RULES
(under section 6)

THE GRAY'S CHARITY RULES, 1941

(Made by the Governor in Privy Council on the 19th day of March, 1941)

G.N. 170/41
Amd.
L.N. 68/42

1. These Rules may be cited as the Gray's Charity Rules, 1941.
2. In these Rules "the Trustees" means the Trustees of Gray's Charity appointed by the Governor-General.
3. The Trustees shall have the management of Gray's Charity and of the property and money belonging thereto and in the exercise of such management shall function as a Board. The quorum of the Board shall be three members.
4. Meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held at least once a quarter and such meetings shall be convened in accordance with a notice in writing issued under the direction of the Chairman and sent to each member. Further notice of such meetings shall also be given by publication in the Gazette.
5. The Trustees shall annually submit to the Governor-General an estimate of expenditure for the coming year and the Governor-General may thereupon fix the expenditure for such year.
6. The Trustees shall have power to appoint and remove all officers of the Gray's Home as may seem to them advisable.
7. The selection of inmates of the Gray's Home shall be restricted to the poor of the district which formed the parish of Saint Mary as it existed in the year 1854. The selection and admission of inmates shall be made and granted by the Trustees.

8. The number of inmates at any one time shall not exceed fourteen and each inmate shall receive an allowance not exceeding ninety cents per week and be also supplied with water and furniture. Inmates are required to provide their own food and to keep their apartments clean.

9. The Matron shall reside on the premises and be responsible for the care of all buldings and furniture belonging to the Charity. She shall be responsible for the good order and discipline of all inmates and servants of the Gray's Home.

10. The Clerk shall visit the Gray's Home at least twice every week and oftener if required to exercise supervision over the Matron and the inmates. In the performance of his duties of supervision he shall have power to settle complaints of an ordinary nature. Complaints of a serious nature shall be dealt with by the Trustees on a report from the Clerk.

11. All accounts of the Charity shall from time to time be examined and audited by the Auditor-General or some person or persons acting under his authority who shall have power to call for any returns, books, vouchers or papers necessary for such examination and audit.
