CHAPTER 394

ANTIQUITIES

Ordinance
No. 9 of 1940,

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE BETTER PRESERVATION OF THE ANTIQUITIES OF SRI LANKA.

[15th July. 1940.]

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Antiquities Ordinance.

and, where any such antiquity is retained by the Archaeological Commissioner on behalf of the State, there shall be paid by the State—

PART I

PROPERTY IN ANTIQUITIES

Property in antiquities.

2. (1) No antiquity shall, by reason only of its being discovered in or upon any land in the ownership of any person, be or be deemed to be the property of such person;

Provided that such person shall be deemed to be interested in such antiquity in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) Every ancient monument which on the date on which this Ordinance comes into operation is not owned by any person or the control of which is not vested in any person as trustee, incumbent or manager, shall be deemed to be the absolute property of the State.

(3) All undiscovered antiquities (other than ancient monuments), whether lying on or hidden beneath the surface of the ground

(a) one-half of the market value of the antiquity to the finder thereof and one-half of such value to the owner of the land in which the antiquity was found, or

(b) where the same person is both the finder of the antiquity and the owner of such land, the whole of the market value of the antiquity to such person, or

(c) where the antiquity is found on State land by any person (other than the Archaeological Commissioner or any person acting under his authority in the discharge of any duty or function under this Ordinance), one-half of the market value of the antiquity to the finder thereof;

Provided that on the retention by the State of any antiquity no such payment as aforesaid shall be made to the finder thereof where the finder has failed to report the discovery of that antiquity in accordance with the provisions of section 10 or section 14, as the case may be.

Payment by the State of market value of certain
antiquities

3. On the discovery of any antiquity (other than an ancient monument), the Archaeological Commissioner, on behalf of the State, shall be entitled to the custody and possession of such antiquity, unless in any case the Archaeological Commissioner does not consider it necessary that such antiquity shall be retained by the State;

4. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3, it shall be lawful for the Archaeological Commissioner, with the approval of the Minister, to enter into an agreement in writing with any person who would under the provisions of section 3 be entitled to the market value of any antiquity or any part of such value, whereby such as to apportionment of antiquities, without payment by the State.

person shall receive from the State, in lieu of such value or part thereof, a share of such antiquity, to be apportioned in such manner as may be provided in the agreement.

(2) Every agreement under subsection (1) shall be free from stamp duty and shall have force and effect notwithstanding anything in section 3 :

Provided always that where the finder of any antiquity does not report the discovery thereof in accordance with the provisions of section 10 or section 14, as the case may be, he shall not be entitled to receive any share of such antiquity under any such agreement.

Dispute as to market value or apportionment of antiquities.

5. Where there is any dispute between the Archaeological Commissioner and any person as to the market value of any antiquity or as to the apportionment of any antiquity in terms of an agreement under section 4, such dispute shall be determined in the manner provided in section 45, and such determination shall be final and conclusive.

PART II

DISCOVERY OF ANTIQUITIES
EXCAVATIONS

No excavation except upon licence from Archaeological Commissioner.

6. Subject as hereinafter provided, no person shall excavate for the purpose of discovering antiquities, whether on land belonging to himself or otherwise, except under the authority of a licence issued by the Archaeological Commissioner:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any excavation carried out by or on behalf of the Archaeological Commissioner.

Application for licence to excavate.

7. Every application for a licence to excavate shall—

- (a) be made to the Archaeological Commissioner in the prescribed form, and

- (b) contain a full and accurate description of the land on which it is proposed to carry out the excavation, the nature and extent of the proposed excavation, and such other particulars as may be prescribed.

8. The Archaeological Commissioner may in his discretion grant or refuse any application for a licence to excavate : Grant or refusal of Licence to excavate.

Provided that no such licence shall be granted unless the Archaeological Commissioner is satisfied, after such inquiry as he may deem it necessary to make—

- (a) that the owner of the land where the proposed excavation is to be made has consented to the excavation, and
- (b) that the proposed excavation will not cause any damage or inconvenience to persons residing in the vicinity of such land, or to any place used for religious purposes, or to any cemetery, school, water source, irrigation work or public road, or that if any such damage is likely to be caused adequate provision has been made by the applicant for the payment of compensation therefor, and
- (c) that the applicant is able to furnish security for the due observance by him of the provisions of this Ordinance or any regulation, and of any conditions subject to which the licence may be issued.

9. Every licence to excavate shall be issued in the prescribed form, subject to the payment of the prescribed fee and shall remain in force, subject to the provisions of section 11, during the period specified in the licence. Terms of licence.

Any such licence may contain, in addition to the prescribed conditions, such stipulations as the Archaeological Commissioner may deem necessary regarding—

- (a) the supervision of the proposed excavation by any person approved by the Archaeological Commissioner for the purpose;
- (b) the payment of remuneration to any such person not being a public officer, or the payment of the prescribed fee in respect of any service rendered by such person being a public officer; and
- (c) the security to be furnished by the licensee for the due observance of the provisions of this Ordinance and of the terms and conditions subject to which the licence is issued.

Duty of licensee in respect of discoveries.

10. Every person to whom a licence to excavate is granted shall keep a record in the prescribed form of all antiquities discovered in the course of the excavation and shall, within the prescribed period from the date on which any antiquity is discovered, report the discovery thereof to the Archaeological Commissioner and furnish to him the prescribed particulars in respect of the antiquity.

Withdrawal of licence without compensation.

11. Any licence to excavate may, at any time before the expiry of the period specified in the licence, be withdrawn by the Archaeological Commissioner and the licensee shall not be entitled to claim compensation for any loss or damage suffered or alleged to have been suffered by him by reason of such withdrawal.

Appeal against refusal or withdrawal of licence to excavate.

12. (1) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the Archaeological Commissioner to issue a licence to excavate or the withdrawal by the Archaeological Commissioner of any such licence may appeal against such refusal or withdrawal to the Minister.

(2) The decision of the Minister on any appeal preferred under subsection (1) shall be final and conclusive.

13. The State shall incur no liability by reason of any loss sustained by any person or any damage caused to any person in the course of any excavation carried on under the authority of a licence granted under this Ordinance.

Immunity of State from claims for loss or damage.

DISCOVERY OF ANTIQUITIES OTHERWISE THAN UNDER A LICENCE TO EXCAVATE

14. (1) Every person who discovers any antiquity otherwise than under the authority of a licence to excavate—

Discovery of antiquities otherwise than under licence to excavate.

- (a) shall forthwith report the discovery to the nearest peace officer and, if it is practicable so to do, deliver the antiquity to such officer and obtain a receipt therefor from such officer, and
- (b) shall, within seven days of the discovery, report the discovery, together with the prescribed particulars relating thereto, to the Government Agent of the district in which the discovery was made.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Government Agent to whom the discovery of any antiquity is reported under paragraph (b) of subsection (1), to communicate forthwith to the Archaeological Commissioner the fact of such discovery together with the particulars furnished to him.

OFFENCES RELATING TO DISCOVERY OF ANTIQUITIES

15. (1) Every person who—

Offences relating to discovery of antiquities.

- (a) excavates in contravention of the provisions of section 6; or

- (b) commits a breach of any condition of any licence issued under section 6; or
- (c) fails to report the discovery of any antiquity in accordance with the provisions of section 10, or commits a breach of any other provision of that section; or
- (d) fails to report the discovery of any antiquity in accordance with the provisions of section 14 or commits a breach of any other provision of

(2) If any person who has been ordered to deliver any antiquity to the Archaeological Commissioner under subsection (1) does not deliver such antiquity within the specified time the Magistrate may order the Fiscal or a peace officer to take immediate possession of such antiquity and deliver it to the Archaeological Commissioner.

PART III

which the Order relates shall be deemed to be an ancient monument and all the provisions of this Ordinance relating to ancient monuments shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such tree as if it were an ancient monument,

20. (1) The owner of any land on which a protected monument is situated and the Archaeological Commissioner may enter into a written agreement providing for the due conservation of such monument and its protection from danger of destruction or removal and from damage by neglect or injudicious treatment.

Agreements in regard to protected monuments.

18. Where it appears to the Minister that any ancient monument situated on any land other than State land is in danger of destruction or removal, or damage from neglect or injudicious treatment, and that it is in the public interest that such monument should be protected, he may, subject to the provisions of section 19, by Order published in the Gazette, declare such monument to be a protected monument; and from the date of the publication of such Order, the monument to which the Order relates shall be a protected monument for the purposes of this Ordinance.

19. (1) No Order under section 18 shall be made unless the Minister has given notice in the Gazette in accordance with the provisions of this section, of his intention to make such Order.

(2) Every notice under subsection (1) shall specify a date on or before which objections to the proposed Order will be received by the Archaeological Commissioner.

(3) Every objection preferred in consequence of a notice under subsection (2) shall be made in writing and shall contain a statement of the grounds upon which the objection is made.

(4) The Archaeological Commissioner shall transmit all objections received by him together with his report thereon to the Minister.

(5) The Minister shall consider all objections transmitted under subsection (4) and may for the purpose of investigating any such objection make or cause to be made such inquiry as to him may seem

(2) Every agreement entered into under subsection (1) shall be free of stamp duty.

21. (1) No person shall, except under the authority and in accordance with the conditions of a permit issued by the Archaeological Commissioner, or in accordance with an agreement entered into under section 20, commence or carry out any work of restoration, repair, alteration or addition in connexion with any protected monument.

No restoration, &c., of protected monument, except upon permit.

(2) Every permit under subsection (1) shall be issued in the prescribed form subject to the prescribed conditions and may contain such additional conditions as the Archaeological Commissioner may deem fit to insert therein regarding—

- (a) the supervision of the proposed work by the Archaeological Commissioner or by any person approved by him for the purpose; and
- (b) the payment of remuneration to any such person, not being a public officer, or the payment of the prescribed fee in respect of any service rendered by such person, being a public officer.

22. (1) The Archaeological Commissioner may in his discretion—

Refusal or revocation of permit under section 21.

- (a) refuse to issue a permit under section 21 in any case in which he is of opinion that the applicant for such permit is unable to carry out and authorize which such permit is applied for, or that such work is unnecessary;

- (b) after notice in writing to the holder of any such permit revoke such permit, if he is of opinion that the work is not being carried out satisfactorily or in accordance with the conditions and restrictions subject to which such permit was issued.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the refusal or revocation of any permit by the Archaeological Commissioner may appeal against such refusal or revocation to the Minister whose decision on any such appeal shall be final and conclusive.

23. (1) Where a permit under section 21 has not been issued in respect of any protected monument, or where any such permit has been revoked, the Archaeological Commissioner may, with the approval of the Minister, carry out or cause to be carried out under and in accordance with his directions such work of restoration, repair, alteration or addition in connexion with that monument as to him may seem expedient.

(2) It shall be the duty of the owner of any monument, in connexion with which any work is authorized to be carried out under subsection (1), to permit the Archaeological Commissioner or any person acting under the directions of the Archaeological Commissioner to enter the land in which that monument is situated and to do all such acts as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out such work; and such owner shall not be entitled to claim compensation for any loss or damage suffered or alleged to have been suffered by him by reason of the execution of such work or any part of such work.

24. (1) Regulations may be made prohibiting, or restricting subject to the prescribed conditions, the erection of buildings or the carrying on of mining, quarrying, or blasting operations on any land within the prescribed distance of any ancient monument situated on State land or any protected monument.

(2) Every regulation made under subsection (1) shall have effect notwithstanding anything in any other written law; but nothing in any such regulation shall permit or be deemed to permit the erection of any building or the carrying on of any operations mentioned in subsection (1) in contravention of any provision of such other law.

25. (1) The owner of any land affected by any prohibition or restriction in any regulation made under section 24 who suffers any loss or damage by reason of any such prohibition or restriction, may forward to the Archaeological Commissioner within the prescribed period a claim for compensation in respect of such loss or damage:

Claim for compensation by owner of land affected by regulations under section 24.

Provided, however, that where the owner of any land on which any ancient monument is situated commences the erection of any building or the carrying on of any mining, quarrying or blasting operations on such land after a notice of the intention to declare such monument to be a protected monument is published in the Gazette under section 19, he shall not be entitled to any compensation for any loss or damage suffered by reason of the prohibition or restriction of such erection or operations by any regulation made under section 24.

(2) Every claim made under subsection (1) shall specify—

- (a) the amount of compensation claimed;
- (b) the grounds on which the claim is based;
- (c) the person chosen by the claimant as a member of the compensation board to be established under section 26 in respect of that claim; and
- (d) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

Power of Archaeological Commissioner to restore, repair, &c., protected monuments.

Prohibition or restriction of building, mining, &c., in vicinity of certain monuments.

(3) The Archaeological Commissioner shall transmit every claim received by him under subsection (1) to the Minister and shall specify the person chosen by him as a member of the compensation board to be established under section 26 in respect of that claim.

(4) No person who fails to make a claim under subsection (1) within the period prescribed for the purposes of that subsection shall be entitled to any compensation for any loss or damage for which a claim under that subsection might have been made, and no action in respect of any such loss or damage shall be entertained by any court or tribunal.

(5) Any compensation determined by a compensation board under section 27 or, where an appeal is preferred to a District Court, by a District Court under section 30, shall be paid to the claimant out of funds provided by Parliament for the payment of compensation to claimants under this section.

Establishment of compensation board.

26. (1) The Minister shall, on the receipt of any claim under section 25, establish a compensation board (hereinafter referred to as "the board") and shall refer the claim to such board.

(2) The board shall consist of a chairman, who shall be nominated by the Minister, and the two persons chosen by the claimant and the Archaeological Commissioner under section 25.

Decision of the board after inquiry.

27. (1) The board shall inquire into the claim referred to it under section 26 and give its decision as to the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be paid to the claimant.

(2) Where the board is not unanimous in its decision, the decision of the majority of the members shall be the decision of the board.

(3) Where a majority of the members of the board are unable to agree on the decision, the decision of the chairman shall be the decision of the board.

28. (1) For the purpose of holding any inquiry under section 27 the board shall have and may exercise the same powers as a civil court in relation to—

Powers of the board.

- (a) the enforcing of the attendance of any person and his examination on oath;
- (b) the enforcing of the production of documents; and
- (c) the issuing of commissions for the examination on interrogatories or otherwise of any person, and the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code shall, for the purpose of the exercise of such powers, apply to proceedings by or before the board as if such board were a court and such proceedings were an action instituted in a court under that Code.

(2) The claimant and the Archaeological Commissioner shall be entitled to appear before the board either in person or by pleader and place before it such evidence whether oral or documentary as may help the board to determine the amount of compensation, if any, to be awarded.

(3) At an inquiry under this section the chairman of the board shall keep or cause to be kept a full record of the proceedings, and shall either at the conclusion of the inquiry or on a date to be later notified to the parties pronounce the decision of the board which must be in writing signed by the chairman.

(4) At any time after the decision of the board has been pronounced, either of the parties to the inquiry or any person establishing to the satisfaction of the Minister that he is a person interested in the subject-matter of the inquiry shall be entitled, upon prepayment of the copying and other charges payable under section 3 of the Proof of Public Documents Ordinance, to obtain a copy of the proceedings before the board certified under the hand of the public officer entrusted with the duty of keeping the records of the board:

Provided that such public officer shall not be required to issue a certified copy during the pendency of an appeal to the District Court.

Appeal to District Court from decision of the board and procedure thereon.

29. (1) The claimant or the Archaeological Commissioner may in the manner hereinafter provided appeal from any decision of the board to the District Court of the district in which the land in respect of which compensation has been claimed is situate (hereinafter referred to as " the court ").

(2) Every appeal under subsection (1) shall be by written petition signed by the appellant or his attorney-at-law and shall be lodged with the Registrar of the court not later than thirty days from the date of the decision of the board.

(3) The petition of appeal shall state—

- (a) the full name and address of the respondent,
- (b) the grounds of appeal, and
- (c) the relief prayed for.

(4) The appellant or his attorney-at-law shall together with the petition of appeal deliver a typed or printed copy of the petition of appeal certified under the hand of the appellant or his attorney-at-law.

(5) On the lodgement of the petition of appeal together with a certified copy thereof, the court shall inform the public officer entrusted with the duty of keeping the records of the board that an appeal has been lodged and require him to forward to the court within a specified time the record of the proceedings in respect of which the appeal has been lodged with the written decision of the board.

(6) Upon the receipt of the record of the proceedings and the written decision of the board the court shall cause to be served on the respondent the certified copy of the petition of appeal together with a notice stating the date and time fixed for the hearing of the appeal.

30. (1) The court shall have full power to hear and determine an appeal under section 29, and the provisions of sections 769, 770, 771, 772 and 774 of the Civil Procedure Code shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the hearing by the court of appeals from the board:

Hearing of appeal by the court and its powers.

Provided that in every case the judgment of the court shall be signed and dated by the District Judge.

(2) At the hearing of the appeal the parties shall not be entitled to rely on any evidence that has not been placed before the board:

Provided that the court may call for any evidence which in the judgment of the court is necessary for the decision of the appeal.

(3) The court may confirm the decision of the board or reduce or increase the amount of compensation awarded by the board and make such other order as to costs or otherwise as the court shall deem just.

(4) The decision of the court shall be final and no appeal from or application for revision of any decision of the court shall lie to the Court of Appeal.

(5) No stamp duties shall be required in any proceedings in the court under sections 29 and 30.

(6) The court may upon prepayment of the charges payable under section 205 of the Civil Procedure Code authorize the Registrar to furnish to any party to an appeal a certified copy of the record of the proceedings of the board in respect of which the appeal has been lodged, at any time after the record has been received in the court and before its decision is pronounced.

(7) The court shall after the decision of an appeal return the record of the proceedings of the board to the public officer entrusted with the duty of keeping the records of the board.

31. Any person who—

- (a) wilfully destroys, injures, defaces or tampers with any protected monument or any ancient monument on State land ; or
- (b) does in, upon, to, near or in respect of any ancient monument which is held sacred or in veneration by any class of persons, any act which wounds or offends or is likely to wound or offend the religious susceptibilities of the class of persons by whom such ancient monument is held sacred or in veneration, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding one year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

32. Every person who commits a breach of—

- (a) any provision of section 21, or
- (b) any regulation made under section 24,

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding one year.

PART IV

ARCH/EOLOGICAL RESERVES

33. (1) The Archaeological Commissioner may—

- (a) with the approval of the Land Commissioner, or

(b) if approval is refused by the Land Commissioner, with the approval of the Minister to whom the subject of State lands is for the time being assigned, declare, by notification published in the Gazette, any specified area of that land to be an archaeological reserve for the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) Any area of State land reserved for archxological purposes before the date on which this Ordinance comes into operation, whether by notification in the Gazette or otherwise, shall be deemed to be an archaeological reserve declared under the provisions of this section.

34. Every person (other than the Archaeological Commissioner, or a person acting under and in accordance with his directions) who—

- (a) clears or breaks up for cultivation or cultivates any part of an archxological reserve, or
- (b) erects any building or structure upon any such reserve, or
- (c) fells or otherwise destroys any tree standing on any such reserve, or
- (d) otherwise encroaches on any such reserve, been declared to be the property of the State under the Land Settlement Ordinance or under any enactment repealed by that Ordinance, or has been acquired by the State under the Land Acquisition Act or the Land Acquisition Ordinance* or has been resumed by the State under the Lands Resumption Ordinance or has been in the possession of the State immediately before the date on which the offence is committed.

Ejection of person convicted under section 34.

35. (1) Where no appeal has been preferred against the conviction of any person of an offence under section 34, or, where an appeal has been preferred, after the final judgment or order of the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court, as the case may be, affirming the conviction, the Magistrate may on the application of the Archaeological Commissioner make order directing the Fiscal or a peace officer to eject the person convicted from the archaeological reserve and to deliver possession thereof to the Archaeological Commissioner or his representative.

(2) The Fiscal or peace officer shall comply with the directions of the Magistrate under subsection (1) and shall make due return to the Magistrate's Court of the manner in which he executed the order.

(3) In complying with the directions issued under subsection (1) the Fiscal or peace officer or any officer authorized by either of them may use such force as may be necessary to enter the archaeological reserve, to eject the person convicted and to deliver possession of the archaeological reserve to the Archaeological Commissioner or his representative.

PART V

EXPORT OF ANTIQUITIES

Prohibition of export of antiquities except upon licence.

36. (1) No person shall, except upon a licence in the prescribed form issued by the Archaeological Commissioner, export any antiquity from Sri Lanka.

(2) For the purposes of the application of the provisions of the Customs Ordinance, antiquities shall be deemed to be articles the exportation of which is restricted by enactment or legal order.

37. (1) Every application for a licence under section 36 shall be made to the Archaeological Commissioner in the prescribed form, shall set out a list of the antiquities sought to be exported, and shall contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.

Applications for licence to export antiquities.

(2) If the Archaeological Commissioner is of opinion that any antiquity sought to be exported should be acquired for the Colombo or other museum in Sri Lanka or that for any other reason it is not desirable that such antiquity should be exported, he may refuse to issue a licence under section 36 in respect of that antiquity.

38. (1) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the Archaeological Commissioner under section 37 to issue any licence may appeal against such refusal to the Minister.

Appeal against refusal of licence.

(2) The decision of the Minister on any appeal preferred under subsection (1) shall be final and conclusive.

39. (1) Where a licence to export any antiquity has been refused on the ground that such antiquity should be acquired for the Colombo or other museum in Sri Lanka, and there is a dispute between the authority empowered to purchase objects for the use of such museum and the owner of the antiquity as to the price to be paid therefor, such price shall be determined in the manner provided in section 45, and such determination shall be final and conclusive. On payment of the price so determined the antiquity shall become the absolute property of the museum.

PART VII

MISCELLANEOUS

44. Every person who commits a breach of any provision of this Ordinance or of any regulation shall be guilty of an offence and shall, where no penalty is specially provided by this Ordinance for such offence be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty for breach of Ordinance or regulation, where no other penalty provided.

45. Every dispute under section 5 or section 39 shall be referred to arbitrators, one to be chosen by each of the interested parties; and the arbitrators shall, before proceeding to decide the matter of the dispute, select an umpire whose decision, in the event of a disagreement between the arbitrators, shall be final;

Determination of disputes under sections 5 and 39.

Provided that where—

- (a) the interested parties do not appoint an arbitrator, or
- (b) the arbitrators do not select an umpire, the Minister may after such time as he may deem reasonable appoint an arbitrator or an umpire as the case may be.

Informer's
Share of fines imposed under the Ordinance.

46. In any case in which any person is sentenced to pay a fine under this Ordinance, the court may direct that any part, not exceeding one-half, of such fine or of so much as shall actually be recovered shall be paid to any person through whose information the conviction has been obtained.

Regulations.

47. (1) The Minister may make regulations for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to the principles and provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by subsection (1), the Minister may make regulations for or in respect of all or any of the following matters:—

- (a) the manner in which security shall be furnished by any person to whom a licence under section 6 is issued, and the procedure for enforcing such security;
