Sub-Part II – Investigation into Financial Crimes and Other Offences

57. Preliminary investigation by Commission

(1) Where, under sections 54, 55 and 56, or on its own initiative, or upon a referral of an information by the Director of any Division, the Commission becomes aware that an offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act has been, is being or is likely to be committed, it shall decide whether to refer the matter for a preliminary investigation.

(2) The Director of the Investigation Division or of the Asset Recovery and Management Division shall, within 30 working days of a referral under subsection (1) or within such other period as the Commission may direct, report to the Commission on the matter.

(3) The Commission shall, on receipt of a report under subsection (2), make a determination as whether to –

- (a) proceed with a further investigation; or
- (b) discontinue the investigation.

(4) The Commission may, in making a determination whether to proceed with a further investigation under subsection (3)(a), consider –

- (a) the seriousness of the conduct or involvement to which the allegation relates;
- (b) whether or not the allegation is frivolous or vexatious;
- (c) whether or not the conduct or involvement to which the allegation relates is or has been the subject of a criminal enquiry or other action by an investigatory authority under any other law; and

- (d) whether or not, in all the circumstances, the carrying out of an investigation for the purposes of this Act in relation to the allegation will disclose the commission or likelihood of the commission of an offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act.

58. Further investigation by Commission

(1) Where the Commission makes a determination to proceed with a further investigation pursuant to section 57(3)(a), the investigation shall be carried out by the Director of the Investigation Division or of the Asset Recovery and Management Division, as the case may be, under the responsibility of the Director-General.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), the Director-General may delegate such of his powers as he considers appropriate to the Director of the Investigation Division, the Director of the Asset Recovery and Management Division or to any other officer.

(3) The Director-General shall, during the course of an investigation, ensure that there is an appropriate mechanism in place to coordinate parallel and complex investigations.

(4) Where, during the course of an investigation, any other offence is detected and which relates to a financial crime, the Commission shall also investigate into that other offence.

(5) The Commission may, in carrying out an investigation, conduct such hearings as it considers appropriate and, for that purpose –

- (a) the hearing shall be conducted by the Director-General or an officer designated by the Director-General;
- (b) the Chief Legal Adviser, or an officer of the Legal Division deputed by the Chief Legal Adviser, shall be in attendance and shall provide legal advice to the Commission;

- (c) the hearing may, at the discretion of the Director-General, be conducted in public or in private;
 - (d) where the Director-General decides that the hearing shall not be conducted in public, no person shall make any report of the hearing unless he has obtained the prior written permission of the Director-General;
 - (e) any person who is required by the Commission to attend the hearing shall be entitled to be represented by a law practitioner of his choice; and
 - (f) where the hearing is conducted by the Director-General, the Director-General may take a deposition on oath or solemn affirmation and may administer the oath or solemn affirmation to any person attending the hearing.

(6) Any person who, in the course of a hearing under subsection (4), knowingly makes a statement which is false or misleading in a material particular, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

(7) After conclusion of an investigation, the Director-General shall submit a report to the Commission.

(8) On receipt of a report under subsection (7), the Commission may decide –

- (a) whether to institute criminal proceedings for an offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act in accordance with section 142;
- (b) whether to discontinue the investigation; or
- (c) on any other course of action as it may deem fit and proper taking into consideration all circumstances of the case.

59. Power of examination

(1) Where the Commission requires a person for the purpose of an investigation, the Director-General may –

- (a) order any person to attend before him for the purpose of being examined orally in relation to any matter;
- (b) order any person to produce before him any book, document, record or article;
- (c) order that information which is stored in a computer, a disc, a cassette or on a microfilm, or preserved by any mechanical or electronic device, be communicated in a form in which it can be taken away and which is visible and legible; or
- (d) by written notice, order a person to furnish a statement in writing made under oath or affirmation setting out all information which may be required under the notice.

(2) A person on whom an order under subsection (1) is served shall –

- (a) comply with the order;
- (b) attend before the Director-General in accordance with the terms of the order;
- (c) continue to attend on such other days as the Director-General may direct until the examination is completed; and
- (d) subject to subsection (4), answer any question, produce any book, document, record or article, or give such information or statement as the Director-General may order.

(3) Where the Director-General has reasonable grounds to suspect that any book, document, record or article produced under subsection (2)(d) may provide evidence relevant to an investigation being carried out by the Commission, he may –

- (a) where the book, document, record or article is not reasonably required for the purpose of performing any duty under any enactment, retain the book, document, record or article, as the case may be, until its production in Court or until such earlier time as may be required; or

- (b) make certified copies of, or take records from, the book, document or record.

(4) A person may refuse to answer any question put to him, refuse to produce any book, document, record or article, or refuse to give any information or statement where the answer to the question, the production of the book, document, record or article, or the giving of the information or statement may incriminate him.

(5) Subsection (4) shall not apply where the Director-General gives an undertaking in writing to a person that any answer given, any book, document, record or article produced, or any information or statement given will not be used in evidence in any criminal proceedings against him for an offence other than proceedings for perjury.

(6) Where an undertaking is given under subsection (5), no Court shall admit the answer, book, document, record, article, information or statement referred to in the undertaking in any criminal proceedings against the person to whom the undertaking was given, except in proceedings for perjury.

(7) Any person who, after having been served with an order under subsection (1) –

- (a) fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with any of the terms of the order;
- (b) conceals, destroys, alters, tampers with, removes from the place where it is habitually kept, or otherwise disposes of, a book, document, record or article referred to in the order, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

(8) Where a person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with an order under subsection (1), the Director-General may authorise an officer to arrest the person and compel him to comply with that subsection.

60. Power of entry and search

(1) Where the Director-General has reasonable grounds to suspect that there is, on any premises, other than on specified premises referred to in section 64 or in any place of business, evidence which may assist it in an investigation, he may issue a warrant to an officer authorising him to enter and search, at all reasonable times, the said premises.

(2) A search under subsection (1) shall, so far as is practicable, be carried out in the presence of the owner or occupier of the premises, or his duly authorised agent.

(3) An authorised officer shall, prior to a search under subsection (1), deliver a photocopy of the warrant to the owner or occupier of the premises, or his duly authorised agent against receipt acknowledged by a signature on the original of the warrant.

(4) Where a search is effected under subsection (1), the authorised officer effecting the search may –

- (a) seize and take possession of any book, document, record, article, disk, computer system or other article, whether in electronic or digital record, or any electronic or communication device;
- (b) inspect, make copies of, or take extracts from, any book, document or record;
- (c) search any person who is on the premises, detain him for the purpose of the search, and seize any article found on such person; or
- (d) break open, examine, and search any article, safe, container or receptacle.

(5) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Director-General shall have the power to examine any book, document, record, article, disk, computer system or other article, whether in electronic or digital record, or any electronic or communication device seized under this section and any information obtained shall be admissible as evidence in any Court.

61. Seizure of property

(1) Where, in the course of an investigation under this Act or for any other purpose under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act, the Director-General is satisfied that a property is the subject matter of, or relates to, an offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act, the Director-General may seize that property.

(2) The Director-General shall keep a record of property seized under subsection (1) and shall cause a copy of that record to be served on the person from whom the property was seized.

(3) A seizure effected under subsection (1) shall be effected by placing the property seized under the custody of such person and at such place as the Director-General may determine.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), where the Director-General considers that it is not practicable to remove the property, he may leave it at the premises on which it is found under the custody of such person as he may direct for that purpose.

(5) Where property seized under subsection (1) is under the custody of a third party, the Director-General may direct that third party not to dispose of, or otherwise deal with, the property without his consent in writing.

(6) In this section –

“property” includes any property which is reasonably believed by the Commission to be proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property.

62. Power of arrest

(1) Where the Director-General is satisfied, with regard to an investigation or prosecution for an offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act, that person –

- (a) has interfered with a potential witness;
- (b) has destroyed or intends to destroy evidence in his possession; or
- (c) has otherwise interfered with the investigation, the Commission may, in writing, direct an officer to arrest that person.

(2) Where a person is arrested under subsection (1), he –

- (a) shall forthwith be brought to the office of the Commission;
- (b) shall be explained his constitutional rights and given the right to contact his legal representative;
- (c) shall be allowed prompt access to his legal representative;
- (d) may be questioned through a video recording; and
- (e) shall be brought before a Magistrate who may impose such conditions as he considers necessary for his release.

63. Disclosure of financial transactions and any other information

(1) (a) Where the Commission has reasonable grounds to suspect that –

- (i) any property in the possession, or under the control, of a person is proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property;
- (ii) customer information or account information of any person is likely to be of substantial value to any other application made under this Act, or any investigation being carried out under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act, by the Commission; and

- (iii) it is in the public interest that the customer information or account information be provided, it may, by way of an ex parte application, apply to a Judge for an Order to direct a financial institution to provide such customer information or account information, including any details pertaining to financial transactions, as it may have relating to the person specified in the application.

(b) Where any customer information or account information is contained in an electronic device, a Judge may direct the financial institution to provide it in a form in which it is accessible or may be taken away.

(c) Where the Judge issues an Order under this subsection, the financial institution shall, within 21 days of the Order, provide the customer information or account information to the Commission.

(d) Where a financial institution fails to comply with an Order under this subsection, it shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees.

(2) (a) Where the Commission has reasonable grounds to suspect that a law practitioner is in possession of any document, book, record or any other information which may assist the Commission in an investigation under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act, the Commission may, notwithstanding section 10C(4)(b) of the Law Practitioners Act and section 3(4)(c) of the Notaries Act, apply to a Judge for an Order of disclosure of such document, book, record or information.

(b) A Judge shall not issue an Order under paragraph (a) unless a Judge is satisfied that –

- (i) the document, book, record or information is material for the purpose of an investigation that the Commission is carrying out or a contemplated criminal proceedings;

- (ii) having regard to the need to protect legal professional privilege, it is in the public interest that the Order be issued; or
- (iii) the disclosure is otherwise necessary, in all circumstances.

(3) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Commission may, for the purpose of an investigation or a prosecution for an offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act, direct any person, bank, financial institution, cash dealer or member of a relevant profession or occupation, to preserve such data, information or record, until such time as may be reasonably required for the investigation or where prosecution is instituted, until the determination of the case.

(4) Any information provided under this section, including any information provided by electronic means, shall be admissible as evidence in any other application made under this Act, or in any prosecution, by the Commission.

(5) Any person who fails to comply with a direction of the Commission under subsection (3) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees.

64. Order to search specified premises

(1) Where the Commission has reasonable grounds to suspect that –

- (a) a bank, financial institution or cash dealer has failed to keep a business transaction record as required under section 17 of the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act;
- (b) a bank, financial institution, cash dealer or member of a relevant profession or occupation, has failed to report a suspicious transaction as required under section 14 of the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act; or

- (c) a bank, financial institution, cash dealer or member of a relevant profession or occupation is in possession of any book, document, record, article or any other information which may assist the Commission in an investigation, the Commission may apply to a Judge for an Order authorising any officer designated by the Director-General, to enter premises belonging to, or in the possession or control of, the bank, financial institution, cash dealer or member of the relevant profession or occupation and to search the premises and remove therefrom any book, document, record or article.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be supported by an affidavit by the Director-General disclosing the reason why an Order is sought under this section.

65. Telecommunication Order

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Commission may, for the purpose of an investigation under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act, apply to a Judge for a Telecommunication Order directing a public operator or any of its employees or agent to intercept or withhold a message, or disclose to the Commission a message or any information relating to a message.

(2) A Judge shall issue a Telecommunication Order under subsection (1) where a Judge is satisfied that the information relating to the requested information or the message is material to any investigation under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act.

- (3) In this section –

“information” has the same meaning as in the Information and Communication Technologies Act;

“message” has the same meaning as in the Information and Communication Technologies Act;

“public operator” has the same meaning as in the Information and Communication Technologies Act.

66. Special investigative techniques

- (a) controlled remittance; and
- (b) surveillance.

(2) Notwithstanding any other enactment, where the Director of Investigation has reasonable grounds to suspect that an offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act has been, is being or is likely to be committed by any person, the Director of Investigation may, with the approval of the Director-General, apply to a Judge for an Order to use the following investigative techniques as may be required for the purpose of gathering intelligence or evidence –

- (a) intrusive surveillance;
- (b) the conduct and use of covert intelligence human source; and
- (c) equipment interception.

(3) The Director-General shall give his approval under subsection (1) or (2) after being satisfied that it is just, proportionate and in the public interest to do so.

(4) Where, on an application made under subsection (2), a Judge is satisfied that an offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act has been, is being or is likely to be committed, a Judge may grant the Order.

(5) Any evidence gathered using the investigative techniques under subsections (1) and (2) shall be admissible in Court.

(6) The Director of Investigation Division may delegate his powers under subsections (1) and (2) to any officer.

(7) There shall be a Covert Intelligence Human Source Data Controller who shall keep all records and information pertaining to operations where the use of the Covert Intelligence Human Source technique has been used.

(8) In this section –

“conduct and use of covert intelligence human source” means inducing, asking or assisting a person to engage in the conduct of covert human intelligence source as undercover agent to obtain information by means of the conduct of such a source; “conduct of covert human intelligence source” means a person who –

- (a) provides intelligence gathered by interpersonal contact to assist in investigations;
- (b) establishes or maintains a personal or other relationship with a person for the covert purpose of facilitating surveillance or intrusive surveillance;
- (c) covertly uses such a relationship to obtain information or to provide access to any information to another person; or
- (d) covertly discloses information obtained by the use of a relationship, or as a consequence of the existence of such a relationship;

“controlled remittance” means an operation which allows for the performance of an act by one person that would qualify as a financial crime, for the purpose of identifying any person involved in the commission of the financial crime;

“equipment interception” means either remotely or physically interfering with computers or computer-like devices such as, inter alia, tablets, smart phones, cables, wires and static storage devices, for the purpose of obtaining communications, equipment data or other information;

“intrusive surveillance” –

- (a) means an act of monitoring, observing or listening to a person, his movements, conversations or other activities; and
- (b) communications, from within a place other than a public place; and
- (c) includes –
 - (i) surveillance from any residential premises or in any private vehicle or private property; and
 - (ii) the use of any kind of surveillance device, drones or other electronic device to enter a place other than a public place;

“surveillance” means the continual act of monitoring, observing or listening to a person, his movements, conversations or other activities and communications, from a public place, with the likely result of obtaining private information about that person or another person.

67. Discharge or variation of Order under Part IV

(1) An application to discharge or vary an Order under this Part may be made to a Judge by –

- (a) the person who applied for the Order; or
- (b) any person affected by the Order.

(2) A Judge may, on an application made under subsection (1), vary or discharge the Order where a Judge is of opinion that it is in the interests of justice to do so.

PART V – ASSET RECOVERY

Sub-Part I – Application of Part V

68. Application of Part V

(1) This Part shall apply to properties which are proceeds and instrumentalities of unlawful activities, including any property seized by any investigatory authority during the course of a criminal enquiry, and terrorist properties.

(2) For the purpose of this Part, where it is found that a person was in possession of property which are proceeds or instrumentalities of an unlawful activity and that he did not have a legitimate source of income sufficient to justify his interest in the property or the benefit derived by him or the interest in the property or any benefit therefrom is not from his legitimate source of outcome, the onus shall, on a balance of probabilities, lie on that person to show that the property was not obtained, or the benefit was not derived, from an unlawful activity.

(3) Any application to the Court under this Part shall –

- (a) be by way of motion supported by an affidavit; and
- (b) constitute civil proceedings and be determined on a balance of probabilities.

(4) Any application to a Judge under this Part shall –

- (a) be by way of an application supported by a proceipe and affidavit; and
- (b) constitute civil proceedings and be determined on a balance of probabilities.

(5) Nothing in this Act shall affect the power of a Court to order the estreatment or forfeiture of any property pursuant to its power under any other enactment.

(6) In this Part –

“unlawful activity” –

- (a) means an act which constitutes an offence or some other contravention of a law; and
- (b) includes acquiring possession of property or deriving a benefit, as a result of or in connection with an act referred to in paragraph (a), at any time not earlier than 10 years before 10 November 2012.

Sub-Part II – Criminal-Based Asset Recovery

Section A – Criminal Attachment Order

69. Application for Criminal Attachment Order

(1) Where a person is charged with, or convicted of, an offence or a criminal enquiry is ongoing, the Commission may apply to a Judge, by way of ex parte application, for a Criminal Attachment Order in order to preserve or protect any property, in which the person being investigated, charged or convicted has an interest that is reasonably believed to be proceeds or an instrumentality of the offence, or a terrorist property.

(2) Where the Commission determines that it is necessary for it to take custody of, and manage the property, it shall, in the application under subsection (1), justify why it shall take custody of, and manage, the property.

70. Issue of Criminal Attachment Order

(1) Where the Commission applies to a Judge for a Criminal Attachment Order, and a Judge is satisfied, having regard to any relevant evidence, that there are reasonable grounds to believe that –

- (a) the alleged offender has been charged with, or convicted of, an offence, or is the subject of a criminal enquiry; and
- (b) the property which is the subject of the application is proceeds or an instrumentality of the offence, or a terrorist property, a Judge may issue a Criminal Attachment Order.

(2) Where a Judge issues a Criminal Attachment Order under subsection (1), he shall direct that –

- (a) the property shall not be transferred, pledged, disposed of, or the property shall not otherwise be dealt with, by any person, except in such manner and in such circumstances as may be directed in the Order;

- (b) the property, or such part of the property as is specified in the Order, shall be seized, taken into possession, delivered up for safekeeping or otherwise secured by the Commission; or
- (c) the Commission shall take custody of, and manage, the property in such manner and in such circumstances as may be directed in the Order.

(3) Where a Judge issues a Criminal Attachment Order, the Commission shall, within 21 days of the issue of the Order, or such other period as a Judge may direct, give notice of the Order to –

- (a) every person known to the Commission to have an interest in the property;
- (b) such reporting person as it considers appropriate, in such form and manner as it may determine; and
- (c) such other person as a Judge may direct.

71. Management of property under Criminal Attachment Order

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Commission may do anything which it considers reasonably necessary or appropriate to preserve or protect any property seized or to which a Criminal Attachment Order applies and its value, and may, in particular –

- (a) become a party to any civil proceedings that affects the property;
- (b) ensure that the property is insured;
- (c) realise or otherwise deal with the property if it is perishable, subject to depreciation or wasting or other forms of loss, its value is volatile or the cost of its storage or maintenance is likely to exceed its value;
- (d) incur any necessary capital expenditure in respect of the property;

- (e) where the property consists of a trade or business –
 - (i) employ persons in the business or terminate their employment;
 - (ii) do any other thing that is necessary or convenient for carrying on the trade or business on a sound commercial basis; and
 - (iii) with a Judge’s approval, sell, liquidate or wind up the trade or business if it is not a viable, going concern or it is otherwise commercially advantageous to do so; or
- (f) where the property includes shares in a company, exercise rights attaching to the shares as if he were the registered holder of the shares.

(2) The Commission may, for the purpose of subsection (1), incur such expenses as may be reasonably necessary and may retain the services of such person as it may deem fit to realise or otherwise deal with the property subject to the Criminal Attachment Order.

(3) Any expenses incurred by the Commission under subsection (2) shall be recovered from the Recovered Assets Fund.

72. Judge’s further Orders

(1) Where a Criminal Attachment Order is issued, a Judge may issue –

- (a) another Order revoking the Criminal Attachment Order or varying the property to which it relates;
- (b) another Order varying any condition to which the Criminal Attachment Order is subject;
- (c) another Order directing any person who holds or has dealt with the property to give to the Commission a sworn statement setting out such particulars of the property or dealings with the property, as a Judge thinks fit;

- (d) where the Criminal Attachment Order directed the Commission to take custody of the property, another Order –
 - (i) regulating the manner in which the Commission may exercise its powers;
 - (ii) determining any question relating to the property; or
 - (iii) directing the owner of the property or any other person to do any act necessary or convenient to enable the Commission to take custody of the property in accordance with the Order; or
 - (e) subject to subsection (2), another Order to provide for meeting out of the property –
 - (i) reasonable living expenses of a person having an interest in the property;
 - (ii) any such person's reasonable expenses in defending any criminal charge; and
 - (iii) the Commission's remuneration and expenses.

(2) A Judge shall not issue another Order under subsection (1)(e)(i) or (ii) unless he is satisfied that the person cannot meet the expenses out of any property that is not subject of the Criminal Attachment Order and he determines that it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(3) An application for an Order under subsection (1)(a) or (b) may be made by any person affected by the Criminal Attachment Order.

73. Exclusion of property from Criminal Attachment Order

Any person who has an interest in any property that is subject of a Criminal Attachment Order may apply to a Judge to exclude his interest from the Order, and a Judge shall grant the application where he is satisfied that –

- (a) the property is not proceeds or an instrumentality of the offence in relation to which the Order was issued, or a terrorist property;

- (b) the person was not in any way involved in the commission of the offence in relation to which the Order was issued;
- (c) where the person acquired the interest before the commission of the offence in relation to which the Order was issued, he did not know that any person would use, or intended to use, the property in or in connection with the commission of the offence; or
- (d) where the person acquired the interest at the time of or after the commission of the offence, the interest was acquired in circumstances which would not arouse a reasonable suspicion that the property was proceeds or an instrumentality of the offence in relation to which the Order was issued, or a terrorist property.

74. Registration of Criminal Attachment Order

(1) Where a Criminal Attachment Order applies to property of a particular kind and an enactment provides for the registration of title to, or charges over, property of that kind, the Registrar-General or any other relevant authority shall, on application by the Commission, record on the register kept pursuant to that enactment the particulars of the Order.

(2) Where particulars of the Order are recorded pursuant to subsection (1), a person who subsequently deals with the property shall, for the purpose of section 70(3), be deemed to have notice of the Criminal Attachment Order at the time of the dealing.

(3) Where particulars of the Order are recorded pursuant to subsection (1), a Judge may, on an application made by the Commission, direct that the property shall not, without the consent of a Judge –

- (a) be mortgaged or otherwise burdened;
- (b) be attached or sold in execution;
- (c) vest in the liquidator where the estate of the owner of the property is sequestrated; or

- (d) form part of the assets of a body corporate where that body is the owner of the immovable property and it is wound up.

(4) Where a Criminal Attachment Order is revoked or varied pursuant to section 72(1)(a) or (b), the Registrar-General or any other relevant authority shall cancel or, as the case may be, amend the particulars recorded in the appropriate register in accordance with such Order as a Judge may issue.

75. Contravention of Criminal Attachment Order

(1) Any person who knowingly contravenes a Criminal Attachment Order by transferring, pledging, disposing or otherwise dealing with, a property that is subject of the Order shall commit an offence.

- (2) Where, in relation to a Criminal Attachment Order –
 - (a) property is transferred, pledged, disposed of, or otherwise dealt with, in contravention of the Order; and
 - (b) the transfer, pledging or disposition of the property, or the property being otherwise dealt with, was not for sufficient consideration or not in favour of a person who acted in good faith, the Commission may apply to a Judge for another Order that the transfer, pledging or disposition of the property, or the property being otherwise dealt with, be set aside.

(3) Where the Commission makes an application under subsection (2), a Judge may issue an Order –

- (a) setting the transfer, pledging or disposition of the property, or the property being otherwise dealt with, from the day on which it took place; or

- (b) setting the transfer, pledging or disposition of the property, or the property being otherwise dealt with, from the day of the Order issued under this subsection, and declaring the respective rights of any person who acquired an interest in the property on or after the day on which the dealing took place and before the Order was issued under this subsection.

76. Duration of Criminal Attachment Order

(1) Subject to subsection (3), where a Criminal Attachment Order is issued on the basis that an alleged offender is the subject of a criminal enquiry, a Judge shall, on application made to him pursuant to subsection (2), discharge the Order if the alleged offender is not charged with a criminal offence as a result of the enquiry, or an offence arising from the same conduct or course of conduct, within 12 months of the date on which the Order is issued.

(2) (a) Where subsection (1) applies, the Commission shall make the necessary application to a Judge as soon as reasonably practicable.

(b) Where no application pursuant to paragraph (a) is made by the Commission within 7 days of the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (1), any person affected by the Criminal Attachment Order may apply under this subsection for the discharge of the Order.

(3) Where a Criminal Attachment Order is likely to lapse pursuant to subsection (1), a Judge may, on an application made by the Commission, extend the operation of the Order for a specified additional period not exceeding 3 years where he is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(4) Where a Criminal Attachment Order is issued on the basis that an alleged offender is the subject of a criminal enquiry and the alleged offender is, within 12 months of the date on which the Order was issued, charged with a criminal offence as a result of that enquiry, the Order shall have effect until the conclusion of the criminal proceedings, including any appeal, in respect of that offence.

Section B – Criminal Confiscation Order77. Application for Criminal Confiscation Order

(1) (a) Where a person is convicted of an offence, the Commission may apply to the Court for a Confiscation Order in respect of any property, in which the convicted person or any other person has an interest, that is reasonably believed to be proceeds, including income or other benefits derived from such proceeds, or an instrumentality used or intended to be used for the offence, or a terrorist property, including income or other benefits derived from such instrumentality or terrorist property.

(b) The Commission shall attach to the application a statement setting out an assessment of the value of the benefit obtained or likely to be obtained by the defendant.

(c) The Court may require a defendant served with a copy of a statement under paragraph (b) to respond to each averment in it and, insofar as he does not accept any averment, to indicate on oath any facts upon which he proposes to rely.

(2) The Commission shall, except with leave of the Court, make an application under subsection (1) within 6 months of the date on which a person is convicted of the offence.

(3) The Court shall only grant leave under subsection (2) where it is satisfied that –

- (a) the benefit to which the application relates was, or is likely to be, derived, realised or identified after the period referred to in subsection (2); or
- (b) the application is based on evidence that could not reasonably have been obtained by the Commission before the period referred to in subsection (2); and
- (c) it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(4) The Commission may amend an application for a Criminal Confiscation Order at any time before the final determination of the application by the Court, provided that reasonable notice of the amendment is given to every person on whom the application is served.

(5) Where an application is made for a Criminal Confiscation Order, the Court may, in determining the application, have regard to any evidence received in the course of the proceedings against the person convicted before the trial Court and to any other relevant evidence gathered in the course of a criminal enquiry.

(6) (a) Where an application under this section has been finally determined, the Commission may not make a further application for a Criminal Confiscation Order in respect of the same offence without the leave of the Court.

(b) The Court shall not grant leave under paragraph (a) unless –

- (i) the further application is made not more than 6 months after the final determination; and
- (ii) the benefit to which the new application relates was identified after the determination of the previous application; or
- (iii) the Court is satisfied that –
 - (A) necessary evidence became available after the previous application was determined;
 - (B) the benefit to which the further application relates was identified after the final determination; or
 - (C) it is otherwise in the interests of justice to do so.

78. Service of Criminal Confiscation Order application

(1) Where the Commission makes an application for a Criminal Confiscation Order –

- (a) it shall serve a copy of the application and of the statement referred to in section 77(1)(b) on the defendant and on such other person as the Court may direct; and
- (b) every person who has been served may appear and adduce evidence at the hearing of the application.

(2) The absence of the defendant, or of any other person on whom service has been effected, shall not prevent the Court from making a Criminal Confiscation Order in his or their absence.

(3) The Court may waive the requirements of service under subsection (1) on the defendant where he is already before the Court.

79. Issue of Criminal Confiscation Order

(1) Where the Commission makes an application under section 77 and the Court is satisfied that the defendant has benefited from an offence or any other unlawful activity which the Court finds to be sufficiently related to that offence, it shall, subject to section 81, issue a Criminal Confiscation Order, ordering him to pay to the State, within such time as it may determine, an amount equal to the value of his benefit.

(2) The Court shall, in accordance with sections 80 and 81, assess the value of the benefit which the defendant has derived.

(3) Where the Court issues a Criminal Confiscation Order –

- (a) the Order shall not, except with leave of the Court and in accordance with any direction of the Court, be enforced before the relevant appeal date; and
- (b) if, after the relevant appeal date, the Order has not been set aside or discharged, the Order may be enforced and any amount recovered applied in accordance with Section B of this Sub-part and any direction given by the Court.

(4) In this section –

“relevant appeal date” means –

- (a) the date on which the period prescribed for the lodging of an appeal against the defendant’s conviction before a trial Court, or for the lodging of an appeal against the issuing of a Confiscation Order, expires without an appeal having been lodged, whichever is later; or

- (b) where an appeal against the defendant's conviction before the trial Court or against the issuing of a Confiscation Order is lodged, the date on which the appeal lapses in accordance with the law or is finally determined, whichever is later.

80. Determination of value of benefit

(1) For the purpose of Section B of this Sub-part, the value of the benefit derived or likely to be derived by a defendant may include –

- (a) any money received by the defendant, or by another person at the request or by the direction of the defendant;
- (b) the value of any dangerous drug found in the possession of the defendant or of another person on behalf of the defendant;
- (c) the value of any property that was derived or realised, directly or indirectly, by the defendant or by another person at the request or by the direction of the defendant;
- (d) the value of any service or financial advantage provided for the defendant or another person, at the request or by the direction of the defendant; or
- (e) unless the Court is satisfied that the increase was due to causes unrelated to the commission of the offence, any increase in the total value of property in which the defendant has an interest in the period beginning immediately before the commission of the offence and ending at some time after the commission of the offence.

(2) In calculating the value of the benefit –

- (a) any expenditure of the defendant in connection with the commission of the offence shall be disregarded; and
- (b) the Court shall make any adjustment necessary to prevent a benefit from being counted more than once.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1)(e), where an offence is committed between 2 dates, the period begins immediately before the earlier of the 2 dates and ends at some time after the later of the 2 dates.

(4) Where the benefit derived or likely to be derived by a defendant was in the form of property, including dangerous drug or some other form of unlawfully obtained property, the Court may, in determining the value of that property, have regard to evidence given by the Commission or such other person whom the Court considers has expert knowledge of the value of that kind of property.

(5) The Court may, for the purpose of determining whether there was a benefit and the value of the benefit, treat any acceptance by the defendant of the averments set out in the statement referred to in section 77(1)(b) as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(6) The Court may treat a defendant's failure to respond to the statement or to indicate the facts upon which he will rely as an acceptance of every averment in the statement other than –

- (a) an averment regarding whether he complied with the requirement; and
- (b) an averment that he has benefited from the offence or that he obtained any property or advantage as a result of or in connection with the commission of the offence.

81. Amount recoverable

(1) The amount to be recovered under a Criminal Confiscation Order shall be the amount specified in the Order or, if a certificate is issued pursuant to subsection (4), such lesser amount as may be specified in the certificate.

(2) An application for a certificate referred to in subsection (4) may be made by the defendant to the Court.

(3) An application pursuant to subsection (2) –

- (a) shall not be made more than 30 days after the date on which the application for a Criminal Confiscation Order was issued;

- (b) shall be supported by an affidavit of the defendant and of any other person on whose evidence the defendant proposes to rely; and
- (c) shall be served on the Commission, together with any supporting affidavit.

(4) The Court shall issue a certificate pursuant to this section where, having regard to written or oral testimony, it is satisfied that –

- (a) it has been provided with an accurate assessment of the total value of the financial resources held by the defendant, irrespective of whether they are subject to any other Order under this Act; and
- (b) the total value of the financial resources held by the defendant is less than the amount ordered to be paid under the Criminal Confiscation Order.

(5) Where a certificate is issued pursuant to subsection (4), it shall specify a monetary amount equal to the total value of the financial resources held by the defendant.

(6) The Court may, on an application made by the Commission within 2 years after the issue of the certificate, vary or revoke it or issue a Criminal Confiscation Order in a new amount, where –

- (a) it is made aware of facts that would have led it to a different conclusion regarding the issuing of the certificate or the amount specified in a certificate; or
- (b) the defendant acquires possession of additional assets which, had they been available at the date of the certificate, would have resulted in the certificate not being issued or being issued for a higher amount.

82. Discharge of Criminal Confiscation Order

- (1) A Criminal Confiscation Order shall be discharged –
 - (a) on the satisfaction of the Order by payment of the amount due under the Order;

- (b) if the conviction for the offence in reliance on which the Order was issued is, or is taken to be, quashed and no conviction for the offence is substituted; or
- (c) if the Order is quashed.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1)(b), a person's conviction for an offence shall be taken to be quashed in any case where –

- (a) the conviction is quashed or set aside;
- (b) the person is charged with and found guilty of the offence but is discharged, without any conviction being recorded; or
- (c) the person is granted a pardon in respect of his conviction for the offence.

83. Appeal against Criminal Confiscation Order

(1) The Commission may, where an application for a Criminal Confiscation Order has been rejected, or any other person who has been served with an application for a Criminal Confiscation Order is aggrieved by the issue of a Criminal Confiscation Order, appeal, against such decision, to the Court of Civil Appeal in accordance with the Court of Civil Appeal Act.

(2) Where a Criminal Confiscation Order is issued, it shall remain in force until the final determination of an appeal under subsection (1).

84. Realisation of property under Criminal Confiscation Order

(1) Where a Criminal Confiscation Order is issued and the Order is not subject to appeal, nor discharged, the Court may, on an application made by the Commission, exercise the powers conferred upon it by this section.

(2) The Court may direct the Commission to take possession and control of and realise –

- (a) the property in which the defendant has an interest which he acquired before or after the making of the Criminal Confiscation Order; or

- (b) the property protected by a Criminal Attachment Order; or
- (c) the specified items of property in which the defendant has an interest.

(3) The Court may issue such further Order to assist the Commission in the exercise of its powers as the Court thinks fit.

85. Application of monetary sums

(1) Monetary sums in the hands of the Commission from receipt of the property of the defendant or from the realisation of any property under section 84 shall, after any such payment as the Court may direct are made out of those sums, be paid to the Official Receiver and applied on the defendant's behalf towards the satisfaction of the Criminal Confiscation Order in the manner provided by subsection (3).

(2) If, after full payment of the amount payable under the Confiscation Order, any sum referred to in subsection (1) remain in the hands of the Commission, the Commission shall distribute those sums among such of those persons who held property which has been realised under Section B of this Sub-part and in such proportions as the Court directs, after giving a reasonable opportunity for those persons to make representations to the Court.

(3) Sums received by the Official Receiver in payment of amounts due under a Criminal Confiscation Order shall be applied as follows –

- (a) if received from the Commission under subsection (1), they shall first be applied in payment of the Commission's expenses; and
- (b) the balance shall be transferred to the Recovered Assets Fund.

86. Contravention of Criminal Confiscation Order

A defendant who wilfully makes default in the payment of any amount recoverable on a Criminal Confiscation Order shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10 million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

Sub-Part III – Civil-Based Asset Recovery

Section A – Civil Attachment Order

87. Application for Civil Attachment Order

(1) Where a property is reasonably believed by the Commission to be recoverable under Section B of this Sub-part and to be proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property, it may apply to a Judge, by way of ex parte application, for a Civil Attachment Order in respect of that property.

(2) It shall be sufficient, for the purpose of subsection (1), for the Commission to show that the property is proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property, without being required to show that the property was derived directly or indirectly from a particular offence or that any person has been charged in relation to such an offence.

(3) The Commission may make an application under subsection (1) notwithstanding the fact that the act which is the subject of the application was committed by a person who is deceased at the time of the application.

(4) Where the Commission is of the opinion that, for any reason, it is necessary for it to manage the property, it shall state the reason in its application.

88. Issue of Civil Attachment Order

(1) A Judge shall, where he is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the property referred to in the application is proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property, issue a Civil Attachment Order which may –

- (a) authorise, require or secure the delivery up, seizure, detention or custody of the property; or
- (b) authorise or require the Commission to take –
 - (i) custody and control of the property and to manage or otherwise deal with it in such manner as a Judge may direct; or

- (ii) such steps as a Judge considers appropriate to secure the detention, custody or preservation of the property or for any other purpose.

(2) A Judge may issue a Civil Attachment Order where a person is not in Mauritius or is acquitted of an offence, or the charge against him is withdrawn before a verdict is returned or the proceedings are stayed.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) and section 87, the Commission may apply to a Judge for an Order that the person in whose possession the property is found shall exercise the powers specified in subsection (1)(b).

(4) A Civil Attachment Order may, subject to subsection (5), make such provision as a Judge thinks fit for –

- (a) reasonable living expenses of a person holding an interest in property subject of the Order; and
- (b) reasonable legal expenses of such a person in connection with any proceedings instituted against him under this Act or any related criminal proceedings.

(5) A Judge shall not make provision for any expenses under subsection (4) unless he is satisfied that the person cannot meet the expenses concerned out of his property which is not the subject of the Civil Attachment Order and he determines that it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(6) (a) For the purpose of preventing a property subject of a Civil Attachment Order from being disposed of or removed contrary to the Order, the Commission may seize the property where it has reasonable grounds to suspect that the property will be disposed of or removed.

(b) Any property seized pursuant to paragraph (a) shall be dealt with in accordance with the directions of a Judge.

(7) (a) Where a Judge issues a Civil Attachment Order, the Commission shall, within 21 days from the making of the Order or such longer period as a Judge may direct, give notice of the Order –

- (i) to every person known to the Commission to have an interest in the property;
- (ii) such person, including a reporting person, as it considers appropriate, in such form and manner as it may determine; and
- (iii) such other person as a Judge may direct.

(b) Where a person who is the owner of the property is unknown or cannot be found, a Judge shall, as soon as practicable after the Order is issued, cause to be published a notice of the Order in 2 daily newspapers of wide circulation.

89. Management of property under Civil Attachment Order

(1) The Commission may do anything which it considers reasonably necessary or appropriate to protect or preserve the property to which the Civil Attachment Order applies and its value, and may, in particular –

- (a) realise or otherwise deal with the property if it is perishable subject to wasting or other form of loss, its value is volatile or the cost of its storage or maintenance is likely to exceed its value;
- (b) where the property comprises assets of a trade or business –
 - (i) carry on, or arrange for another person to carry on, the trade or business;
 - (ii) employ persons in the trade or business or terminate their employment; and
 - (iii) with a Judge's approval, sell, liquidate or wind up the trade or business if it is not a viable or going concern or it is otherwise commercially advantageous to do so;

- (c) incur any necessary capital expenditure in respect of the property;
- (d) where the property includes shares in a company, exercise rights attaching to the shares as if he was the registered holder of the shares;
- (e) ensure that the property is insured; or
- (f) become a party to any civil proceedings that affect the property.

(2) The Commission may, for the purpose of subsection (1), incur such expenses as may be reasonably necessary and may retain the services of such person to realise or otherwise deal with the property subject to the Criminal Attachment Order.

(3) Any expenses incurred by the Commission under subsection (2) shall be recovered from the Recovered Assets Fund.

90. Exclusion of property from Civil Attachment Order

Where a person who has an interest in property that is the subject of a Civil Attachment Order applies to a Judge to exclude his interest from the Order, a Judge shall grant the application where he is satisfied that –

- (a) the property is not proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property;
- (b) the applicant was not, in any way, involved in the commission of the offence in relation to which the Order was issued;
- (c) where the person acquired the interest before the commission of the offence, the person did not know that another person would use, or intend to use, the property in, or in connection with, the commission of the offence; or
- (d) where the person acquired the interest at the time or after the commission of the offence, the interest was acquired in circumstances which would not arouse a reasonable suspicion that the property was proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property.

91. Order in respect of immovable property

(1) Following the issue of a Civil Attachment Order in respect of an immovable property of a particular kind and where any enactment provides for the registration of title to, or charges over, a property of that kind, a Judge may, on an application made by the Commission, order the Registrar-General to endorse any one or more of the restrictions referred to in subsection (2) on the title deed of the immovable property with a view to ensuring the effective execution of a subsequent Order issued by a Judge or by the Court.

(2) An Order under subsection (1) may include a restriction that the property shall not, without the consent of a Judge –

- (a) be mortgaged or otherwise burdened;
- (b) be attached or sold in execution;
- (c) vest in the liquidator when the estate of the owner of that immovable property is sequestered; or
- (d) where the owner of the property is a body corporate, form part of the assets of that body corporate where it is wound up.

(3) In order to give effect to an Order issued under subsection (1), the Registrar-General shall make the necessary entries in his register and the necessary endorsement on the title deed, and thereupon any restriction referred to in subsection (2) shall be effective against all persons except, in the case of a restriction contemplated in subsection (2)(b), against any person in whose favour a mortgage bond or other charge was registered against the title deed of immovable property before the endorsement of the restriction on the title deed of the immovable property, but shall lapse on the transfer of ownership of the immovable property.

92. Variation and rescission of Civil Attachment Order

(1) Any person affected by a Civil Attachment Order may apply to a Judge for the variation or rescission of the Order.

(2) A Judge –

- (a) may vary or rescind the Order where necessary in the interests of justice; or
- (b) shall rescind the Order where the proceedings concerned are concluded.

(3) Where a Civil Attachment Order in respect of an immovable property is varied or rescinded, a Judge shall direct the Registrar-General to amend or cancel any restriction endorsed by virtue of that Order on the title deed of the immovable property, and the Registrar-General shall give effect to any such direction and declare the respective rights of every person who acquired an interest in the property on or after the day on which the Order was issued and before the day on which it was varied or rescinded.

93. Duration of Civil Attachment Order

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a Civil Attachment Order shall expire 12 months after the date on which it was issued unless –

- (a) there is an application for a Civil Confiscation Order pending before the Court in respect of the property which is the subject of the Civil Attachment Order;
- (b) there is an unsatisfied Civil Confiscation Order in force in relation to the property which is the subject of the Civil Attachment Order; or
- (c) the Civil Attachment Order is rescinded before the expiry of that period.

(2) The Commission may, on good cause shown, apply to a Judge to extend the duration of a Civil Attachment Order for such specific additional period, not exceeding 3 years, as a Judge thinks fit to do in the interests of justice.

94. Contravention of Civil Attachment Order

(1) A person who knowingly contravenes a Civil Attachment Order by disposing of or otherwise dealing with property that is subject to the Order shall commit an offence.

(2) The Commission may apply to a Judge for an Order that any dealing with property be set aside where –

- (a) the property is dealt with in contravention of the Civil Attachment Order; or
- (b) the dealing was not for sufficient consideration or not in favour of a person who acted in good faith and without notice of the Civil Attachment Order.

(3) A Judge may, on an application under subsection (2), order that –

- (a) the disposition or dealing shall be set aside from the day on which it took place; or
- (b) the disposition or dealing shall be set aside from the day on which he issues the Order and declare the respective rights of every person who acquired an interest in the property on or after the day on which the disposition or dealing took place and before the day on which he issues the Order.

Section B – Civil Confiscation Order95. Application for Civil Confiscation Order

(1) Where a property has come to the notice of the Commission and the property is reasonably believed by the Commission to be proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property, the Commission may make an application to the Court for the issue of a Civil Confiscation Order in respect of the property.

(2) The Commission shall, within 14 days of an application under subsection (1), give notice to every person known to the Commission to have an interest in the property subject to the application.

(3) Any person referred to in subsection (2) or any other person claiming an interest in the property may appear at the hearing of an application under subsection (1) –

- (a) to oppose the making of the Civil Confiscation Order; or
- (b) to apply for an Order –
 - (i) excluding his interest in that property from the operation of the Civil Confiscation Order; or
 - (ii) varying the operation of the Civil Confiscation Order in respect of that property; and
- (c) to adduce evidence at the hearing of the application.

96. Issue of Civil Confiscation Order

(1) The Court shall, subject to subsection (2) and section 98, issue a Civil Confiscation Order where it finds that the property concerned is proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property.

(2) The Court shall not issue a Civil Confiscation Order of property or transfer the proceeds from the sale of the property to the State unless it is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice to do so and until such notice as the Court may direct has been given to any person in whose possession the property is found or who may have interest in the property or claim ownership of the property, to show cause why the property should not be recovered.

(3) The Court may issue a Civil Confiscation Order under this section where a person is not in Mauritius or is acquitted of an offence, the charge against him is withdrawn before a verdict is returned or the proceedings are stayed.

(4) Where the Court issues a Civil Confiscation Order, the Commission shall cause to be published a notice of the Order in 2 daily newspapers of wide circulation as soon as practicable after the Order is issued.

(5) A Civil Confiscation Order shall not take effect –

- (a) before the period allowed for an application under section 97, or an appeal under section 99, has expired; or
- (b) before such an application or appeal has been disposed of.

97. Failure to notify

(1) Any person affected by a Civil Confiscation Order who was entitled to receive notice of the application for the Order under section 95(2), but did not receive the notice, may, within 45 days after the last publication of the notice under section 96(4), apply for an Order excluding his interest in the property concerned from the operation of the Civil Confiscation Order, or varying the operation of the Civil Confiscation Order in respect of that property.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting out –

- (a) the nature and extent of the applicant's right, title or interest in the property concerned;
- (b) the time and circumstances of the applicant's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the property;
- (c) any additional facts supporting the application; and
- (d) the relief sought.

(3) The application and the affidavit shall be served on the Commission which may appear at the hearing of the application.

(4) The hearing of the application shall, to the extent practicable and consistent with the interests of justice, be held within 30 days from the date the application is filed.

(5) The Court may consolidate the hearing of the application with the hearing of any other application filed under this section.

(6) The Court may issue an Order under subsection (1) where it finds that the applicant for such an Order –

- (a) had lawfully acquired the interest concerned; and
- (b) neither knew nor had reasonable grounds to believe that the property in which the interest is held is proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property.

98. Exclusion of property from Civil Confiscation Order

Where a person who has an interest in a property which is the subject of a Civil Confiscation Order makes an application to exclude his interest from the Order, a Judge may grant the application where he is satisfied that –

- (a) the property is not proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property;
- (b) the person was not in any way involved in the commission of the offence in relation to which the Civil Confiscation Order was issued;
- (c) in the case where the person acquired the interest before the commission of the offence, the person did not know that another person would use, or intended to use, the property for, or in connection with, the commission of the offence; or
- (d) in the case where the person acquired the interest at the time or after the commission of the offence, the interest was acquired in circumstances which would not have given rise to any reasonable suspicion that the property was proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property.

99. Appeal against Civil Confiscation Order

(1) The Commission may, where an application for a Civil Confiscation Order has been rejected, or any other person who has been served with an application for a Civil Confiscation Order is aggrieved by the issue of a Civil Confiscation Order may, appeal against such decision to the Court of Civil Appeal in accordance with the Court of Civil Appeal Act.

(2) Where a Civil Confiscation Order has been issued, it shall remain in force until the final determination of an appeal under subsection (1).

100. Enforcement of Civil Confiscation Order

(1) A property which is the subject of an Order shall vest in the State on the day a Civil Confiscation Order takes effect.

(2) On a Civil Confiscation Order taking effect, the Commission may take possession of that property on behalf of the State from any person in possession, or entitled to possession, of the property.

(3) The Commission shall, subject to any Order for the exclusion of an interest in recovered property under section 98, dispose of the property recovered under section 96 by sale or such other means as the Court may direct.

(4) Any right or interest in recovered property not exercisable by or transferable to the State shall expire and shall not revert to the person who has possession, or was entitled to possession, of the property immediately before the Civil Confiscation Order took effect.

(5) No person who has possession, or was entitled to possession, of a recovered property immediately before the Civil Confiscation Order took effect, and no person acting in concert with or on behalf of that person shall purchase the recovered property at any sale effected by the Commission.

(6) The Commission shall deposit into the Recovered Assets Fund the proceeds of any sale or disposition of the recovered property and any moneys recovered.

(7) The expenses incurred in connection with the recovery and the sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance and custody of the property pending its disposition, advertising and Court costs, shall be defrayed out of the Recovered Assets Fund.

Section C – Tracing of Assets

101. Recoverable property

(1) Subject to section 103, where any property which constitutes proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property has been disposed of given that it was used or obtained in connection with the commission of an offence, it may be recoverable pursuant to Section A or B of this Sub-part if it is held by a person into whose hands it may be followed in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The property may be followed into the hands of a person obtaining it on a disposal by –

- (a) the person who used or intended to use the property as an instrumentality or through the offence obtained the property or terrorist property; or
- (b) a person into whose hands it may, by virtue of this subsection, be followed.

102. Property indirectly obtained or used

(1) Subject to section 103, where a property which is a terrorist property or an instrumentality of, or has been obtained through, an offence (in this section, referred to as “the original property”) is or has been recoverable, any property which represents that property shall also be so recoverable.

(2) Where a person enters into a transaction by which –

- (a) he disposes of a property which is recoverable, whether the original property or property which represents the original property; and
- (b) he obtains other property in place of it, the other property shall represent the original property.

(3) Where a person disposes of a property which represents the original property, the property may be followed into the hands of the person who obtains it.

(4) (a) The part of any mixed property which is attributable to a property which is recoverable represents the property used as an instrumentality of, or obtained through, an offence.

(b) A property may be mixed with another property where it is used –

- (i) to increase funds held in a bank account;
- (ii) in part payment for the acquisition of an asset;
- (iii) for the restoration or improvement of land;
- (iv) by a person holding a leasehold interest in the property to acquire the freehold; or
- (v) for any similar purpose.

(5) Where a person who has a property which is used as an instrumentality of, or is derived from, an offence obtains further property consisting of profits accruing in respect of the use or derivation, the further property shall be treated as representing the property used as an instrumentality of, or obtained through, an offence.

(6) (a) Where a person grants an interest in a property that is recoverable pursuant to Section A or B of this Sub-part, the question whether the interest is also recoverable shall be determined in the same manner as it is on any other disposal of recoverable property.

(b) Where the property referred to in paragraph (a) is proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property of, or obtained through, an offence or an unlawful activity, the interest shall also be treated as part of the proceeds, instrumentality or terrorist property.

(c) Where the property in question represents in the person's hands proceeds, a benefit or an instrumentality of, or obtained through, an offence, the interest shall also be treated as representing in his hands part of the instrumentality or the property so obtained, as the case may be.

103. Property not recoverable

(1) Where –

- (a) a person disposes of a property which is recoverable; and
- (b) the person who obtains it on the disposal does so in good faith, for value and without notice that it was recoverable property, the property may not be followed into that person's hands and ceases to be recoverable.

(2) Where a property which is recoverable is vested, recovered or otherwise disposed of pursuant to the powers conferred by virtue of this Sub-part, it shall cease to be recoverable.

(3) Where –

- (a) pursuant to a judgment in civil proceedings, the losing party makes a payment to the claimant or the claimant otherwise obtains property from the losing party;
- (b) the claimant's claim is based on the losing party's unlawful activity; and
- (c) apart from this subsection, the sum received, or the property obtained, by the claimant would be capable of being recovered by reason of the same unlawful activity, the sum received or property obtained shall cease to be recoverable.

(4) Where –

- (a) a payment is made to a person pursuant to any Compensation Order or a restitution or other Order issued by a Court under any other enactment; and
- (b) apart from this subsection, the sum received would be recoverable, the property shall cease to be recoverable.

(5) A property shall not be recoverable where a Civil Confiscation Order or any other similar Order applies to it.

(6) Where –

- (a) a person enters into a transaction to which section 102(2) applies; and
- (b) the disposal is one to which subsection (1) or (2) applies, this section shall not affect the recoverability of any property obtained on the transaction in place of the property disposed of pursuant to section 102(2).

Sub-Part IV – Compensation Order

104. Application for Compensation Order

The Court may, on application made to it, issue a Compensation Order where, in its opinion, it would be in the interests of justice, to do so and –

- (a) a Civil Attachment Order had been issued; or
- (b) an application for a Civil Confiscation Order was not issued and the Civil Attachment Order was revoked; and
- (c) the applicant suffered a loss as a result of the operation of the Civil Attachment Order.

105. Issue of Compensation Order

(1) The Court may, if it is of the opinion that to do so would be in the interests of justice, issue a Compensation Order on application by a person where –

- (a) a Civil Confiscation Order relating to an instrumentality was issued that affects property in which the person had an interest before the making of the Order; or

- (b) in the opinion of the Court, the value of the person's recovered interest in the property is disproportionate to its value to the offence in question; and
- (c) the person suffered a loss as a result of the operation of the Civil Confiscation Order.

(2) The Court may issue a Compensation Order on application made to it where –

- (a) a Criminal Attachment Order was issued;
- (b) an application for a Criminal Confiscation Order was not issued or was withdrawn and the Criminal Attachment Order was revoked, or an application for such a Criminal Confiscation Order was never issued because the defendant was acquitted; or
- (c) there was a serious default consisting of gross negligence or intentional misconduct on the part of a person involved in a criminal enquiry or prosecution and the enquiry would not have continued or the proceedings would not have started or continued, if the default had not occurred; and
- (d) the person suffered a loss as a result of the operation of the Criminal Attachment Order or the default.

(3) The amount of compensation to be paid under this section shall be such amount as the Court thinks reasonable, having regard to the loss suffered and any other relevant circumstances.

(4) An application under this section shall be made not later than 6 months after the date of the Criminal Attachment Order or Civil Attachment Order or of the default and notice of the application shall be given to the Commission.

Sub-Part V – International Cooperation106. Foreign request in connection with civil asset recovery

(1) Where a foreign State requests the Commission to obtain the issue of an order against a property that is believed to be proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property which is located in Mauritius, the Commission may apply to a Judge for a Civil Attachment Order under section 87.

(2) Where a Judge receives an application under subsection (1), he may issue a Civil Attachment Order under section 88 as if the application were an application in respect of property in Mauritius.

107. Foreign request for enforcement of foreign Civil Attachment or Civil Confiscation Order

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, where a foreign State requests that necessary measures be taken for the enforcement of a foreign Civil Attachment or Civil Confiscation Order, the Commission may apply to a Judge or the Court, as the case may be, for registration of the Order.

(2) A Judge shall register the foreign Civil Attachment Order where he is satisfied that, at the time of registration, the Order is in force in the foreign State.

(3) The Court shall register the foreign Criminal Confiscation Order where it is satisfied that –

- (a) at the time of registration, the Order is in force in the foreign State; and
- (b) any person who had an interest in the property the subject of the Order had the opportunity to be represented before the Court that issued the Order in the foreign State.

(4) Where a foreign Order is registered in accordance with this section, a copy of any amendment made to the Order in the foreign State shall be registered in the same way as the Order.

(5) The Commission shall publish the registration of any foreign Order in the Gazette and 2 daily newspapers.

(6) Subject to subsection (8), where the foreign Order or an amendment thereof comprises a facsimile copy of a duly authenticated foreign Order, or amendment made to such an Order, the facsimile shall be regarded, for the purposes of this Act, as the duly authenticated foreign Order.

(7) Any registration effected on production of a facsimile copy shall cease to have effect until the end of the period of 14 days commencing on the date of registration, unless a duly authenticated original of the Order is registered by that time.

(8) Where a foreign Order has been registered pursuant to this section, sections 84 and 85 shall apply to the registration.

(9) For the purpose of subsections (6) and (7) –

“facsimile copy” includes a copy through any other electronic means.

108. Effect of registration of foreign Order

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), where an Order has been registered under section 107 and the Court is notified that it has been established to the satisfaction of a foreign Court that the property constitutes proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property, it may order that the property be recovered and be vested in the State until such arrangement is made by the Commission with the foreign State for its disposal or transfer.

(2) The Court may issue an Order under subsection (1) on such conditions as it thinks fit to impose, including any condition as to payment of debts, sale, transfer or disposal of any property.

(3) Any person who claims to have an interest in a property subject to an Order registered under section 107 may, within 21 days from the last publication of the registration under section 107(5), apply to the Court for an Order under subsection (4).

(4) Where the Court is satisfied that the applicant under subsection (3) acquired the property without knowing, and in circumstances such as not to arouse a reasonable suspicion, that the property was, at the time of acquisition, proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property, the Court shall issue an Order declaring the nature of the interest of the applicant.

(5) The Court shall, on application by the Commission, cancel the registration of any foreign Order if it appears to it that the Order has ceased to have effect.

109. Foreign request for the location of tainted property

(1) Where a foreign State requests the Commission to assist in locating property believed to be proceeds, an instrumentality or a terrorist property, the Commission may apply to a Judge for an Order that –

- (a) any information relevant to –
 - (i) identifying, locating or quantifying any property; or
 - (ii) identifying or locating any document necessary for the transfer of any property,be delivered forthwith to the Commission; or
- (b) a financial institution forthwith produces to the Commission all information obtained by it about any business transaction relating to the property for such period, before or after the date of the Order, as a Judge may direct.

(2) Notwithstanding section 26 of the Bank of Mauritius Act, section 64 of the Banking Act and section 83 of the Financial Services Act, a Judge may issue an Order under subsection (1) on being satisfied that –

- (a) the document is material and necessary to the proceedings in the foreign State; and
- (b) the law of the foreign State authorises the issuing of such an Order in circumstances similar to the one relating to the request.

(3) A Judge may, on good cause shown by the Commission that a person is failing to comply with, is delaying or is otherwise obstructing an Order issued in accordance with subsection (1), order the Commission to enter and search the premises specified in the Order and remove any document, material or other thing therein for the purpose of executing such Order.

110. Disposal of proceeds of crime

(1) On a request by a foreign State made to him, the Attorney-General may, after consultation with the Commission, transfer to it any proceeds, instrumentality or terrorist property recovered in Mauritius in response to a request for the enforcement of a foreign Order.

(2) Unless the foreign State and Mauritius agree otherwise, the Attorney-General may deduct reasonable expenses incurred in the recovery, criminal enquiry and judicial proceedings which have led to a transfer referred to in subsection (1).

111. Proceedings in foreign State

The Attorney-General may initiate legal proceedings in a Court of a foreign State, subject to the provisions and requirements of the national law of the foreign State, in order to establish the title to, or ownership of, property acquired through the commission of an offence which is also an offence in accordance with Part III of the UN Convention Against Corruption 2003, and to seek recovery of that property.

PART VI – UNEXPLAINED WEALTH

Sub-Part I – Application of Part VI

112. Application of Part VI

- (1) This Part shall apply to the property of citizens of Mauritius.
- (2) This Part shall not apply to –
 - (a) any property acquired or having come in the possession or under the custody or control of a person more than 7 years before 1 January 2016;

- (b) unexplained wealth of less than 10 million rupees, other than unexplained wealth of at least 2.5 million rupees in cash which has been seized by an investigatory authority.

(3) No Unexplained Wealth Order shall be issued under section 119 in relation to any property acquired or having come in the possession or under the custody or control of a person more than 7 years before the date on which a request under section 114(1)(a) is made.

(4) Any application made under this Part shall constitute civil proceedings and the onus shall lie on the respondent to establish, on a balance of probabilities, that any property is not unexplained wealth.

Sub-Part II – Proceedings in Relation to Unexplained Wealth

113. Reporting of unexplained wealth

(1) Notwithstanding any enactment, where, in the discharge of his functions –

- (a) a judicial officer;
- (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions;
- (c) the Commissioner of Police;
- (d) the Director-General of the Mauritius Revenue Authority;
- (e) the Governor of the Bank of Mauritius;
- (f) the Director of the Financial Intelligence Unit;
- (g) the Ombudsman;
- (h) the Director of Audit; or
- (i) any other person,

has reasonable grounds to suspect that a person has acquired unexplained wealth, he shall make a written report of the matter to the Commission.

(2) Any person who makes a report under subsection (1) shall assist the Commission in any investigation which may be carried out in relation to the matter disclosed.

114. Investigation into unexplained wealth

(1) The Director-General may –

- (a) on receipt of a report under section 113 by the Commission, or on his own initiative, request, in writing, any person to make a statement under oath, within 21 working days or any such longer period as he may determine, to justify the source of any property which the person owns, possesses, has custody or control of, or any funds which are believed to have been used in the acquisition of any property;
- (b) investigate whether any person referred to in paragraph (a) –
 - (i) has a standard of living which is commensurate with his emoluments or other income;
 - (ii) owns, possesses, has custody or control of, or which are believed to have been used in the acquisition of, property to an extent which is disproportionate to his emoluments or other income; or
 - (iii) is able to justify as to how he came into ownership, possession, custody or control of any property.

(2) The Director-General shall, after any investigation into unexplained wealth under subsection (1), report the matter to the Commission.

(3) Where the Director-General reports a matter to the Commission, it shall not initiate any action in respect of that matter, unless directed by the Commission.

(4) Where a report is made pursuant to subsection (2), the Commission shall determine –

- (a) whether an application for an Unexplained Wealth Order shall be made;
- (b) what further action, if any, shall be taken in respect of the report; and
- (c) whether any person deserves a reward and the quantum thereof.

(5) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Director-General –

- (a) may request from a competent authority any information it considers relevant for the purposes of discharging its functions under this Part;
- (b) may request any person for the communication or production of any relevant book, document, record or article.

(6) Any person who receives a request under subsection (5)(b) or (c) shall, within 14 days, comply with the request.

(7) (a) Where an investigatory authority has already instituted any proceedings in connection with the confiscation of property, the Commission may, after consultation with that investigatory authority, request it to stay action.

(b) Where that investigatory authority stays action pursuant to paragraph (a), the Commission shall institute action for the confiscation of the property pursuant to this Part.

(8) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), where suspected unexplained wealth is the subject of concurrent reports with an investigatory authority, the Commission may, after consultation with that investigatory authority, initiate action on the report to the exclusion of other bodies.

(b) Where the Commission determines that the report submitted discloses reliable evidence of underlying criminal activity, it shall refer the matter to that investigatory authority.

(c) Where the Commission determines that it shall initiate action on the report, no further action for the confiscation of property shall be taken thereon by an investigatory authority.

115. Application for disclosure order

(1) The Commission may, where a person fails to make a statement under oath under section 114(1)(a) in relation to a suspected case of unexplained wealth, make an application to a Judge for a disclosure order –

- (a) to obtain information on property held by a person or by any other person on his behalf; or
- (b) requiring any person to disclose the sources of funds used to acquire, possess or control any property.

(2) The Commission may, notwithstanding section 64 of the Banking Act, apply to a Judge for a disclosure order requiring a financial institution to disclose any information the Commission considers relevant for the purpose of an investigation under this Act.

116. Inscription of privilege or lien

(1) The Director-General may, before submitting a report to the Commission under section 114(2), inscribe a privilege or lien in favour of the Government on the property which is the subject matter of a request made by the Director-General under section 114(1)(a).

(2) Where a request is made, no transfer, pledging, disposal of, or other dealing with, the property shall be made.

(3) The Commission shall deposit with the Conservator of Mortgages 2 identical memoranda in such form as may be prescribed and forthwith notify the person whose property has been subject of a privilege or lien under subsection (1).

(4) The Conservator of Mortgages shall, on deposit of the memoranda, inscribe the privilege or lien generally on the property referred to in subsection (1) and return one of the memoranda to the Commission with a statement written or stamped on it to the effect that the privilege has been inscribed.

(5) Where a privilege or lien is inscribed under this section, it shall take effect from the date of the inscription.

(6) (a) The inscription of privilege under this section shall, unless renewed, lapse 42 days from the date of the deposit of the memoranda at the Office of the Conservator of Mortgages and shall accordingly be erased.

(b) Where an inscription is erased pursuant to paragraph (a), the Commission shall, within 5 working days of the date of the notification of the erasure by the Conservator of Mortgages, give written notice thereof to the person on whose property the inscription was made.

(7) Any inscription or erasure which is required to be taken or made under this section shall be free from stamp duty under the Stamp Duty Act, or registration dues leviable under the Registration Duty Act and or any other costs under any other enactment.

Sub-Part III – Unexplained Wealth Order

117. Application for Unexplained Wealth Order

(1) Where the Commission has reasonable grounds to suspect that a person has unexplained wealth, it shall make an application to a Judge for an Unexplained Wealth Order for the confiscation of that unexplained wealth.

(2) The Commission may amend an application for an Unexplained Wealth Order at any time before the final determination of the application by a Judge where reasonable notice of the amendment is given to every person on whom the application has been served.

(3) Where an application is made under subsection (1), the Commission may apply for an Order prohibiting the transfer, pledging, disposal, or otherwise dealing with, the property.

118. Service of Unexplained Wealth Order application

(1) Where the Commission makes an application for an Unexplained Wealth Order, it shall serve a copy of the application on the respondent and such other person as a Judge may direct.

(2) Nothing shall prevent a Judge from issuing an Unexplained Wealth Order in the absence of the respondent, or any other person on whom service has been effected.

119. Issue of Unexplained Wealth Order

(1) Where the Commission makes an application for an Unexplained Wealth Order and a Judge is satisfied that the respondent has unexplained wealth, a Judge shall issue an Unexplained Wealth Order or an order for the payment of its monetary equivalent.

(2) Where a Judge issues an Unexplained Wealth Order for the confiscation of any virtual asset, the respondent shall further be ordered to disclose all such information to the Commission as is necessary in order to enable the recovery of the virtual asset.

(3) Where a Judge considers that an application for an Unexplained Wealth Order under subsection (1) cannot be issued on the basis of affidavit evidence, he shall refer the matter to the Court.

120. Appeal against Unexplained Wealth Order

(1) The Commission may, where an application for an Unexplained Wealth Order has been rejected, or a respondent or any other person who has been served with an application for an Unexplained Wealth Order is aggrieved by the issue of an Unexplained Wealth Order may, appeal against such decision to the Court of Civil Appeal in accordance with the Court of Civil Appeal Act.

(2) Where an Unexplained Wealth Order has been issued, it shall remain in force until the final determination of an appeal under subsection (1).

121. Enforcement of Unexplained Wealth Order

(1) On the day on which an Unexplained Wealth Order takes effect, the property which is the subject of the Order shall vest in the State.

(2) Where an Unexplained Wealth Order takes effect, the Commission may forthwith take possession of that property on behalf of the State from any person in possession, or entitled to possession, of the property.

(3) The Commission shall dispose of any property confiscated under an Unexplained Wealth Order by sale or such other means as the Court may direct.

(4) Any right or interest in confiscated property not exercisable by or transferable to the State shall expire and shall not revert to the person who has possession, or was entitled to possession, of the property immediately before the Unexplained Wealth Order took effect.

(5) No person who has possession, or was entitled to possession, of a confiscated property immediately before an Unexplained Wealth Order took effect, and no person acting in concert with or on behalf of that person shall purchase any recovered property at any sale conducted by the Commission.

(6) The Commission shall deposit into the Recovered Assets Fund the proceeds of any sale or disposition of confiscated property and any moneys recovered.

(7) The expenses incurred in connection with the recovery and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance and custody of the property pending its disposition, advertising and Court costs, shall be defrayed out of the Recovered Assets Fund.

(8) The Commission shall appoint an expert to assist in the recovery and realisation of any confiscated virtual asset.

122. Reward

Where the Director-General is of the opinion that a public body, statutory body or any other person has disclosed matters which have led to the confiscation of properties which are proceeds, instrumentalities, terrorist properties or unexplained wealth, he shall make a report to the Commission and recommend a reward.

PART VII – PROTECTION OF, AND ASSISTANCE TO, INFORMERS AND WITNESSES

123. Protection of informers

(1) Where the Commission receives information in confidence to the effect that an offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act has been, is being or is likely to be committed, that information and the identity of the informer shall be secret between the Commission and the informer, and all matters relating to such information shall be privileged and shall not be disclosed in any proceedings before any Court, Tribunal or any other authority.

(2) Where any record, which is given in evidence or liable to inspection in any civil, criminal or other proceedings, contains an entry relating to the informer or the information given by the informer, the Director-General shall cause all parts relating to the informer or the information given to be concealed from view so as to protect the identity of the informer.

(3) The Commission shall develop a policy and procedure to protect and reward an informer in accordance with best practices and guidelines issued by the Office of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

124. Protection of witnesses

- (1) Subject to subsection (6), where a person –
- (a) discloses or makes a report to the Commission that a person, public official, public body, private entity or any other person is or has been involved in any offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act; and
 - (b) at the time he makes the disclosure or report, has reasonable grounds to believe that the information he discloses or reports may be true and is of such a nature as to warrant an investigation under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act, he shall incur no civil or criminal liability as a result of such disclosure or report.

- (2) Subject to subsection (6), where a public official –
- (a) discloses or reports to his responsible officer or to the Commission that any offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act may have occurred within the public body in which he is employed; and

- (b) has reasonable grounds to believe that the information is true,

he shall incur no civil or criminal liability as a result of such disclosure or report and no disciplinary action shall be instituted against him by reason only of such disclosure or report.

(3) A person who makes a disclosure or report under subsection (1) or (2) shall assist the Commission in any investigation which the Commission may make in relation to the matters disclosed or reported by him.

(4) A person to whom a disclosure or report is made under subsection (1) or (2) shall not, without the consent of that other person who makes the disclosure or report, divulge the identity of that other person except where it is necessary to ensure that the matters to which the information relates are properly investigated.

(5) Any person who commits an act of victimisation against a person who has made a disclosure or report under subsection (1) or (2) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

(6) Any person who makes a false disclosure or report under subsection (1) or (2) knowing it to be false shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

- (7) In this section –

“victimisation” means an act –

- (a) which causes injury, damage or loss;
- (b) of intimidation or harassment;
- (c) of discrimination, disadvantage or adverse treatment in relation to a person’s employment; or
- (d) which amounts to threats of reprisals.

125. Witness Protection Scheme

(1) The Commission may set up a Protection Unit to provide protection and assistance to endangered persons under a Witness Protection Scheme.

(2) An endangered person may submit a request to the Commission to be included in the Witness Protection Scheme, in the event that the free testimony of that person in any criminal proceedings could not be obtained in any other way.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Commission may, on its own initiative, invite a person whom it considers as an endangered person to be included in the Witness Protection Scheme.

(4) The inclusion of an endangered person into the Witness Protection Scheme shall be voluntary and the included person shall give his consent to the Witness Protection Scheme.

(5) An included person included in the Witness Protection Scheme shall exit the scheme where the Commission is satisfied that the person is no longer an endangered person or upon an application made by the person.

PART VIII – THE OPERATIONS REVIEW COMMITTEE126. Operations Review Committee

(1) There shall be an Operations Review Committee which shall consist of –

- (a) a chairperson, who shall be a retired Judge of the Supreme Court or a law practitioner of at least 10 years' standing;

a Magistrate shall have jurisdiction to try any offence under this Act and may impose any penalty provided for by this Act.

142. Prosecution

(1) (a) Following the conclusion of an investigation and the receipt of a report under section 58, the Commission may institute such criminal proceedings as it may consider appropriate for any offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act.

(b) The institution of criminal proceedings by the Commission under paragraph (a) shall be without prejudice to the powers of the Director of Public Prosecutions vested in him to the exclusion of any other person or authority under section 72(3)(b) and (c) of the Constitution to take over, continue or discontinue such criminal proceedings.

(c) The Director of Public Prosecutions may discontinue before any Court the criminal proceedings instituted by the Commission under paragraph (a) giving such reasons as he may deem fit for such discontinuance before the Court.

(d) Where any aggrieved party is dissatisfied with the decision of the Director of Public Prosecutions under paragraph (c), the aggrieved party may apply to the Supreme Court for a judicial review of the decision.

(e) The aggrieved party shall, within 21 days of the date of the decision of the Director of Public Prosecutions under paragraph (c) –

- (i) lodge the application for judicial review and the grounds thereof at the Registry of the Supreme Court;
- (ii) at the same time, serve a notice of the application to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(f) The Chief Justice may make such rules as may be appropriate for the purpose of an application for judicial review under paragraph (d).

(2) Notwithstanding any other enactment, an officer designated in writing by the Commission may swear or affirm and file an information for the institution of criminal proceedings before the Supreme Court or any other competent Court for any offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act.

(3) This section shall be without prejudice to the Chief Legal Adviser, or any officer of the Legal Division designated by him, conducting the prosecution for any offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act.

143. Acts committed outside Mauritius

(1) Where the act alleged to constitute an offence under this Act occurred outside Mauritius, a Court in Mauritius shall, regardless of whether or not the act constitutes an offence at the place of its commission, have jurisdiction in respect of that offence if the person to be charged –

- (a) is a citizen of Mauritius;
- (b) is ordinarily resident in Mauritius;

- (c) was arrested in Mauritius or in its territorial waters or on a ship or an aircraft registered or required to be registered in Mauritius at the time the offence was committed;
- (d) is a private entity.

(2) Any act alleged to constitute an offence under this Act and which is committed outside Mauritius by a person, other than a person referred to in subsection (1), shall, regardless of whether or not the act constitutes an offence at the place of its commission, be deemed to have been committed in Mauritius where that –

- (a) act affects or is intended to affect a public body, a business or any other person in Mauritius;
- (b) person is found to be in Mauritius;
- (c) person is, for any reason, not extradited by Mauritius, or if there is no application to extradite that person.

(3) Any offence committed in a country outside Mauritius as specified in subsection (1) or (2) is, for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of a Court to try the offence, deemed to have been committed –

- (a) at the place where the accused is ordinarily resident; or
- (b) at the accused person's principal place of business.

(4) Where a person is charged with conspiracy or giving instructions to commit an offence, the offence shall be deemed to have been committed not only at the place where the act was committed, but also at every place where the conspirator or the person giving instructions acted or, in case of an omission, should have acted.

144. Admissible evidence

(1) Where, in any proceedings for an offence under this Act or the Declaration of Assets Act, it is established that the accused –

- (a) has been maintaining a standard of living which was not commensurate with his emoluments or other income;

- (b) has been in control of property to an extent which is disproportionate to his emoluments or other income;
- (c) held property for which he, his relative or associate, is unable to give a satisfactory account as to how he came into its ownership, possession, custody or control, that evidence shall be admissible to corroborate other evidence relating to the commission of the offence.

(2) Notwithstanding any other enactment –

- (a) any evidence gathered in the course of an investigation by a Division of the Commission and used by another Division of the Commission; or
- (b) any information, document or any other evidence shared to the Commission through the National Coordination Committee or the Public-Private Partnership Task Force, or pursuant to any Memorandum of Understanding, shall be admissible evidence in any Court proceedings.

(3) Notwithstanding any confidentiality provision under this Act and under any other enactment, an investigatory authority or any other relevant authority that has provided information, through its relevant officer, to the Commission during the course of an investigation, shall provide the information as evidence in Court, through the relevant officer or any other relevant officer, when summoned to do so.

145. Burden of proof with regard to corruption offence

In the course of a trial of an accused for a corruption offence, it shall be presumed that at the time a gratification was received, the recipient knew that such gratification was made for a corrupt purpose.

Sub-Part II – Other Sanctions

146. Ordering deprivation of monetary benefits and property

Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act and the Court is satisfied that, as a result of committing the offence, the person has benefited from monetary benefits or from a property, the Court may, in addition to the fine and imprisonment imposed for that offence, order the person to pay a penalty in an amount not exceeding 100 times the amount of the monetary benefits or value of the property and that penalty shall be recovered in the same manner as a fine.

147. Ordering compensation for loss or damage

Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act, the Court may, in addition to the fine and imprisonment imposed for that offence, order the person to pay –

- (a) compensation to the owner of any property damaged or destroyed as a direct result of the offence;
- (b) any costs incurred in detecting, apprehending, investigating or prosecuting the offence;
- (c) any costs incurred in detaining or seizing any property or thing in respect of that offence;
- (d) any other loss or damage caused by the offence, and the compensation for such loss, damage or costs shall be recovered in the same manner as a fine.

148. Confiscation of property

Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act, the Court may, in addition to the fine and imprisonment imposed for that offence, order the confiscation of the property which is the subject matter of the offence.

149. Civil and administrative sanctions

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act, the Court may, in addition to the fine and imprisonment imposed for that offence, order –

- (a) in the case of a natural person, the following civil or administrative sanctions, as the case may be –
 - (i) the payment of a sum to the State representing a percentage of the annual turnover or total annual

- salary of the natural person, the calculation of which shall be based on the annual turnover or annual salary of that person for the 3 previous years as from the date of the offence;
- (ii) the removal or suspension of the natural person from a public office or an office in a State-owned enterprise, for such period as the Court may determine;
 - (iii) the disqualification of the natural person from holding a public office or an office in a State-owned enterprise, for such period as the Court may determine;
