I assent.

AN ACT to Validate and confirm the imposition, variation and renewal of tax under the General Consumption Tax Act by several provisional orders pursuant to section 3 of the Provisional Collection of Tax Act, the collection of such tax, in good faith and inadvertent that the collection was invalid, improper or unlawful, during the period commencing on the 1st day of April, 2003 and ending on the day of coming into operation of this Act; to indemnify the Government and all persons acting on behalf of the Government from liability in relation thereto; and for connected matters.

WHEREAS section 3(1) of the Provisional Collection of Tax Act (hereinafter referred to as the "Act") empowers the Minister responsible for finance to make an order providing for the variation of any tax for the time being in force, for the renewal for a further period of any tax in force during the previous financial year or which was imposed for any limited period, or for the imposition of any tax (hereinafter referred to as a “provisional order”):

AND WHEREAS section 3(1) of the Act provides further that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the provisions of a provisional order shall, for the period limited by that section and subject to the provisions of the Act, have effect as if contained in an Act of Parliament:

AND WHEREAS section 3(2) of the Act specifies that where a provisional order provides for the renewal of a tax, all enactments which were in force with reference to that tax as last imposed by an Act of Parliament shall, during the period for which the order remains in force and subject to the provisions of the Act, have full force and effect with respect to the tax as renewed by the order:

AND WHEREAS section 3(3) of the Act provides that a provisional order shall, subject to subsection (4) of that section, continue for a period of six months next following publication thereof in the Gazette unless the House of Representatives by Resolution authorizes the continuance in force of the order for an additional period of three months:

AND WHEREAS section 3(4) provides further that a provisional order shall cease to have effect if it is not confirmed (with or without modification, by Resolution of the House of Representatives) within the next thirty days on which the House sits after the date of publication of the order in the Gazette, if Parliament is dissolved, or if an enactment comes into operation varying, renewing or imposing the tax:

AND WHEREAS section 4(2) of the Act provides that where an order under section 3(1) ceases to have effect before an enactment comes into operation confirming or modifying the provisions thereof, any money paid in pursuance of that order shall be repaid or made good and any deduction made in pursuance of that order shall be deemed to be an unauthorized deduction:

AND WHEREAS, as a result of successive revenue measures introduced by the Government, several provisional orders (including the provisional orders specified in the Schedule to this Act) varying, renewing and imposing tax under the General Consumption Tax Act were made during the period commencing on the 1st day of April, 2003, and ending on the day of the coming into operation of this Act, respectively:

AND WHEREAS there is doubt as to whether the statutory procedures with respect to those orders were duly complied with:

AND WHEREAS no permanent amendment in relation to the matters comprised in those provisional orders was made to the General Consumption Tax Act:

AND WHEREAS the Government, and persons acting for or on behalf of the Government, in good faith, have been levying, assessing and collecting various taxes on the basis of the provisions of those provisional orders:

AND WHEREAS it is desirable to validate and confirm as lawful the levy, assessment and collection of such tax in good faith, and inadvertent that the levy, assessment and collection was invalid, improper and unlawful during the period commencing on the 1st day of April, 2003 and ending on the day of the coming into operation of this Act:
