PART II. CWC 2007 Special Arrangements

Interpretation of Part

4. In this Part, “Commissioner” means the Commissioner of Police.

Declaration of CWC 2007 venue and match period.

5.—(1) The Minister, after consultation with the Committee, may by notice published in the Gazette and in at least one newspaper in daily circulation in Jamaica and subject to such conditions as may be appropriate in the circumstances—

- (a) declare any area within the control of the Committee or CWC 2007 Inc., or both, that is reasonably required for the staging of a CWC 2007 activity, as a CWC venue and shall, in that notice, state the date—

- (i) with effect from which the area will be regarded as a CWC 2007 venue; and
 - (ii) on which the area ceases to be a CWC 2007 venue, being a date not later than 48 hours after the completion or termination of CWC 2007;
- (b) declare a period as a match period for the purposes of CWC 2007.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), areas reasonably required for the staging of a CWC 2007 activity—

- (a) may include areas that are to be used for a purpose ancillary to the holding of a CWC 2007 activity;
- (b) may be comprised of two or more non-contiguous areas;
- (c) shall not include—
 - (i) an airport or seaport;
 - (ii) any area that is a protected area or a reserved area under any other law;
 - (iii) private property, except with the consent of the owner.

(3) The exercise by the Minister of powers under subsection (1) shall have due regard to the rights and convenience of persons who reside or seek to conduct lawful business within the affected area.

6.—(1) CWC 2007 Inc. shall, for the duration of a match period, have full and unrestricted control of any stadium.

CWC 2007 Inc. to manage CWC 2007 venues during match period.

(2) The powers conferred on CWC 2007 Inc. under subsection (1) shall be subject to the rights of any authority responsible for public health, disaster management or national security.

Works not to be undertaken without relevant licence or permit.

7.—(1) No person is authorized to undertake works in relation to CWC 2007 on land that has been acquired or provided for a CWC 2007 activity, except in accordance with all such licences or permits as may be required under any law for the undertaking of such works.

(2) For the purposes of this section, “works” includes—

- (a) road construction or diversion;
- (b) removal, relocation or planting of trees;
- (c) installation of services;
- (d) relocation of parks, buildings or facilities;
- (e) construction or development of other structures, whether of a permanent or temporary nature;
- (f) demolition works or works altering the topography of Jamaica.

Road closures.

8.—(1) The Commissioner may, by order published in the Gazette and in at least one newspaper in daily circulation in Jamaica—

- (a) institute measures for the control and regulation of vehicular or pedestrian traffic in relation to a CWC 2007 venue;
- (b) close a road or part of a road for such period as he thinks fit and for any purpose, including ensuring the safety of persons and the protection of property.

(2) The powers of the Commissioner under subsection (1)(b) may, with the consent of the owner or occupier of a private road, apply to a private road in the same way as they apply to a public road.

(3) Where the Commissioner proposes to close a road for a period exceeding three consecutive days, the order under subsection (1) shall be published at least two days before the proposed closure.

(4) In exercising powers under subsection (1), the Commissioner shall—

- (a) ensure that a road is not closed for a period longer than is necessary for the purpose; and

- (b) have due regard to the rights and convenience of persons who reside or seek to conduct lawful business within the area affected by the exercise of those powers.

(5) For the purposes of this section, “road” includes a footpath and a thoroughfare.

9.—(1) Where a road is closed under section 8, a person commits an offence if, without the permission of a police officer, that person without reasonable excuse—

(3) At any time during a match period, a member of the Security Directorate or an authorized person may notify a police officer of any unattended vehicle parked within a CWC 2007 venue if such member or authorized person considers it necessary.

Deliveries
within CWC
2007 venues.

11.—(1) The Commissioner may, in relation to any match period, issue directions after consultation with the Security Directorate or its authorized representative to—

- (a) regulate or prohibit the making of deliveries within any CWC 2007 venue or the loading or unloading of vehicles within any CWC 2007 venue;
- (b) impose restrictions, relating to the standing, stopping, parking, loading or unloading of vehicles within a CWC 2007 venue.

(2) A direction by the Commissioner under subsection (1) may apply—

- (a) to an entire CWC 2007 venue or part of such venue;
- (b) to vehicles of a specified class or description;
- (c) on such days only as are specified in the direction;
- (d) during such periods on those days as are specified in the direction; and
- (e) subject to such conditions as are specified in the direction.

(3) A person who contravenes any direction under this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand dollars.

- 20.—(1) In this section, “restricted airspace” means airspace that the Minister responsible for civil aviation, after consultation with CWC 2007 Inc., has declared by notice published in the Gazette and in at least one newspaper in daily circulation in Jamaica, to be restricted airspace in relation to a CWC 2007 venue. Control of airspace.
- (2) No person shall, during a match period or such other period as the said Minister may determine, operate an aircraft within or cause an aircraft to enter, restricted airspace without an air traffic clearance.
- (3) The said Minister shall not issue an air traffic clearance for restricted airspace under subsection (1) unless he is of the opinion that the operation of the aircraft within the restricted airspace will not adversely affect the efficient organization and staging of CWC 2007, any CWC 2007 activity or any commercial arrangement relating to such activity.
- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate’s Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars.
- (5) This section does not apply to the operation of—
- (a) a military aircraft or a police aircraft, when operated for military, security or emergency purposes; or
 - (b) an aircraft when being operated exclusively for emergency purposes relating to human life or safety, or the protection of property.

PART III. Conduct in CWC 2007 Venues

Authorized police officers to exercise power of removal.

21. The power conferred under this Part and Part IV to remove individuals from a CWC venue or part thereof may only be exercised by a member of the Jamaica Constabulary Force not below the rank of Sergeant (in this Act called “an authorized police officer”).

Entry to and exit from stadium.

22.—(1) No person shall enter a stadium during a match period unless he is a permitted entrant.

(2) No person shall enter or leave a stadium during a match period except through an entrance or exit designated by CWC 2007 Inc. or as otherwise permitted by CWC 2007 Inc.

(3) A person who contravenes any provision of this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars.

Unauthorized entry.

23.—(1) Unless authorized by CWC 2007 Inc., no person shall, during a match period, enter or be present in or on—

- (a) any part of a playing field;
- (b) any other part of a stadium if it is indicated that entry into that part is not permitted; or
- (c) any part of any other CWC 2007 venue if it is indicated that entry into that part is not permitted.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) and (c), an indication that entry is not permitted may be given in the following manner—

- (a) an advertisement;
- (b) a pamphlet;
- (c) conditions attached to a CWC 2007 ticket;
- (d) a direction of a police officer or an authorized person;
- (e) a fence, chain or barrier around the part or across an entrance into the part; or
- (f) a sign erected at or near an entrance.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1)—

- (a) may be ordered by a police officer or an authorized person to leave the CWC 2007 venue or a part thereof; or
- (b) may be removed from the CWC 2007 venue or a part thereof, by an authorized police officer where that person refuses to comply with an order under paragraph (a); and
- (c) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars.

24.—(1) CWC 2007 Inc. may, for the duration of a match period, set aside—

Reserved areas and reserved seats.

- (a) any area within a CWC 2007 venue as a reserved area; or
- (b) any seat within a CWC 2007 venue as a reserved seat.

(2) No person shall enter or remain in a reserved area or occupy a reserved seat unless that person is—

- (a) the holder of a CWC 2007 ticket conferring entitlement to do so; or
- (b) otherwise authorized by or on behalf of CWC 2007 Inc.

(3) A police officer or an authorized person who has reasonable grounds to suspect that a person in a reserved area or reserved seat is not entitled to be in that area or seat, may request that person to produce evidence of his entitlement to enter or remain in the reserved area or to occupy the reserved seat.

(4) A person who fails to comply with a request under subsection (3) may be ordered by a police officer or an authorized person to leave the reserved area, reserved seat or the CWC 2007 venue.

(5) A person who refuses to comply with an order under subsection (4)—

- (a) may be removed from the CWC 2007 venue by an authorized police officer; and

- (b) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars.

Members'
entitlements
during a match period.

25.—(1) This section applies to the members of any organization, association, club or similar body or persons who have any entitlement in a stadium whether through the exercise of rights or otherwise.

(2) During a match period—

- (a) a member (of any class of membership) referred to in subsection (1), is not entitled to exercise any right or privilege of that membership;
- (b) the holder of a club card or guest card or similar facility is not entitled to exercise any right or privilege otherwise conferred on that holder; and
- (c) a person otherwise entitled or privileged, is not entitled to exercise any right or privilege, in relation to a stadium, or any part thereof, including the right to obtain entry to the stadium or to use any facilities (for seating, eating, drinking, sport or recreation or otherwise) provided at or in relation to the stadium.

(3) A person referred to in subsection (2) who seeks to exercise any right or privilege in contravention of this section may be—

- (a) ordered by a police officer or an authorized person to leave the stadium; or
- (b) removed from the stadium by an authorized police officer if that person refuses to comply with an order under paragraph (a).

(4) The owners of the stadium, WICB, CWC 2007 Inc., ICC, IDI and GCC shall not be liable as a result of the operation of this section—

- (a) for any suit, action or proceeding;
- (b) to pay compensation to a member, a guest or club card holder or any other person referred to in subsection (2); or

- (c) to reimburse any person referred to in paragraph (b), for the whole or a portion of any payment made by that person to obtain certain rights or privileges.

26.—(1) A person shall not in any CWC 2007 venue—

Conduct
within CWC
2007 venue.

- (c) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars.

Surrender of items.

28.—(1) An authorized person may request a person to surrender any animal or item that—

- (a) is prohibited under section 27(1) or restricted under section 27(2)(b) or (c) or that may be used in a manner to contravene section 27(2), which is in the person's possession at any security point or entrance of a CWC 2007 venue;
- (b) has been brought into a CWC 2007 venue—
 - (i) in contravention of section 27(1) or (2) (b) or (c) or
 - (ii) that may be used to contravene section 27 (2).

(2) A person who refuses to surrender an animal or item when requested to do so under—

- (a) subsection (1) (a) may be denied entry to the CWC 2007 venue; or
- (b) subsection (1)(b) may be—
 - (i) ordered by an authorized person to leave the CWC 2007 venue; or
 - (ii) removed from the CWC 2007 venue by an authorized police officer, if that person refuses to comply with an order under sub-paragraph (i) .

(3) An authorized person, on the surrender to him of an item under this section shall give a receipt to the person who surrendered it, indicating the nature of the item and the date and time of surrender.

(4) An item referred to in subsection (3) shall, except where the person is charged, be lodged with CWC 2007 Inc. and be available for collection within 24 hours after it was surrendered at such place as is notified to that person.

29.—(1) No person shall, without the written authorization of CWC 2007 Inc.—

Sale of goods or services.

- (a) hawk, sell, offer or display for sale, or distribute to members of the public, any goods or services, flyers or pamphlets;
- (b) collect money or orders from members of the public for goods or services, in a CWC 2007 venue during a match period.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1)—

- (a) may be ordered by an authorized person to leave the CWC 2007 venue; or.
- (b) may be removed from the CWC 2007 venue by an authorized police officer, if that person refuses to comply with an order under paragraph (a); and
- (c) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars.

Requirement to state name and address.

30.—(1) A police officer who suspects, on reasonable grounds, that a person in a CWC 2007 venue has committed, or has been involved in the commission of a contravention of this Part, may require the person to state his full name and address.

(2) A person who fails, without reasonable cause, to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or who, in purported compliance with such a requirement, furnishes information that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular—

(a) may be—

- (i) ordered by a police officer to leave the CWC 2007 venue; or
- (ii) removed from the CWC 2007 venue by an authorized police officer, if that person refuses to comply with an order under sub-paragraph (i); and

(b) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars.

(3) A person is not guilty of an offence under subsection (2) unless it is established that the police officer warned the person that the failure to comply with the requirement constitutes an offence.

PART IV. Control of Advertising

Prohibition of certain advertisements on land, buildings and structures.

31.—(1) A person who is the owner or occupier of, or the holder of a lease or licence relating to land, a building or a structure on land within a CWC 2007 venue, shall not cause or permit any advertisement or advertising material to be displayed or fixed to or placed on, or to remain on, the land, building or structure except as authorized in writing by CWC 2007 Inc.

(2) CWC 2007 Inc. or an authorized person may erase or remove any advertisement or advertising material fixed or placed on any land, building or structure in contravention of subsection (1).

(3) In exercising powers under subsection (2), CWC 2007 Inc. shall take such steps as are reasonably necessary to ensure that as little damage as possible is caused.

32.—(1) A person shall not publish or display any advertisement that relates to or is connected with CWC 2007 which is false or misleading or cause such advertisement to be published or displayed.

Prohibition of certain advertisement.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court—

- (a) in the case of a first conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand dollars; or
- (b) in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars.

33.—(1) Except with the approval of CWC 2007 Inc., a person shall not, other than for personal use, broadcast, narrowcast, telecast, transmit, record, publish, disseminate, reproduce or circulate by any means (including, without limitation, utilizing television, radio, satellite, the Internet or any wireless service), any audio, video, photograph, text or data or any other information relating to a CWC 2007 activity or any part of such activity.

Commercial broadcasting telecasting, recording or filming.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding two million dollars.

(3) An application for approval under this section shall be made to CWC 2007 Inc. in such form and manner as may be determined by CWC 2007 Inc.

(4) Any approval granted under subsection (3) shall be subject to such conditions as CWC 2007 Inc. thinks fit.

(5) A police officer may take possession of any article that is used in contravention of this section if—

- (a) the police officer has directed the person concerned to stop the use of the article; and
- (b) the person continued to use the article in contravention of this section.

(6) A person who uses any article in contravention of this section may be—

- (a) ordered by an authorized person to leave the CWC 2007 venue; or

- (b) removed from the CWC 2007 venue by an authorized police officer, if that person refuses to comply with an order under paragraph (a).

(7) The broadcasting, telecasting, recording, publishing or filming of any information relating to a CWC 2007 activity for the purpose of provision of information or for the purpose of criticism or review is not by itself sufficient to amount to a contravention of subsection (1).

(8) In subsection (7), a reference to—

- (a) “the provision of information” means the reporting of news and the presentation of current affairs; and
- (b) “criticism” or “review” means criticism or review contained in—
 - (i) a newspaper, magazine or similar periodical;
 - (ii) a broadcast; or
 - (iii) a cinematograph film.

Prohibition of certain practices.

34.—(1) Subject to section 33 (7), a person shall not, except with the written authorization of CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or GCC, willfully broadcast, display, make, publish or televise any advertisement, communication, statement, mark or image or cause or authorize any advertisement, communication, statement, mark or image to be broadcast, displayed, made, published or televised or carry on, cause or authorize any other activity which—

- (a) relates to or is connected with CWC 2007;
- (b) implies or suggests a contractual or other connection or association of that person with CWC 2007 or a person officially associated or involved in CWC 2007; and
- (c) is intended to—
 - (i) associate that person with CWC 2007 or exploit the publicity or goodwill of CWC 2007, in order for that person to gain a benefit of any kind;

- (ii) diminish the status of an official sponsor, official supplier, official broadcaster or other licensee with regard to CWC 2007; or
- (iii) imply that the person is an official sponsor, official supplier, official broadcaster or other licensee with regard to CWC 2007.

(2) Except with the prior written authority of CWC 2007 Inc. or IDI, as the case may require, a person shall not, in relation to CWC 2007, use or cause to be used, a mark, image, statement or brand in a manner calculated to achieve publicity for that mark, image or statement or the brand with which that mark, image or statement is associated and thereby deriving any special promotional benefit from CWC 2007.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2), the use of a mark, image or statement includes—

- (a) any visual representation of the mark, image or statement upon or in relation to goods or in relation to the rendering of services;
- (b) any audible representation of the mark, image or statement in relation to goods or the rendering of services; and
- (c) the use of the mark, image or statement in promotional activities, which in any way, directly or indirectly, is or is intended to be brought into association with, imply a connection with or allude to, CWC 2007.

(4) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two million dollars.

35.—(1) A person shall not use a CWC 2007 ticket in relation to any form of commercial activity or as prizes in any lottery, competition, game or promotion without the prior written approval of CWC 2007 Inc.

Promotional
use of CWC
2007 tickets.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars.

PART V. Protection of CWC 2007 Marks, Indicia and Images

Prohibition
unauthorized
use of CWC
2007 mark.

36.—(1) A person shall not use a CWC 2007 mark without the written authorization of the owner of that CWC 2007 mark.

(2) Registration by IDI of a CWC 2007 mark or any other mark shall vest in IDI from the date of registration until December 31, 2008—

- (a) the right to its exclusive use in connection with the goods or services for which they are registered; and
- (b) the exclusive right to prevent any other person from using any such mark without the authority of IDI.

(3) Subsection (2)(b) extends to the use of an identical or confusingly similar mark in connection with goods or services where the use—

- (a) has caused or is likely to cause confusion; or
- (b) takes unfair advantage of, or is detrimental to, the distinctive character or the repute of a CWC 2007 mark.

Infringement
of CWC
2007 mark or mark of IDI,
ICC, WICB,
CWC 2007
Inc.

37.—(1) This section applies to goods that infringe a CWC 2007 mark or any other mark of IDI, the ICC, WICB or CWC 2007 Inc.

(2) A person who, with intent to gain for himself or another, or to cause loss to another, and without the consent of the proprietor of the mark in question, knowingly buys or sells or imports or exports any goods to which this section applies, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court—

- (a) in the case of a first conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; and
- (b) in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine not exceeding one million dollars.

(3) The Trade Marks Act shall apply in the determination of whether or not a mark has been infringed as if such mark were a mark registered under that Act.

38.—(1) For the purposes of this Part—

“CWC 2007 indicia” means any item in Part I of the Third Schedule or a combination of an item listed in Section A with an item listed in Section B of Part II of that Schedule, and, where appropriate, includes the CWC 2007 mark;

CWC 2007
indicia and CWC 2007
images.

Third Schedule.

“CWC 2007 images” means any visual or aural representation or a combination of both that, to a reasonable person, in the circumstances of the presentation, would suggest a connection with CWC 2007 including the picture (whether photographic or otherwise), likeness or image of any squad member, squad or part thereof and, where appropriate, includes the CWC 2007 mark;

“covering” includes packaging, frame, wrapper, container, stopper, lid or cap;

“label” includes a band or ticket.

(2) CWC 2007 indicia that are represented in a language other than English are to be taken to be CWC 2007 indicia.

(3) Indicia or images so closely resembling CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images as are likely to be mistaken by a reasonable person for such indicia or images, shall be regarded as CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images, as the case may be.

39.—(1) For the purposes of this Act, CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images are applied to goods or services if such indicia or images are—

Application
of CWC
2007 indicia and images.

(a) in the case of goods—

- (i) woven in, impressed on, worked into, or affixed or annexed to the goods; or
- (ii) applied to any covering, document, label, reel or thing in or with which the goods are, or are intended to be, dealt with or provided in the course of trade or the promotion of trade; or

(b) in the case of goods or services—

- (i) used on a signboard or in an advertisement (including a television or radio advertisement) that promotes the goods or services; or
- (ii) used in an invoice, price list, catalogue, brochure, business letter, business paper, any other commercial document or any promotional material that relates to the goods or services.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an advertisement promotes goods or services if—

- (a) it promotes a particular person who provides goods or services; and
- (b) a reasonable person would conclude that it was designed to enhance the commercial image of the person referred to in paragraph (a).

(3) If—

- (a) goods are imported into Jamaica for the purpose of sale or distribution by a person; and
- (b) upon importation, any CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images are applied to such goods, that person shall be taken to have applied the indicia or images to those goods.

Licence to use CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images for commercial purposes.

40.—(1) CWC 2007 Inc. or IDI may license a person to use all or any one or more of CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images for commercial purposes in such circumstances as may be determined by CWC 2007 Inc. or IDI.

(2) A licensed user may only use for commercial purposes the CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images that he is licensed to use and may only use such indicia or images in accordance with the licence.

Prohibition of unlicensed use of CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images. Third Schedule.

41.—(1) No person, other than CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user, shall use—

- (a) any CWC 2007 indicia listed in Part I of the Third Schedule; or

- (b) any other CWC 2007 indicia or any CWC 2007 images for commercial purposes.

(2) CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images are used by a person for commercial purposes if—

- (a) that person causes such indicia or images to be applied to his goods or services for advertising or promotional purposes or in a manner that is likely to enhance the demand for the goods or services; and
- (b) to a reasonable person, the application would suggest that that person is or was a sponsor of a CWC 2007 activity, or is or was associated or connected with CWC 2007 or a CWC 2007 activity.

(3) Where goods or services to which CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images are applied, are used for commercial purposes by a person other than CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user, any person who—

- (a) supplies, or offers to supply, such goods or services;
- (b) exposes such goods for supply; or
- (c) keeps such goods for supply, whether or not by him shall be taken to have used the CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images for commercial purposes.

42.—(1) The use of a CWC 2007 mark, CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images for the purposes of, or in connection with, the provision of information or for the purposes of criticism or review is not by itself sufficient to—

Provision of information.

- (a) amount to a contravention of section 34, 36 or 41.
- (b) suggest a sponsorship, or the provision of other support, for the purposes of section 41(2) (b).

(2) In subsection (1) a reference to—

- (a) “the provision of information” includes a reference to the reporting of news and the presentation of current affairs; and

(b) “criticism” or “review” includes a reference to criticism or review contained in—

- (i) a newspaper, magazine or similar periodical;
- (ii) a broadcast; or
- (iii) a cinematograph film.

Power of customs officers in relation to certain imports.

43.—(1) Where there is applied to any goods, any CWC 2007 mark, CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images which the importer is not authorized or licensed under this Act to use for commercial purposes, a customs officer may detain the goods for further investigation.

(2) Goods detained, under this section shall be kept in such secure place as directed by the Commissioner of Customs.

Notice of detention.

44.—(1) Where goods have been detained under section 43, the Commissioner of Customs shall notify CWC 2007 Inc. or IDI of the detention.

(2) CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user may, within 21 days of the receipt of the notice, make an application for an injunction under section 48 and give written notice of such application to the Commissioner of Customs.

Release of goods.

45.—(1) The Commissioner of Customs shall release goods detained under section 43—

- (a) unless within the period mentioned in section 44(2), CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user has—
 - (i) made an application for an injunction under section 48 in relation to the goods; and
 - (ii) given to the Commissioner of Customs written notice of the application;
- (b) in any case where CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or, if applicable, the licensed user, has, by written notice to the Commissioner, consented to the release of the goods.

(2) Except where the Commissioner of Customs has been notified in accordance with subsection (1) that an application has been made in relation to the goods, the Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, release the seized goods before the expiration of the period mentioned in section 44(2) if the Commissioner, having regard to information that has come to his knowledge after the goods were detained, does not have reasonable grounds for believing that the importation of the goods would be a contravention of section 36 or 41.

46. Nothing in this Part compels the Commissioner of Customs to dispose of any detained goods where the Commissioner is required or allowed to retain control of the goods under any other law.

Power to Commissioner of Customs to retain control of goods.

47.—(1) The provisions of this Act relating to CWC 2007 indicia or CWC 2007 images shall not affect rights conferred by law on a person in relation to—

Preservation of existing rights.

- (a) a trademark that is registered under the Trade Marks Act;
- (b) a design that is registered under the Designs Act, which was so registered before the commencement of this Act in relation to the indicia or image.

(2) Nothing in this Act affects the use of the indicia or image by a person who, before the commencement of this Act, was entitled to prevent another person from using the indicia or image or similar indicia or image, for the purpose of passing off.

(3) This Act does not apply to the use of a business name in connection with a business if—

- (a) the name is registered in relation to the business under the Registration of Business Names Act; and
- (b) the name was so registered before the commencement of this Act in relation to the business.

(4) This Act does not apply in relation to the use of the name of a company if that company—

- (a) was in existence before the commencement of this Act;
- (b) uses the name in connection with a business carried on by it; and

- (c) used the name in connection with that business before the commencement of this Act.

PART VI. Remedies

Injunctions. 48.—(1) Where a person has engaged, is engaging, or is proposing to engage in conduct in contravention of section 12, 29, Part IV or V, a Judge of the Supreme Court may, on application by CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user, grant an injunction—

- (a) restraining the person from engaging in the conduct; and
 (b) if, in the Court’s opinion, it is desirable to do so, requiring the person to take such action as the Court sees fit including, in the case of a sign, the erasure or removal of the sign.

(2) The Court may grant an interim injunction pending the determination of an application under subsection (1).

(3) Nothing in this Part limits or shall be construed as limiting any rights or remedies available under the Trade Marks Act.

Corrective advertisement. 49. Where, on an application under section 48 the Court is satisfied that a person has engaged in conduct constituting a contravention of section 36 or 41, the Court may make an order requiring the person to publish advertisements in accordance with the order—

- (a) by such means (including a broadcast or Internet publication) as the Court thinks fit;
 (b) at the person’s own expense; and
 (c) at the times specified in the order.

Damages. 50. Where CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user suffers loss or damage as a result of anything done in contravention of section 36 or 41, the amount of the loss or damage may be recovered by action in the Supreme Court.

Account of profits. 51. Where, on the application of CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user, the Court is satisfied that a person has engaged in conduct in contravention of section 36 or 41, the Court may make an order granting relief by way of an account of profits.

52. CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user, is not entitled, in respect of the same contravention of section 36 or 41, to both— Limitation.

- (a) the recovery of loss or damages under section 50; and
- (b) an account of profits under section 51.

53.—(1) Where, on the application of CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user, the Court is satisfied that a person has contravened section 36 or 41 in relation to goods, the Court may order that the goods be— Destruction, delivery etc., of goods.

- (a) destroyed;
- (b) delivered up to CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or to the licensed user, as the case may be; or
- (c) otherwise dealt with in such manner as the Court thinks fit.

(2) A Court may make an order under this section whether or not an injunction is granted under section 48.

(3) Where the Court makes an order under this section, the person against whom the order is granted shall bear the expenses occasioned by the making of the order.

54.—(1) The remedies provided under this Part are in addition to any remedy provided under any other law— Other remedies.

- (a) that confers any rights or powers on CWC 2007 Inc., IDI or a licensed user in relation to conduct of a kind that constitutes a contravention of section 36 or 41;
- (b) relating to engaging in conduct that is misleading or deceptive and, in particular, relating to representations—
 - (i) that goods or services have sponsorship or approval that they do not have; or
 - (ii) that a corporation has a sponsorship, approval or affiliation that it does not have.

(2) The reference in subsection (1) to particular representations does not preclude the application of any law to conduct of a kind that constitutes a contravention of section 36 or 41.

(3) The Court may make any order the effect of which would be to deprive an offender of any economic gain from the goods in relation to which the contravention occurred.

PART VII. Miscellaneous

Compensation.

55.—(1) Where by virtue of any provision of this Act, any right of a person under any law is infringed, that person is entitled to such compensation as assessed by the Court.

(2) In determining claims for compensation for the infringement of any right under this Act, the Court may take into consideration—

- (a) in the case of infringement of property rights, the market value of the property on the date of the infringement;
- (b) any damage sustained by the person at the time of awarding compensation;
- (c) the damage (if any) sustained by the person at the time of awarding compensation by reason of the infringement affecting his other rights or his earnings;
- (d) if in consequence of the infringement, he is compelled to change his residence or place of business, the reasonable expenses incidental to the change.

(3) Nothing in this section limits or shall be construed as limiting any law respecting compensation for the infringement of rights.

Offences by bodies corporate.

56.—(1) Where a body corporate commits an offence against this Act, each person who is a director of the body corporate or an officer concerned in the management of the body corporate is taken to have committed the offence to the same extent as the body corporate unless the court is satisfied that—

- (a) the commission of the offence occurred without the person's knowledge;
- (b) the person was not in a position to influence the conduct of the body corporate in relation to the offence; or
- (c) the person used all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence by the body corporate.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the act and omissions of a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were an officer of the body corporate.

(3) Proceedings may be brought against a person and an order or finding of guilt may be made in respect of the person by virtue of subsection (1) whether or not the body corporate has been or is being proceeded against or an order or finding of guilt has been or will be made in respect of the body corporate.

(4) This section does not affect the liability of a body corporate in relation to an offence committed against this Act or any other Act.

57.—(1) The Minister may make regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act. Regulations.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may provide for—

- (a) the organization, management and control of a CWC 2007 activity and the carrying out of works or activities or providing services for the safe and orderly conduct of such activity;
- (b) the control, management and use of a CWC 2007 venue and the carrying out of works or activities or providing services in, on or near a CWC 2007 venue for the safe and orderly management and use of the CWC 2007 venue;
- (c) the prohibition or regulation of entry into a CWC 2007 venue or part of such venue;
- (d) the prohibition or regulation of the conduct or activities of persons for the purpose of the safe and orderly conduct of CWC 2007 activity or the safe and orderly use of a CWC 2007 venue;
- (e) fees or other charges in connection with the carrying out of works or activities or the provision of services in relation to a CWC 2007 activity or at a CWC 2007 venue.

(3) Regulations made under this section may provide for the imposition on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court of penalties not exceeding a fine of one million dollars or imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) Regulations made under this section shall be subject to negative resolution of the House of Representatives.

Amendment of Schedules.

58. The Minister may by order amend any of the Schedules.

Act to bind
the Crown.

59. This Act binds the Crown.
