THE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING REGULATIONS, 1945

(Made by the Governor in Executive Council on the 24th day of September, 1945)

L.N. 68/45
Amd: 7/48
L.N. 112/48
81/51
50/53

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Agricultural Marketing Regulations, 1945.
2. For the purposes of these Regulations "Registrar" means the Marketing Administrator.
3. The Registrar shall keep a register of producers of specified articles in the form set forth as Form 1 in the Schedule. Form 1.
4. Every producer of an article which has been declared by the Minister to be a specified article shall as soon as may be practicable after the date of such declaration make application to the Registrar in the form set forth as Form 2 in the Schedule to be registered as a producer of such specified article. Form 2.
5. Every applicant for registration shall in his application specify—
 - (1) the quantity of the specified article produced by him during the twelve months immediately preceding the date on which such article was declared to be specified;
 - (2) the price for which he sold such specified article during the period of twelve months aforesaid; and
 - (3) the channels through which he sold such specified article during the said period of twelve months.
- 6.—(1) Where the Registrar is not satisfied with the information given in any application he shall by notice in writing require the applicant to furnish him with such further and better particulars concerning the matter required to be set out in the application as he may require. Every such notice may be posted to the applicant to the address stated in the application.

(2) On the receipt of any such notice the applicant shall forthwith supply the Registrar with all such further and better particulars as are within the power of the applicant to supply.

7. The register shall, in respect of each specified article, come into force on a date five months after the date upon which any such article has been declared by the Minister to be a specified article and as from the date on which the register comes into force every producer of such article shall be required to be registered as a producer thereof.

8. Whenever the Registrar is satisfied that a person has by death or by reason of his ceasing to possess any interest in the lands on which a specified article is produced ceased to be a producer of a specified article he shall cause such person's name to be deleted from the register.

9. Where a registered producer has by declaration satisfied the Registrar that he has for the past two years ceased to produce the article in respect of which he is registered, then the Registrar shall delete the name of such registered producer from the register in respect of such article.

10. Every person who acquires, whether by purchase, transmission, descent or by any other means whatsoever, any interest in land in respect of which his immediate predecessor in title was a registered producer shall within two months of the date on which he acquired such interest make application to the Registrar in the form set forth as Form 3 in the Schedule to be registered as a producer in place of his predecessor in title and the Registrar shall on being satisfied of the change in the interest in the land amend the register accordingly.

Form 3.

11. Whenever the Registrar is satisfied that anything in the register relating to any registered producer or to any of the matters referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection 2 of section 4 of the Act is incorrectly stated therein, he may rectify such entry in the register.

12. No one shall be entitled to inspect or to search the register except by permission of the Registrar, which permission shall be in the discretion of the Registrar to grant or to withhold.

13. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of these Regulations shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations and shall be liable on summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars or to imprisonment with hard labour for any term not exceeding three months.
