(Act 4 of 2013)

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE GRANTING OF NATIONAL HONOURS AND AWARDS, NATIONAL YOUTH AWARDS AND FOR RELATED MATTERS.

Commencement

[15 April 2013]

PART 1

PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the National Honours and Awards Act.

Interpretation

2. In this Act—

“Committee” means the National Honours and Awards Committee established under section 4;

“Montserratian” has the meaning assigned in section 107(2) of the Montserrat Constitution Order 2010;

“Premier” means the person appointed as such under section 33(1) of the Montserrat Constitution Order 2010; and

“Secretary” means the Secretary to the National Honours and Awards Committee appointed under section 6(1).

PART 2

NATIONAL HONOURS AND AWARDS

Establishment of Honours and Awards

3. (1) There is established the following national honours and awards—

- (a) the Order of National Hero;
- (b) the Order of Excellence;
- (c) the Order of Distinction; and
- (d) the Order of Merit.

- (2) The honours and awards mentioned in subsection (1) have the rank and precedence in the order in which they appear.

(3) The Order of National Hero is the highest award and is granted to a Montserratian who, by exceptional and extraordinary service, has changed the course of the country and significantly transformed the lives of Montserratians.

(4) The Order of Excellence is awarded to a Montserratian—

- (a) who, by extraordinary and unwavering commitment and devoted and distinguished service has contributed significantly to the development of Montserrat and positively projected its image; or
- (b) for exceptional achievements in any field or discipline at the national, regional or international level.

(5) The Order of Distinction is awarded to a Montserratian who—

- (a) in any field, has given distinguished and outstanding service; or
- (b) has attained remarkable achievement at the national level or made remarkable contribution on a national level.

(6) The Order of Merit is awarded to a Montserratian for meritorious contribution to national development in the field of arts, science, commerce, sports, education, governance, philanthropy, community service or any related area.

(7)* The provisions of Schedule 1 apply in respect of each of the honours and awards established under subsection (1).

National Honours and Awards Committee

4. (1) There is a National Honours and Awards Committee, which consists of a Chairperson and six other members who must be persons of integrity and high public standing.

(2) The Premier must appoint—

- (a) the Chairperson of the Committee, after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition;
- (b) three members of the Committee, in accordance with the advice of the Leader of the Opposition; and
- (c) three members of the Committee, acting in his own discretion.

(3) In the process of consultation with the Leader of the Opposition for the appointment of the Chairperson, the Premier must use his best endeavours to secure the agreement of the Leader of the Opposition.

(4) The Schedule 2 has effect as to the tenure of and procedure to be followed by the Committee and otherwise in relation to the Committee.

* There was no reference in Act No. 4 of 2013 to Schedule 1.

Duties of the Committee

5. It is the duty of the Committee, with a view to the proper carrying out of the provisions of this Act—

- (a) to receive and consider nominations for honours and awards;
- (b) to make investigations as it thinks fit to determine persons, living or dead, upon whom may be conferred the honours and awards under this Act;
- (c) to prepare a list of recommendations for the conferment of honours and awards; and
- (d) to undertake any other duty in relation to this Act as may be assigned by the Premier.

Secretary of the Committee

6. (1) There is a Secretary to the Committee, who is appointed by the Premier, but the Secretary is not a member of the Committee.

(2) The Secretary must—

- (a) maintain records of all honours and awards conferred under this Act;
- (b) record the minutes of each meeting of the Committee in proper form
- (c) arrange for investitures; and
- (d) perform any other function as the Committee may direct.

Nominations for conferment of honours and awards

7. A person may nominate a person for the bestowal of an honour or award and the nomination must be submitted in writing to the Secretary of the Committee for consideration by the Committee.

Conferment of honours and awards

8. (1) The Premier may, at a public ceremony, confer the honours and awards referred to in section 3(1) on persons who are, under section 3(3), (4), (5) and (6), deemed by the Committee to be worthy of the honours and awards.

(2) The honour of national hero may be conferred upon a person posthumously or during his lifetime and where the honour is to be granted posthumously, it may be conferred upon a person appearing on behalf of the national hero.

(3) The name of every person upon whom an honour or award has been bestowed must be published in the Gazette.

Wearing of the insignia

9. A person upon whom an honour or award has been conferred is entitled to wear as a decoration the prescribed insignia or medal relating to the honour or award conferred upon him.

Tokens of recognition

10. Despite any other enactment, the Premier, in consultation with Cabinet, may—

- (a) with money made available for the purpose by the Legislative Assembly, purchase or, in the case of Crown land, reserve any land and construct on it a park, garden or other place dedicated as a token of recognition to a national hero or to national heroes and may, in accordance with a resolution of the Legislative Assembly, name the park, garden or other place accordingly;
- (b) provide for the subscription to, and the production and erection of, any monument, statue, plaque, memorial or other token of recognition of a national hero;
- (c) name or rename any public building, structure or other Crown property, or any place or locality or physical or geographical feature, in recognition of a national hero; and
- (d) take any other action as he considers appropriate to recognise a national hero for his service to Montserrat.

Times of grant of honours and awards

11. Honours and awards granted under this Act may be made once a year, on a day to be determined by the Premier.

Unauthorised use of insignia etc

12. A person who—

- (a) without lawful authority uses or wears any insignia, medal or decoration supplied or authorised in connection with any honour or award conferred under this Act, or any insignia, medal or decoration so nearly resembling the same as to be calculated to deceive;
- (b) falsely represents himself to be a person who is or has been entitled to use or wear the insignia, medal or decoration; or
- (c) without lawful authority or excuse, supplies or offers to supply the insignia, medal or decoration to a person not authorised to use or wear it, commits a summary offence and is liable to a fine of $1,000.

Abuse in connection with the grant of honours

- 13. (1) A person who—
- (a) accepts;
 - (b) obtains;
 - (c) agrees to accept; or
 - (d) attempts to obtain,

from another person for himself or for any other person for any purpose, any gift, money or valuable consideration as an inducement or reward for procuring or assisting or endeavouring to procure the grant of an honour or award under this Act to any person or otherwise in connection with the grant, commits a summary offence.

(2) A person who gives or agrees or proposes to give or offer to another person any gift, money or valuable consideration as an inducement or reward for procuring or assisting or endeavouring to procure the grant of an honour or award under this Act, or otherwise in connection with the grant, commits a summary offence.

(3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable to a fine of $2,000.

Revocation of honour or award

14. The Committee may revoke the honour or award granted to a person if the person—

- (a) commits an offence under section 12(c); or
- (b) engages in any act that, in the opinion of the Committee, brings the honours system into disrepute.
