1. These Rules may be cited as the Registration of Business Names Rules, 1934

1A. In these Rules "Registrar" means the Registrar of Companies as provided in section 17 of the Act.

2. Whenever any change is made or occurs in the proprietorship of any firm the statement of particulars required to be furnished under section 8 of the Act shall be accompanied by the photographs of every new partner or partners. Such photographs shall be of the number and be each duly signed as required under paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (3) of section 5 of the Act.

PROCEDURE UNDER SECTION 16 OF THE ACT

3. Where the Registrar, pursuant to subsection (1) of section 16 of the Act decides to refuse to register any business name or, as the case may be, to remove any business name from the register, he shall send by post to the firm or individual applying for registration or, as the case may be, registered in respect of such business name, a notice in writing of such decision and such notice shall contain a statement that any person aggrieved by such decision may appeal to the Minister within twenty-one days of such notice.

4. If within twenty-one days from the date of the notice of a decision of the Registrar under subsection (1) of section 16 of the Act to remove a business name from the register, no notice of appeal from such decision is received by the Registrar, or if on appeal such decision of the Registrar is upheld, the Registrar shall remove such business name from the register in accordance with his decision.

APPEALS TO THE MINISTER

5. Any person intending to appeal to the Minister from any decision of the Registrar under subsection (1) of section 16 of the Act shall, within twenty-one days of the date of the notice of such decision, send by post or deliver to the Registrar from whose decision he intends to appeal a notice of appeal in Form B.N.7.

Such notice shall be accompanied by a statement of the grounds of appeal and of the appellant's case in support thereof.

6. A copy of the notice of appeal, together with a copy of the statement of the grounds of appeal and of the case in support thereof, and a copy of the notice of the Registrar shall at the same time be delivered by the appellant to the Permanent Secretary to the Minister.

7. Upon receipt of such documents the Minister shall, if the appellant states in his notice of appeal that he desires to be heard by him, fix a time and date for such hearing at which the appellant and the Registrar may attend and be heard. If the appellant does not attend or is not represented on and during the hearing he may be treated as not desiring to be heard and the Minister may proceed to adjudicate on the matter. The hearing may be postponed or adjourned by the Minister.

8. The decision of the Minister shall be communicated to the appellant in writing.

9. The time prescribed in these Rules for doing any act thereunder by or to the Registrar, or by or to the Minister may be enlarged by the Minister upon such terms as he may direct, and such enlargement may be granted though the time has expired for doing such act.

FEEES

10. The fees to be paid to the Registrar under the Act are as follows—

(a) On a statement of particulars required by section 5 of the Act the sum of—

(i) two thousand five hundred dollars for a corporation;
and

(ii) two thousand dollars for sole trader and partnerships, and such fee shall cover the issue of one certificate of registration. In the case of a trader the sum of one thousand dollars for each additional certificate in respect of each place of business other than the principal place of business.

(b) On any statement of particulars required by the Schedule to the Act when such particulars are not furnished with the statement of particulars required by section 5 of the Act the sum of one thousand dollars and such fee shall cover the issue of one certificate of registration.

- (c) On a statement of any change within the meaning of section 8 of the Act the sum of two thousand dollars and such fee shall cover the issue of one certificate of the registration of such statement, and in the case of a trader the sum of five hundred dollars for each certificate in respect of each additional or substituted place of business or branch set out in such statement.
- (d) By any person inspecting under the provisions of section 18 of the Act the documents filed by the Registrar the fee of five hundred dollars and an additional payment of one hundred dollars for the first thirty minutes and fifty dollars for each additional thirty minute period or part thereof.
- (e) On the application of any person requiring under the provisions of section 18 of the Act a certificate of registration of any firm, individual or corporation or a certified copy of or extract from any registered statement the sum of two hundred dollars for a certificate of registration and for each certified copy or extract the sum of one thousand dollars and one hundred dollars per page. In cases where copies of photographs are required to be attached to certificates, certified copies or extracts and there are no spare copies in the Register Office the applicant shall in addition to the fee prescribed for the certificate, certified copy or extract, be required to provide at his own expense the required copy or copies of any photograph.

NOTE: This statement must in all cases (whether or not involving a change of name) be signed by the individual applying for registration and must be sent by post or delivered to the Registrar of Business Names, Registrar-General's Office, Spanish Town, within fourteen days of commencing to carry on business.

Failure without reasonable excuse to furnish the required statement of particulars within the time specified will, in addition to any disability imposed by the Act, entail liability on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten dollars for every day during which the default continues and in default of payment of such fine to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding three months and any statement which contains any matter which is false in any material particular to the knowledge of any person signing it will entail liability on conviction to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding forty dollars and in default of payment of such fine to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding three months; or to both such imprisonment and fine with imprisonment in default.

Where the individual applying for registration carries on the business wholly or mainly as nominee or trustee of or for another person or other persons or a corporation, or acts as general agent for any foreign firm, the additional particulars specified in the Form B.N. 4 must also be furnished on such form and sent by post or delivered to the Registrar in manner and within the times before specified.

Section 2 of the Act provides as follows—

“business by way of trade” means any business of selling by wholesale or retail goods or merchandise of any class or description whatsoever at any place, whether such business is carried on at any place exclusive of any other business or in conjunction with, or in addition to, any other business or any profession or vocation:

Provided that it shall not include—

- (a) the business of buying and selling live stock;
- (b) any of the businesses or occupations mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (e) of subsection (1) of section 3 of the Licences on Trades and Business Act; and
- (c) any retail business the gross value of the premises in which the business is carried on does not amount to twenty dollars, if in any such case the business is not carried on in conjunction with any other business by way of trade;

“trader” means every individual or firm carrying on “business by way of trade” in Jamaica;

References in this Act to a former Christian name or surname shall not, in the case of Commonwealth citizens, include a former Christian name or surname where that name or surname has been changed or disused before the person bearing the name had attained the age of eighteen years, and, in the case of a married woman, shall not include the name or surname by which she was known previous to the marriage.”

Section 5 (3) of the Act provides—

“Every trader shall in addition to the particulars already mentioned furnish to the Registrar the following additional particulars—

- (a) The place or places where each and every branch of the business by way of trade is carried on.
- (b) Three photographs of the individual, or in the case of a firm, of each of the individuals who are partners. Where there is more than one place of business one extra photograph of each individual or of each of the individuals who are partners shall be supplied in respect of each place of business or branch after the first or principal place of business.
- (c) The photograph to be furnished under this section shall be signed, by the individual furnishing the same, before the Registrar or a Justice or Notary Public or a Collector of Taxes or a Solicitor and shall clearly show the features of the individual to the satisfaction of the Registrar and shall be of such size and taken within such time prior to delivery to the Registrar as may be approved by the Registrar.”

Photographs must each be of the size of two and one-half inches square and must have been taken not more than three months prior to delivery to the Registrar. On the photograph the head must not appear less than one and one-half inches.

Wherever the name of a place of business is entered the name of the parish in which such place of business is located must also be entered.
