Governor

DATE:3.1.12

M O N T S E R R A T

No. 21 of 2011

AN ACT TO AMEND THE INCOME AND CORPORATION TAX ACT
(CAP 17.01).

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Montserrat, and by the Authority of the same as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement

This Act may be cited as the Income and Corporation Tax (Amendment) Act, 2011 and comes into force on a date fixed by the Governor acting on the advice of Cabinet.

2. Interpretation

In this Act—

“principal Act” means the Income and Corporation Tax Act, (Cap. 17.01).

3. Section 3 amended

Section 3 of the principal Act is amended by deleting from paragraph (h) the following words—

“greater than $36,000 per annum”.

4. Section 6 amended

Section 6 of the principal Act is amended as follows—

(a) by deleting paragraph (j) and substituting the following—

“(j) the income derived by the Premier from the occupation of his official residence; this exemption does not apply to any housing allowance paid to, or housing benefit received by the Premier if no official residence is provided;” and

(b) by deleting paragraph (oo) and substituting the following immediately after paragraph (o)—

“(oa) the interest payable to an individual on —
(i) a savings account; or
(ii) interest bearing deposits;”.

5. Section 21 amended

Section 21 of the principal Act is deleted and the following substituted—

“21. (1) A person engaged in any trade, business or in any profession shall keep in the English language proper books of account sufficient to record all transactions necessary in order to ascertain the gains and profits made or the loss incurred in the trade, business or profession, and the books of account shall be kept for at least seven years following their creation.

- (2) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) is guilty of an offence, and in addition to any penalty incurred, he is liable to pay any tax to which he may be assessed under this Act.”

6. Section 34 amended

Section 34 of the principal Act is amended by deleting subsections (2) and (3) and substituting the following—

“(2) An individual who has primary responsibility for caring for an incapacitated dependent who continuously resides with him during the basic year is entitled to an allowance of $2,400 in the year of assessment commencing on January 1, 2005.

(3) An individual is entitled, from assessment year 2011, in respect of each of the individual’s incapacitated dependent—

- (a) that is wholly maintained by the individual, to an allowance of $2,400; or
- (b) that is maintained jointly with one or more other individuals, to a proportion of the allowance of $2,400 that the Comptroller of Inland Revenue considers to reflect the proportion to which the individual maintains the incapacitated dependent.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (3)—

“incapacitated dependent” means a person—

Income and Corporation Tax (Amendment) Act, 2011

No. 21 of 2011

- (a) who is rendered unable to work as a result of a disability of the body or mind;
 - (b) whom the Comptroller considers, having regard to the place of residence of the person as indicated by a certificate from the Community Services Department or otherwise, is in whole or in part maintained by the individual; and
 - (c) who is not entitled to a pension, income or social welfare benefit exceeding $7,200 in total per year;
- (5) An individual who makes payments in respect of life or health insurance premiums, on his own behalf and that of his family members on the policy (which is limited to spouse and children under the age of 25 in full time education) during the basic year, is entitled to allowances in respect of payments commencing assessment year January 1, 2008.
- (6) An individual is entitled, from assessment year 2011, to an allowance, subject to a maximum of $4,000, of the amount of the total premiums that he proves to the satisfaction of the Comptroller was paid on a policy that he owns in that year in respect of life or health insurance for:
- (a) the individual; and
 - (b) the individual's husband or wife; and
 - (c) any child of the individual, whether natural or adopted, who has not attained the age of 25 and is in full time education.
- (7) An individual is entitled, from assessment year 2005, to an allowance in respect of payments of social security contributions made on his own behalf that he proves to the satisfaction of the Comptroller were paid in that year.”

7. Section 38 amended

Section 38(2) of the principal Act is deleted and the following is substituted—

“(2) The amount of tax so deducted is to be set off against the tax payable by that person for the year of assessment in which such deduction is made.”.

8. Section 51 amended

Section 51 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by deleting subsection (1) and substituting the following—

“(1) It shall be the duty of every person who receives an income to deliver to the Comptroller on or before the thirty-first day of March in each year, or such other date as may be prescribed, a true and correct return in the form and manner prescribed, of the whole of his income from every source whatever for the basic year and if absent from Montserrat to give the name and address of an agent residing in Montserrat.”

(b) by inserting the following as subsection (1A):

“(1A) A person may, in accordance with section 5 of the Electronic Transactions Act, 2009 (No. 7 of 2009), deliver the return in subsection (1) online in the prescribed form.”

(c) in subsection (2), by deleting the words “thirty-first day of January” and substituting the words “thirty-first day of March”.

(d) by inserting the following as subsection (2A):

“(2A) A person who fails to deliver a true and correct return under subsection (1) shall pay a fine of $10 in respect of each month he fails to submit a return.”

(e) by inserting at the beginning of subsection (3) the words “ Subject to subsection (2A),”.

9. Section 75 amended

Section 75 of the principal Act is deleted and replaced with the following—

“75. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a person who defaults on the payment of tax in excess of $20 on the due date is liable to a penalty of 5% of the tax in arrears.

(2) The provisions of this Act relating to the collection and recovery of tax apply to the collection and recovery of the penalties in subsection (1).

(3) The Comptroller may waive the penalty in subsection (1) if—

(a) he is satisfied that the failure to pay on or before the due date was not due to wilful negligence; and

(b) the person makes arrangements, which are satisfactory to the Comptroller for the payment of the arrears, before the expiration of 30 days from the due date, or any
