the secretary or the chairman or any other member or officer of the Authority authorized to act in that behalf.
- Procedure and meetings. 10.—(1) The Authority shall meet as often as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of its business, so, however, that the Authority shall meet at least once every three months and such meetings shall be held at such places and times and on such days as the Authority may determine.
- (2) The chairman may at any time call a special meeting of the Authority, and shall call a special meeting to be held within seven days of a written request for that purpose addressed to him by any two members.
- (3) The chairman shall preside at meetings of the Authority and if the chairman is absent from a meeting the members present shall elect one of their number to preside at the meetings.
- (4) The quorum of the Authority shall be five.
- (5) The decisions of the Authority shall be by a majority of votes and in addition to an original vote the chairman or other member presiding at a meeting shall have a casting vote in any case in which the voting is equal.

11. No act done or proceeding taken under this Act shall be questioned on the ground— Protection of Authority.

(a) of the existence of any vacancy in the membership of, or any defect in the constitution of, the Authority; or

(b) of any omission, defect or irregularity not affecting the merits of the case.

12.—(1) No action, suit, prosecution or other proceedings shall be brought or instituted personally against any member in respect of any act done bona fide in the execution or intended execution of this Act. Protection of members.

(2) Where any member is exempt from liability by reason only of the provisions of this paragraph the Authority shall be liable to the extent it would be if that member were a servant or agent of the Authority.

13. There shall be paid from the funds of the Authority to the chairman and other members of the Authority and to persons co-opted by the Authority under section 6 such remuneration (whether by way of salaries or travelling or other allowances) as the Minister may determine. Remuneration of members.
