MUNICIPAL MARKET/FAIR CONTRACT FORM

Between

THE CITY COUNCIL OF PORT LOUIS, represented by its Lord Mayor, .....and its Chief Executive, ....., having its registered office at the City Hall, Jules Koenig Street, Port Louis, hereinafter referred to as the “City Council”,

PARTY ON THE ONE PART

And

-----holder of N.I. Card No.
----- issued on -----hereinafter referred to as the “Stall-Occupier”,

PARTY ON THE OTHER PART

IT HAS BEEN AGREED AND COVENANTED AS FOLLOWS: -

1. The City Council grants to the stall-occupier the right of occupation of stall no. .... in the ..... section in the ..... Market/Fair, Port Louis for the purpose of selling..... only therein for and in consideration of a monthly sum of Rs ..... as right of occupation.
2. The aforesaid right of occupation shall cover the period from the ..... to ..... and may be renewed for further period or periods as may be decided, at the option of the City Council, subject to the right of the City Council to revise the monthly fee stipulated in paragraph (4), hereunder at the beginning of each of such renewed periods, provided that the occupier shall be notified of such a proposed revision at least three (3) months before the determination of the aforesaid right of occupation. For this purpose, notice of service at the stall in question shall be sufficient and deemed to be service on the stall-occupier.
3. In case the right of occupation is not renewed at its expiry, or the right of occupation is terminated for any reason whatsoever, the trade fee shall not be renewed at its expiry date.
4. The monthly right of occupation is granted in consideration of a fee which amounts to Rs..... per stall and shall be paid in full by the stall-occupier at latest or by .....
Such payment shall be made at the City Council of Port Louis, Cashier's Office.
5. (i) Should the stall-occupier fail to pay the right of occupation fee by the due date, the City Council may rescind the contract by registered letter and without judicial or extra judicial process. The contract shall then come to an end "de plein droit". Such letter shall be sent by post or delivered at the stall in question and be deemed to be sufficient service on the stall-occupier.

(ii) Such rescission shall be without prejudice to any other action, which the City Council may lawfully be entitled to take against the stall-occupier. The stall-occupier shall forthwith vacate the stall and remove all articles therefrom. He shall not be entitled to the payment of any indemnity or refund whatsoever.

6. The occupier shall not be entitled to sell, transfer, cede, let, assign or otherwise dispose the aforesaid right of occupation. In case he has done any such act or acts, the present contract shall come to an end “de plein droit” without any other formality or authority and he shall be informed accordingly by letter sent by registered post on the stall in question.
7. The City Council reserves itself the right to carry out any structural change on a stall or to alter the general layout of the market/fair without the stall-occupier being entitled to any compensation whatsoever for loss of trade or otherwise. Such right shall include any alterations, repairs or a change in site/location of any stall should the City Council consider it advisable.
8. Should the stall-occupier be found guilty by a Court in virtue of a contravention of regulations or any other enactment relating to trade in the market/fair or the sale of food for human consumption, the Council may rescind the contract by notice in writing and without any judicial or extra judicial process. In that case, the stall-occupier shall forthwith vacate the stall and remove all articles therefrom. He shall not be entitled to receive any indemnity whatsoever from the City Council.
9. The stall-occupier shall abide by, obey and be subject to all Municipal Markets/Fairs Regulations made by this Council under the Local Government Act 2011.
10. The stall-occupier shall submit four passport size photographs of his/her employee/s and have the said employee/s registered officially with the Inspector in charge of the Market and with the Ministry of Social Security and National Solidarity (National Pension Fund) in accordance with the National Pension Act. The stall-occupier and his employee/s shall wear ostensibly at his costs and at all times an identifiable card with his photograph and names thereon, approved by the City Council.
11. In case the stall-occupier vacates the stall in lite for any reason whatsoever, he/his employee/s and in case of death or otherwise, his heirs and successors, shall not be entitled to the payment of any indemnity, compensation, plus value or any damage such as for the construction and installation of protective shutters, shelves, counters, working tables, etc. and or other works carried out and which shall remain forever the property of the City Council.

- 12. The stall-occupier engages and binds himself not to cause any modification whatsoever to the stall in lite except with the authorisation in writing of the City Council and will confine himself for the purpose of his trade to the space allotted to him by the City Council.
- 13. The stall-occupier engages and binds himself not to cause any inconvenience and annoyance to the other stall-occupiers and/or the users of the market/fair.
- 14. In case the stall-occupier requires for the purpose of his trade electricity, water or any other services, he shall apply to the City Council in writing who may grant him such authorisation and give him such directions as it may deem fit and proper. All costs, charges, etc. shall be at the stall-occupier's costs and expenses. Pending the installation of individual meters by the Central Electricity Board/Central Water Authority, the stall-occupier agrees to contribute, to refund or to pay back to the City Council such sum of money for his share of electricity/water used in his trade and consumed by him. He or she will have to settle same regularly within ten (10) days as from the date the claim has been sent to him. The City Council shall not be responsible at all for any damage, prejudice or inconvenience that the stall-occupier may suffer in case the electricity/water supply is disconnected or cancelled for any reason whatsoever.

In case a stall-occupier fails to pay arrears for electricity/water charges for three or more consecutive months, the contract shall come to an end "de plein droit" without any other formality or authority.

- 15. Subject to paragraph 16 below, the stall-occupier's death shall put an end to the contract binding him to the City Council. The City Council shall have the right to take back the stall and no trade fee shall be issued.
- 16. In case the stall occupier passes away before the expiry date of the present agreement, any of his/her children or his/her surviving spouse named by him in this agreement as follows.....
..... or any document addressed by the stall-occupier to the Council on the date of the signature of this agreement, shall continue to occupy the stall no..... for the remaining period of the said contract. The Council shall renew the contract for a further period of 3 years with the consent of the spouse/heir, provided that the latter satisfies the following conditions:-

- (i) has reached his/her 18th birthday at the time of submission of the EOI [copy of identity card and birth certificate to be produced];

(ii) he/she be unemployed at the time of the demise of his “author” [unemployment registration card to be produced at the time of submission of EOI];

(iii) not already be the holder of any stall, shop or other place inside a market or fair or in any other place or business [evidence to be produced on submission of EOI (e.g sworn affidavit)];

17. In case the stall-occupier passes away, his/her surviving spouse or his/her heirs must immediately inform the Council about the demise of the stall-occupier and produce the act of death. In default of such notification clause 16 shall be of no effect.

18. All the provisions contained in all Municipal Markets/Fairs Regulations made under the Local Government Act 2011 shall apply to all markets/fairs generally.

19. Should the stall-occupier fail to comply with any one of the abovementioned Clauses, the present contract shall become null and void “de plein droit”. Furthermore the City Council shall be at liberty to take any such steps, as it shall deem fit and proper.
